Backers of 'Dictatorship' Bill Retreat Again

PRESIDENT WILL TELL CONGRESS OF RAIL SUBSIDY

Plans Message After Conference.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—After listening to pleas by railroad officials and employés for a temporary government subsidy of nearly half a billion dollars a year President Roosevelt today announced that he will send a special message to congress this week proposing legislation to rehabilitate the railroads.

The subsidy might take the form, in part, of unsecured loans to the railroads by the Reconstruction Finance corporation, under the terms of a bill passed by the senate last week and by the house today. This legislation will enable the RFC to loan up to 1½ billion dollars to industries and other private enterprise, including railroads.

Major Recovery Measure.

Mr. Roosevelt will submit his railroad relief program to congress as a major recovery measure. With one-third of the mileage in bankruptcy and revenue of the larger roads beginning to fall below expenses, the country's transportation system is facing financial collapse.

Government action, the President holds, is imperative to save the railroads and relief that enables the carriers to resume their normal expenditure of a billion dollars a year on equipment, roadway and other permanent improvements will furnish a potent impetus to business recovery.

Will Present Recommendations.

In connection with his message to congress the President will make public the recommendations of the committee headed by Chairman Walter M. W. Splawn of the interstate commerce commission. These recommendations cover the immediate problem of emergency financial relief for the carriers and also a long range plan of railroad rehabilitation by means of consolidations and other eliminations of duplicate services and the introduction of sweeping economies of administration and operation.

In the White House conference today Mr. Roosevelt met groups of railroad executives and of railroad labor leaders. Representing the railroad owners were J. J. Pelley, president of the Association of American Railroads, F. E. Williamson, president of the New York Central; S. T. Bledsoe, president of the Santa Fé system, and Ernest E. Morris, president of the Southern railway.

Represent Rail Brotherhoods.

Representing the brotherhoods were George Harrison, chairman of the railway labor executives association; D. B. Robertson, president of the brotherhood of firemen and enginemen; E. J. Manion, president of the telegraphers, and S. H. Hogan, president of the marine engineers.

This conference was sought jointly by management and employés for the purpose of laying before the President the government subsidy proposals, which originated with Mr. Harrison and were approved by the managers. The suggestion of a government subsidy evolved from the recent conferences between managers and brotherhood representatives on a reduction of wages proposed by the employers. The managers presented a pay reduction as an item in a general scaling down of expenses held essential to the avoidance of bankruptcy by most of the roads not already in the hands of receivers.

Join in Plea for Subsidy.

The brotherhoods resisted the move for a pay cut and in the course of the discussion Mr. Harrison proposed that the employers and employés join in a plea to the government for a subsidy which would enable the roads to operate at a profit without cutting wages. The managers agreed to join in the move and to withhold further consideration of the pay cut pending action on the subsidy proposal.

In the White House conference Mr. Pelley presented the financial plight of the carriers in some detail and defended the proposed pay cut as a measure of last resort for bringing expenses within revenues. Mr. Roosevelt urged the carriers to abandon all thought of reducing wages. Mr.

WOODRUM JOINS ATTACK; FEARS PERIL TO NATION

Immunity Is Granted Veterans Bureau.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—In the lobbies and lounges of the house today, supporters and opponents of the government reorganization bill waged a wordy war for the votes of members. Despite the granting of several concessions, backers of the measure were still frankly worried about the sentiment of the lawmakers.

Representative Woodrum.

Outstanding among the day's developments was the announcement by Representative Clifton A. Woodrum [D., Va.], that he found himself unable to support the bill. Woodrum, a popular veteran who handles most of the appropriation bills in the house, has a strong following, particularly among southern Democrats opposed to President Roosevelt's spending policies.

Expect Vote This Week.

While the bill was not officially before the house today, various members insisted on making short speeches on it and interest remained at a fever pitch. General debate will be resumed tomorrow and a vote on passage is expected this week.

A new concession was won by opponents today when administration leaders agreed to an amendment exempting the veterans' administration from any merger. Victory for such an amendment was fraught with danger for the measure, however, a number of congressmen pointed out. It opens the way for proposals to exempt other agencies, with a possibility of log rolling among groups who do not want various bureaus touched.

Representative Lindsay C. Warren [D., N. C.], author of the general reorganization provisions, reluctantly agreed to exemption of the veterans' administration from provisions that the President may abolish or reshape it.

Earlier Defeat Averted.

Warren staved off what seemed to be certain defeat of the bill last week by announcing that the reorganization committee would agree to an amendment requiring approval of the President's reorganization proposals by a concurrent resolution in congress. A concurrent resolution does not require the President's signature; a joint resolution does. Warren also agreed to an amendment knocking out a provision which had been attacked as authorizing the federalization of education.

The catch in the concurrent resolution amendment, according to opponents of the bill, is that President Roosevelt has expressed himself as

During March Tribune total daily circulation registered a new all-time high for any month on record—872,512 net paid and a gain of 39,370 over March, 1937.

City and suburban Tribune daily circulation during March also broke all previous monthly records—703,334 and a gain of 29,147 over March, 1937.

March was the 25th consecutive month in which Tribune total daily circulation gained over the same month in the previous year. It was the 28th consecutive month in which Tribune city and suburban daily circulation gained over the same month in the previous year.

HOW TO KEEP OUT OF THE NEXT WAR

Phone Worker in Handbook Is Shot to Death

Joseph V. Berger, an employé of the Illinois Bell Telephone company, was mysteriously shot and killed last night in a handbook room behind a cigar store at 3455 North Clark street. Berger was 30 years old and lived at 3419 Berteau avenue.

Joseph V. Berger.

John Kowal of 616 Rush street, who said he was the proprietor of the place, told police two stories. The first was that he had no gun and did not know how Berger, who was working on phone and public address wires at the time, came to be wounded. There was an explosion, Kowal said, and Berger, suddenly straightening up from his work behind the payoff counter, cried:

"I'm shot."

Victim Dies in Hospital.

Kowal said Berger collapsed at once and that he and Mrs. Kowal and her sister, Catherine, who were in the place watching the men work, called a doctor. Berger, a friend of Kowal's from childhood, died of a wound in the abdomen at Swedish Covenant hospital, where the doctor took him in his own car before the police arrived.

Kowal was taken to the Town Hall station and after lengthy questioning by Capt. Patrick O'Connell and Sergt. Michael Ahern changed this first story materially.

The second version was that a gun had been placed by some unknown person on a shelf under the counter. Kowal said he was working on top of the counter cutting through it with a keyhole saw when he felt the saw touch something movable on the shelf beneath.

The gun then fell to the floor, he insisted, where it was discharged, the bullet striking Berger. Kowal said he took the gun in a panic, to the river and threw it in.

Disclaim Knowledge of Gun.

Also present was Jack Odens, Kowal's partner, who lives at 3434 Broadway. Odens declared he did not know there was a gun in the place.

The rear entrance of the handbook was bolted and barred and the door covered with building board. There were no holes in any of the barred windows. The only entrance is through the cigar store in front.

Police decided to continue with the questioning of Kowal. He and Odens were held. The others were freed.

DIONNE QUINTS GET NEW BABY BROTHER; BOY IS CHILD NO. 13

[Copyright: 1938: By the New York News.]

CALLANDER, Ont., April 4.—A baby brother arrived tonight in the family of the Dionne quintuplets. The child was born at 8:15 p. m. in the Dionne farmhouse while the quintuplets were sound asleep in their own nursery a short distance away.

The thirteenth Dionne baby weighed 7¾ pounds. Informed by Dr. I. Joyal, obstetrician from North Bay, that she had another son, a fifth, Mrs. Oliva Dionne, who is 28 years old, exclaimed in French: "I am so glad. I am not surprised either, for all along I had been expecting a boy."

"Won't the quintuplets be excited by the news that they have a brand new baby brother," smiled the mother. "Just think of all the fuss they've made over 21 month old Oliva Jr. every time he has been taken to the nursery."

Loses His Battle for Right to Bathe in Own Back Yard

Washington, D. C., April 4.—(AP)—William Heller of Easton, Conn., lost a prolonged legal battle today for the right to bathe in a brook in his own back yard. Saying there was no substantial federal question involved, the Supreme court dismissed his appeal from a decision of the Connecticut Supreme court, which ruled that, inasmuch as the stream eventually flows into a Bridgeport reservoir, bathing in it was a privilege Heller must forego.

Navajo Law Puts Indian Sign on Mother-in-Law

Washington, D. C., April 4.—(AP)—Indian bureau officials today cited an old Navajo law as the solution to all mother-in-law trouble. It decreed that the mother-in-law might have no direct conversation with her son-in-law.

Wildcat Leaps at Fur Neck Piece, Injuring Wearer

Bend, Ore., April 4.—(AP)—Mrs. George L. Baker, wife of a former Portland mayor, suffered deep neck lacerations yesterday when a captive wildcat leaped at two fox heads she wore as a neckpiece.

Take Teachers' Millions for Jersey Relief

Trenton, N. J., April 4.—[Special.]—Gov. A. Harry Moore today signed a series of measures establishing a $19,020,398 fund to finance New Jersey's relief program for 1938, despite bitter opposition by teachers throughout the state.

Teachers have assailed the key section of the bill that enables the state to withhold its appropriation of $4,890,398 annually paid into the state teachers' pension and annuity fund, on the promise of the legislature that the amount will be repaid in 1942 with 3 per cent interest.

While the house debated the bill last Tuesday 5,000 members of the State Teachers association jammed the galleries of the capitol and overflowed into the street. They shouted that it was robbery and would destroy the soundness of their fund.

Cash Can't Be Used Now.

In return for the I. O. U. the legislators promised that the money would be repaid from 5 million dollars now in the banks of the state. This sum represents money repaid by municipalities for state loans to build schools. The catch is that it cannot be used for other purposes until 1942.

The teachers, however, appeared to have little faith in the promises of the politicians. Miss Sarah O. Whitlock of New Brunswick, president of the teachers association said the organization is skeptical of the pledge, to state it mildly.

"The 1938 legislature," she said, "cannot bind the 1942 legislature to do anything."

Declares Money Is Safe.

While the bill was pending requests of the teachers for a public hearing on it met rebuffs. The speaker of the house held that such a hearing would only delay action in a most critical emergency.

When he signed the measure today Gov. Moore took cognizance of the teachers' protest and declared that they need not fear their fund is being threatened. "By earmarking this $4,890,398 payable in 1942, plus 3 per cent interest, payable semi-annually, the state is enabled to meet the emergency relief situation," he said. "The fund will receive a higher and safer interest return than it would from any other legal source."

Gov. Moore also signed today a bill creating a commission of eleven members to study the relief situation, which steadily grows worse in the state.

Revived G.O.P. Assails Foes, Hails Lyons

Republicans last night put on a display of united power and purpose which dwarfed anything shown to date by the warring Democratic factions. Nearly 8,000 clamorous anti-administration voters greeted the candidates led by Richard J. Lyons, who is virtually unopposed for the nomination for United States senator.

More than 5,000 were seated on the floor of the Grand ballroom of the Hotel Sherman. Three hundred stood shoulder to shoulder around the walls. Seven hundred were packed three and four deep between the balcony railing and wall. A thousand blocked all of the entrances to the ballroom and stood in the foyer. The others listened to loudspeakers on the mezzanine floor and outside on Randolph street.

Parade Starts Fireworks.

All this was done without benefit of public pay rolls. A parade by neighborly men and women Republican workers from the country towns around the ballroom before it was packed was the first indication of the spirit of the gathering. Many were volunteers.

There was a jovial cheer from the throng for each candidate and ward committeeman introduced upon his entrance by Master of Ceremonies Frank Kalteaux. Even more enthusiasm greeted the talk of Edward F Moore, chairman of the Cook county central committee.

Moore referred to a rumor that Republican leaders were joining in the campaign to nominate County Judge Jarecki. He was angry.

Agrees with Both Sides.

"I am not in the least concerned in the Democratic primary fight except to make it harder and more bitter," he said. "I am fully in accord with what both Democratic candidates for county judge are saying about each other. They are both telling the truth and as far as I am concerned they are not telling one-half enough about each other.

"Here is my position:

"I am interested only in the Republican vote and I want as large a Republican vote in this April primary as it is humanly possible to get. I not only want all Republicans to vote Republican, but I want every Democratic and independent voter who is fed up on the New Deal to vote Republican."

Tells of Party Revival.

Moore then rapidly told the story of the revived, unified Republican organization in Illinois. He said he had decided in 1936 that if he was chairman during a primary he would work against attempts of a few men to control the party and that dead timber would be cleared away.

"I have done as I promised," Moore said. "For the first time in our history, the Cook county Republican central committee has endorsed a slate of candidates without a dissenting vote. There are no factions and the men and the women who work in the precincts have something to say."

Good humored despite the crowded conditions, the 4,300 precinct commit-

ROADS LINKING BARCELONA AND MADRID SEVERED

Rebels Draft Edict for Surrender.

BULLETIN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LISBON, Portugal, April 4.—Gen. Francisco Franco, Spanish rebel leader, is preparing to send an ultimatum to the Barcelona loyalist government demanding surrender within a stipulated time limit, dispatches reaching here said. Unless Barcelona complies Franco will threaten to concentrate his naval and air forces against the city to terminate the war as soon as possible.

HENDAYE, France [At the Spanish Frontier], April 4.—(AP)—Spanish rebel officers tonight announced Gen. Francisco Franco's forces had cut Catalonia off from the rest of government Spain, including Valencia and Madrid.

Officers at Irun said rebel advance columns were at the gates of Tortosa, 130 miles southwest of Barcelona, and had set up machine guns and field artillery commanding the last highway and railway linking the two sections of government territory.

[The rebel Gen. Quiepo de Llano broadcast from Seville that Tortosa had been captured.]

The rebel guns, frowning down on the seaboard road, severed all trafic between the north and south.

Ancient Fortified Town.

Capture of Tortosa, at the delta head of the Ebro river flowing into the Mediterranean, virtually would complete rebel Gen. Garcia Valino's march to the sea. Valino reported a 10 mile advance during the day. Tortosa is 38 miles southwest of Tarragona.

On the left bank of the Ebro, Tortosa is an ancient town strongly fortified by high walls and several outworks. It is entered through seven massive gates.

The town, however, was a shambles from air bombings several times daily during this offensive. All civilians had fled, seeking safe havens.

Its normal population of 25,000 for years had been employed in river commerce, the handling of agricultural produce and soap, and paper and porcelain manufactures. The picturesque town's tall spired cathedral is one of the oldest in Spain.

City of Morella Captured.

A second rebel column reported the capture of Morella, strategic city in Castellon province, from whose peaks Gen. Miguel Aranda said the blue Mediterranean was visible.

Morella is southwest of Tortosa and twenty-eight miles from the sea. It is on a main highway running from Saragossa to Castellon on the coast.

The capture of Morella came only after bitter resistance from government defenders who battled the rebels with tanks and artillery. Aranda reported the capture of 1,000 government prisoners in a spectacular move over the nearby mountainous terrain.

Aranda's men advanced southward along the main highway from the village of La Robleta, west of Morella, and through the towering Sierra de San Marcos.

Advance All Along Line.

Strategic positions seized near Morella included Vertice Carrascal, with an altitude of more than 5,000 feet, and Pico Boliche, more than 4,000 feet high. To the east the main highway out of Morella drops sharply to San Mateo, twenty miles to the east.

In sight of the Mediterranean on the south and touching the French border on the north, rebel armies were closing the jaws of a giant trap about Catalonia.

The center columns swept past conquered Lerida for a frontal attack on the strongest line of Catalan defenses.

Gen. José Moscardo's troops in the north took village after village.

Expect Decisive Battle.

Gen. Juan Yague's hard fighting columns in the center of the long line were trying to deal a death blow to the government militiamen intrenched behind strong fortifications on a 22 mile line east of Lerida from Balaguer to Borjas Blancas.

Military observers have said the decisive battle of the Catalonian campaign would be fought along that line. The government's desperate defense of Lerida was mainly to allow time to strengthen the Balaguer-Borjas fortifications.

From Lerida Gen. Yague's troops split into three columns. One drove due east on the road to Barcelona, eighty miles away. Another struck out to the northeast on the road to the French frontier. The third moved to the southeast on the road to Tarragona. The government line intersects all three roads.

Lerida Still Under Fire.

However, loyalists shelled and machine gunned Lerida from nearby emplacements on the east. Machine guns raked the streets from the left bank of the Segre river which flows through the city's eastern suburbs. Government warplanes dropped bombs until the rebels hurriedly wheeled anti-aircraft guns into place.

Rebel troops occupied the main sections of Lerida and made quick work of stubborn government snipers remaining after yesterday's savage, hand-to-hand fighting.

Before retreating across the Segre, the loyalists dynamited a bridge spanning the stream enabling them to reestablish lines on the eastern bank.

Lerida escaped heavy property damage. Casualties among civilians apparently were few since most of the inhabitants were evacuated before the fighting started.

Red and Gold Flags Wave.

Some civilians who hid in basements emerged cautiously and hung out hastily improvised red and gold banners, emblem of the rebels. Debris littering the streets and broken windows bore evidence of the terrific close quarter fighting which preceded the fall of the city.

Lerida's historic landmarks, including a stately old cathedral, appeared intact. A new cathedral, while its exterior was unharmed, was a wreck inside. It had been converted into a garage before the government retreat.

The inside of a hospital was a scene of confusion. Laboratory equipment was jammed at the entrance as if abandoned in a quick getaway.

Madrid Pushes Counterdrive.

Northeast of Madrid on the Guadalajara front the government reported new successes in a counteroffensive designed to relieve Catalonia by forcing Gen. Francisco Franco to divert some of his troops to central Spain.

Dispatches from Madrid placed the toll of Sunday's artillery bombardment of the former capital at 50 dead and 200 injured. It was said to have been the worst shelling Madrid had suffered since the war started.

At Perpignan, France, Gen. Pablo Martinez, Spanish government commander assigned to the Benasque sector of the Pyrenees, said anarchists were complicating government defense efforts in Catalonia by burning and dynamiting buildings. He said dissension caused by anarchists in the government ranks had been partly responsible for rebel victories.

British Warship to Barcelona.

More than 5,000 militiamen and civilians, who had fled from Catalonia to France since Friday, were repatriated to Spain.

A London dispatch said the British admiralty had ordered the 42,100 ton battle cruiser Hood to proceed to Barcelona to help in any evacuation of the Spanish government capital which may be necessary.

The British government also intervened with Franco on behalf of captains of five British ships in Tarragona harbor who reported Spanish planes were dropping bombs around their vessels every day. The foreign office instructed Sir Robert M. Hodgson, British agent in rebel Spain, to urge that such attacks be halted.

Rebels Split Barcelona from Rest of Spain

Rebel guns command the railway and highway at Tortosa and have halted all trafic between Catalonia and the rest of loyalist Spain (white on map), it was reported yesterday. The rebels also captured Morella on the road to Castellon and sent three columns driving toward the new loyalist fortifications (dotted line) east of Lerida.

BRITAIN DEVISES GAS BAG TO SAVE BABIES FROM WAR

LONDON, April 4.—(AP)—A rubber "gas bag" for babies is the home office's latest device to make Britain's 40,000,000 inhabitants "gas tight" in the event of war.

A spokesman said today babies two years old and under would be provided a rubber fabric bag capable of enclosing their bodies entirely. The bag has a pump for injecting air through a filter. The pump must be used every 15 minutes to prevent the child from suffocating.

The spokesman said Britain has 30,000,000 gas masks. They are to be delivered in quantities of 30,000 to municipalities throughout the country. The masks, however, will not be delivered to the inhabitants unless war becomes imminent.

50,000 CHINESE RETREAT AS JAPS MENACE RAILWAY

TokioArmyWins Town in 10 Day Battle.

SHANGHAI, April 4.—(AP)—Swiftly driving southward after the capture of Taierchwang's smolding ruins, Japanese forces tonight threatened to cut the east end of the vital Lunghai railway and outflank the Chinese defenders of strategic Suchow.

A Japanese advance guard, driving along the Grand canal from Taierchwang, reported it had entered Kiangsu province and was aiming for Yunho, on the Lunghai line twenty miles to the south. This was the first time the Japanese had penetrated Kiangsu from the north.

Japanese said the ten day battle for Taierchwang was the "fiercest fought on the Tientsin-Pukow front" and disclosed that only three Japanese detachments opened the assault but ten additional detachments were needed to reinforce the besiegers before the Rising Sun flag was hoisted over the ruins.

Pursued by Bombing Planes.

They said the Chinese contested every foot of the advance but, when they were blasted out by Japanese artillery, tanks, and mechanized units, more than 50,000 began a retreat under a hail of bullets and bombs from pursuing planes.

Chinese refused to concede defeat and said counter offensives were launched along the entire 35 mile line from Taierchwang west to Hanchwang. They said mobile units in quick sorties at various points continued to menace the Japanese.

An an example they cited a report that a guerrilla detachment had made a surprise attack on a Japanese airdrome at Tawenkow, on the Tientsin-Pukow railway 120 miles north of Hanchwang, destroyed eight airplanes and killed ten pilots.

Seek New Path to Suchow.

Should the Japanese cut the Lunghai railway at Yunho they would have a path westward through practically roadless country against Suchow, junction of the Lunghai and Tientsin-Pukow railways. Yunho is 46 miles east of Suchow.

On the western end of the Lunghai front, Japanese asserted 50,000 Chinese troops under the command of Gen. Wang Ching-kuo were retreating across the Yellow river from southwestern Shansi province before attacks of three Japanese columns.

Foreign missionaries at Chengchow, in North Honan province, reported a Japanese air raid Sunday, but said all foreigners were safe.

ITALY MOVES AEGEAN SEA FLEET BASE TO ISLAND OF RHODES

ROME, April 4.—(AP)—The official Gazette published a decree tonight transferring the seat of the Italian Ægean fleet from the Island of Leros to Rhodes, more than 100 miles farther from the heart of the Ægean.

Another announcement at the same time stated Greece and Turkey had recognized the Italian Ethiopian empire by deciding to accredit diplomatic representatives to Vittorio Emanule as king and emperor.

Usually informed sources said the transfer of the Italian Ægean fleet reciprocated for Turkey's friendly recognition gesture by carrying a step further the Turkish-Italian "gentleman's agreement" of 1937. This agreement had tended to calm Turkish fears about Italian ambitions for Turkish Anatolia. The Greek and Turkish actions brought the number of nations recognizing the Ethiopian empire to twenty.

7 GIRLS RUN AWAY TO INDIANA; FIVE BACK; SEEK TWO

Parents of two Parker High school girls, missing since last Thursday morning, broadcast an appeal for aid in finding them last night. Five other girls from the school ran away last Friday, but they were returned to their homes after falling into the hands of police at Valparaiso, Ind.

The girls who are still missing are Ruby Wright, 7421 Parnell avenue, and Kathleen Payton, 7432 Normal avenue. Both are 15 years old. Like the other five, they were headed for Indiana, according to two boys who took them to a street car line to begin their journey. Their parents said they were mystified as to why the girls ran away to Indiana.

SOVIET REJECTS JAP PROTEST ON AID TO CHINESE

Cites Tokio's Acceptance of Arms from Others.

MOSCOW, April 4.—(AP)—Soviet Russia tonight rejected a Japanese protest that accused the soviets of lending military aid to China in her war with Japan.

Foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinov denied the soviet government had sent any army detachments or officers to bolster China's forces.

"Any declaration contradicting this fact is incapable of verification," Litvinov declared, "and could have been made only by circles which already are well known for their systematic fabrication of all kinds of false reports with the object of sharpening relations between Japan and the soviet union."

Holds Moscow Responsible.

The Japanese protest, delivered by Ambassador Mamoru Shigemitsu, warned that Russia would have to "assume responsibility for the consequences" if such aid continued.

Russia's envoy in Tokio already has told Foreign Minister Koki Hirota that the soviet government is conforming to international rules on the question of sales of arms and planes to China, Litvinov replied to Shigemitsu.

He pointed out arms have been supplied "also to Japan by many other countries."

Litvinov said Japan was well aware foreign volunteers of various countries were serving in the Chinese army, but that so far as known Tokio had failed to protest to any of the nations from which the volunteers came.

Doesn't Protest to Others.

Referring to Germany and Italy, with whom Japan is linked in an anti-communist pact and which had military missions at Nanking, Litvinov said:

"Service in the Chinese army of large groups of military combatants from various countries not only was not regarded by the Japanese government as a hostile act, but did not even hinder them from entering into contractual relations with those governments.

"It is not understandable therefore on what basis the Japanese government finds it possible to appeal with such claims to the soviet government toward which Japan not only does not show friendly relations but permits herself such arbitrary acts as the detention of a mail plane and steamers with their passengers, and failure to pay her obligations."

Chamberlain's Foreign Policy Again Approved by Commons

BY DAVID DARRAH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 4.—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain beat off another Labor and Liberal parliamentary attack on his foreign policy tonight.

Motions to censure the government for its foreign policy were introduced in the house of commons by the two parties. Both were defeated by a vote of 359 to 152.

The Labor motion said that Chamberlain was letting the country drift into war and called for a general election right away.

The Liberals contented themselves with censuring the government for not calling an immediate session of the league of nations assembly to consider plans for mutual assistance against aggression.

Slaps Tory in the Face.

The members' appetite for the fray was whetted by a curtain raiser in which Emanuel Shinwell, a Laborite, walked across the floor and slapped the face of Commander R. T. Bower, Conservative, and then dared Bower to come outside and fight. Bower, a former officer in the navy, declined the invitation.

The slapping arose out of Shinwell's accusation that the government was lying about the diplomatic status of the duke of Alba, Gen Francisco Franco's agent. Bower thereupon shouted at Shinwell, "Go back to Poland." During an exchange of apologies later on Shinwell said he was not a Pole, having been born in Great Britain.

During the debate on foreign policy Labor and Liberal orators produced documentary evidence to show that Italy and Germany were intervening in the Spanish civil war. Chamberlain insisted that he had no reason to believe Premier Mussolini was not keeping his nonintervention pledges.

Says Nation Is Bewildered.

Arthur Greenwood, Laborite, argued that the country was bewildered over the Chamberlain policy of declaring there were no Italians in Spain when Mussolini was proclaiming an Italian victory there.

Chamberlain met the attack by declaring that the whole country was behind his policy.

The upshot of the debate is that Chamberlain may now proceed with plans to reshuffle his cabinet, bringing into it possibly a couple of trade union leaders to help speed up the armament manufacture program.

The prime minister is also credited with wishing to add a few new cabinet posts which would deal with such matters as coördinating the press and propaganda services, preparing a national military service register, and giving the government more centralized control of the manufacture of arms.

Meanwhile the government continued its drive to get trade union congress leaders and the employers' federations lined up behind its armament program.

Sir Thomas Inskip, minister for coordination of defense, and A. E. Brown, minister of labor, met with the executive council of the Amalgamated Engineering union.

Challenge Foreign Policy.

Inskip urged employers and workers to get together at once to discuss the best way of accelerating the production of arms.

J. C. Little, president of the engineering union, and seven other union leaders challenged the government's foreign policy and demanded to know if the government in return for union coöperation is prepared to permit the Spanish government to purchase weapons from England. They also demanded that a limit be placed on the profits of arms manufacturers.

The leaders of the unions, which control most of the skilled engineers upon whom the success of the rearmament program depends, refused to coöperate unless given assurances of guarantees in advance. They promised, however, to submit Inskip's arguments to the annual conference of the national executive council. Meanwhile, no arrangements are being made by the unions for a meeting with employers.

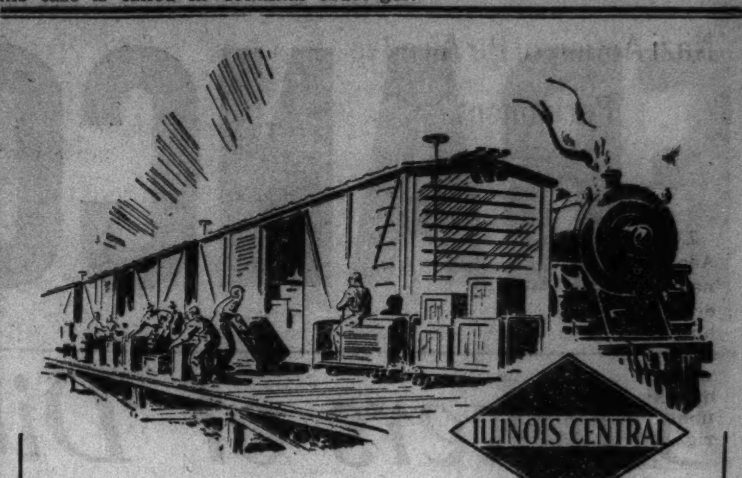
EXPECT DELAY TODAY IN TRIAL OF BOY SLAYER

Theodore Danielsen Jr., who has confessed stabbing his mother to death, will probably be given a continuance of ten days or more when his case is called in Criminal court today. Danielsen, who is 16 years old, is charged with murder. He killed his mother in the family home at 3316 Lien avenue on March 3.

Morris G. Meyers, assistant state's attorney, notified Chief Justice Cornelius J. Harrington yesterday that the continuance would be asked by the boy's attorney, Edward R. Litsinger.



ILLINOIS CENTRAL

all the harder

It was hoped and expected that an increase in freight rates would make it possible to spend more money on the railroad—to increase payrolls and purchases.

These plans have been upset by denial of an adequate increase in rates and by continued decline in business and consequently in traffic and revenues.

Instead of increasing expenditures, it is necessary to reduce them in order to live within income.

That payrolls and purchases have to be reduced is a matter of deep regret that is shared by all who work for the railroad and by our neighbors.

This temporary reversal will not stop our railroad. We are determined to work all the harder to maintain the prestige of the Illinois Central System.

BRITAIN STIRRED BY ROLL CALL OF GERMAN CITIZENS

Nazi Action to Be Aired in Parliament.

BY DAVID DARRAH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 4.—Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler is tightening his grip on nationals living abroad. He has ordered all Germans and former Austrians who have stayed in Great Britain more than three months to register with the German embassy in London or the nearest German consulate under threat of loss of citizenship rights if they fail to do so.

Announcement of this action by the German embassy explains that the roll call order is based on the German registration act of Feb. 3, 1938. Presumably it will be applied also to Germans and Austrians in the United States and other countries.

[In Washington, D. C., German embassy officials said that the German law requiring all citizens abroad to register would become effective this month and that consuls now were accepting registration forms from Germans and Austrians. No estimate of the number of German citizens temporarily residing in the United States was made.]

20,000 Germans in Britain.

Figures of the British home office disclosed that 20,000 Germans, including 11,000 women, and 14,000 Austrians will be affected by the order.

The Nazi tactics of supervising nationals abroad will be raised in the house of commons this week when cabinet members will be asked what they intend to do about it. Political circles contend that Hitler's move comes perilously near interference with British affairs.

No other government, it is pointed out, ever attempted to establish such complete control over nationals abroad. European governments customarily keep an eye on citizens liable for military service, but the new German regulation demanding registration for every man, woman, and child goes far beyond this.

Registration Called "Voluntary."

Although German officials in this country maintain that the registration is "absolutely voluntary," it apparently is an attempt by Hitler to find out just who is for him and who is against him. One German official is quoted as saying that the census now will decide certain matters "which only come up when a conflict arises. The new registration will give Germany a clear insight into who is German and who is not."

The registration law, the official contended, does not provide for automatic loss of citizenship in the event of failure to register.

"After constant and persistent refusal to register, however, nationality may be taken away," he admitted.

Despite official insistence that registration is not compulsory, it is noted that the wording of the order, which was inserted in the advertising columns of the British press by the German embassy, is imperative in tone. A literal translation of part of the German text as advertised in the Daily Telegraph reads: "As of date of this notice, all nationals of the reich including former Austrians who remain longer than three months in Great Britain are obliged to register."

Must Appear in Person.

Registrants are called upon to fill out a special form which must be handed in personally at the embassy or consulate in their area and only "persons who live outside of London in places where there are no German consulates are permitted to send in the completed form by mail."

The form for registration asks information as to date and place of birth, naturalization, marriage, race, religion, how German citizenship was received, nature of employment, details as to passport, military service, and last address in Germany. The registrant also must tell to what clubs he belongs and whether he holds a driving license or speaks foreign languages.

One of the first consequences of the registration order, it is understood, will be to enable the German authorities to insure that most of adult Germans living in Britain vote in the plebiscite on the Austro-German union and reichstag election next Sunday.

The German ship Wilhelm Gustloff is expected in England next Sunday to act as a floating polling station. Voters must be carried outside the three mile territorial limit, however, before casting their ballots.

REBELS CONQUER IN NAME OF ROME, FASCISTS GLOAT

ROME, April 4.—(AP)—The Fascist press, which has been hailing the current rebel offensive in eastern Spain as a Black Shirt triumph, exulted today over reports from Salamanca that Italian Fascists had "destroyed" the Garibaldi and Matteotti divisions of Italian anti-Fascists fighting for the Spanish government.

The newspaper La Tribuna said "war's justice has struck inexorably at these fugitives who as bolshevist mercenaries, dared to raise arms against civilization which once more in history fights and conquers in the name of Rome."

Twelve lectures, each followed by a round table discussion, will be given by Ralph Borsodi, founder of a self-sustaining farm community at Suffern, N. Y.; O. E. Baker of the United States department of agriculture, and M. L. Wilson, undersecretary of the department of agriculture. The meetings are open to the public.

Robs Store Three Times; Description Traps Him

Miss Mary Radermacher, manager of the National Tea company store at 2459 Pratt boulevard, was so definite in her description of a young bandit who robbed her of $25 in the store yesterday that Policemen Thomas Curtin and Henry Babene of the Rogers Park station, soon arrested him in a nearby tavern an hour later. It was the third time in three months he had robbed Miss Radermacher. He was John Ryan, alias Hinnegen, 21 years old, formerly of Springfield, Mo., who confessed twenty-five robberies.

HITLER BOASTS POVERTY MADE HIM POWERFUL

Poorest German for Many Years, He Says.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, April 4.—"Poverty made me strong," Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler told a vast crowd of Carinthians in Klagenfurt, Austria, today. The Fuehrer's address was the second he delivered on Austrian soil in his campaign for next Sunday's plebiscite on Germany's annexation of Austria.

Hitler was greeted by 150,000 cheering Carinthians as he entered Klagenfurt aboard a special train from Graz, Styria.

Nation's "Poorest Citizen."

"My fight against capitalism lasted fifteen years before I finally came to power," he told his audience. "In those years I seldom slept two successive nights in the same bed. If any one were to ask me where my native soil is I would have to answer, everywhere in Germany.

"For many years I was Germany's poorest citizen, without home, without country. It was poverty that made me strong.

"Every one in Germany is a National Socialist [Nazi]—the few outside the party are either lunatics or idiots."

Cry "Hang Schuschnigg!"

Cries of "Hang Schuschnigg!" arose when Hitler referred to Kurt Schuschnigg, fallen chancellor of Austria.

"Schuschnigg is still under guard in Vienna," the Fuehrer said. "I can assure the world he no longer would be alive if he were unguarded."

Hitler's trip from Graz to Klagenfurt was a triumphal ride. Thousands of Austrians lined the rails to cheer him. At some points the crowds were so dense it was necessary for police to clear the track so that the train could proceed.

WAFDIST CHIEF OF EGYPT BEATEN BY ELECTION MOB

CAIRO, Egypt, April 4.—(AP)—Mustapha Nahas Pasha, whose Wafdist [nationalist] party was smothered under a deluge of government votes in Egypt's general elections, today charged that he was dragged from his car and manhandled when he tried to supervise the voting of his constituency Saturday.

King Farouk's government appeared headed for a reorganization after having won decisive victory in the elections, which were marred by disorders in which six persons were killed. Abdel Fattah Yehia Pasha, foreign minister, resigned.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, April 4.—Prof. Sigmund Freud, famous Viennese psychoanalyst, who, like other Jews in Vienna, has been deprived of his passport, plans to emigrate to England if authorities supply him with a new passport for which he has filed application. The home of Freud, who is now 82 years old, was raided by the GSP [secret police] because of his relations with a publishing house of which authorities became suspicious. Since the search revealed no compromising material, it is expected Freud will be permitted to go to England.

HUNGARY FEARS NO INVASION BY GERMAN TROOPS

Believes Hitler Wants Friendly Neighbor.

BY CAPT. M. M. CORPENING.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BUDAPEST, Hungary, April 4.—A spirit of indecision exists in Budapest today.

Territorial aggression by Germany is not feared. Economics is the chief worry. Germany's annexation of Austria, coupled with anti-Semitic utterances of public officials, has caused a trade panic.

Informed circles, however, declared normalcy is rapidly returning to Europe and insist the annexation of Austria should have taken place in 1919. They point out that Hungary is disgusted "with the league of nations' justice."

No Anger or Sympathy.

Military sources were enthused over the Nazi movement when it first appeared. The treatment of Austrian officials in key positions by German authorities is changing this attitude. No animosity or sympathy is felt for Austria and Germany.

A powerful German empire is looked on here as a buffer against the possible menace of Red Russia on the north and east fronts. The belief is expressed that Germany respects her promises to allies, thus making her a good neighbor.

Language and traditional national differences render an invasion entirely unlikely, it is claimed. A civic movement has been started to encourage the populace to dress and practice Hungarian customs to emphasize the differences from those of Germany.

Future in Own Hands.

Budapest spokesmen state that Hungary's future is wholly in her own hands. Germany, they say, would prefer a friendly neighbor to a colony she would be unable to organize.

The status now is that Germany and Austria are the best customers for Hungary's agricultural surplus. A minority of pessimsts voice the sentiment that Germany will enslave Hungary, dictating her own prices for any products which she buys.

Hungarians believed the division of Czechoslovakia will be Adolf Hitler's next move, the western half going to Germany and Slovakia becoming a part of Hungary.

Canadian Firm to Build Airplane Plant in Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, April 4.—(AP)—It was learned tonight that the Mexican government was ready to sign a contract with the Canadian Car and Foundry Company, Ltd., for construction of a plant to build airplanes in Mexico. Terms of the agreement were understood to provide equal sharing of the cost—an estimated $1,700,000—and equal sharing of profits. The Mexican war ministry would get the first forty planes constructed.

CZECH PREMIER ACTS TO SOOTHE NAZI MINORITY

Prague Awaits Germany's Next Move.

BY ALEX SMALL.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PRAGUE, April 4.—The next move in the game being played with the independence of Czechoslovakia as the stake will be made in Berlin. That is the view held in semi-official circles here.

Attention is focused on Berlin on account of the visit there of Konrad Henlein, Nazi leader of the Sudeten German party, and conferences he is having with German leaders. There are only two possibilities as to the instructions he will bring back with him.

Nazis Have Two Choices.

Here is one: There will be renewed agitation for autonomy for the Sudeten Germans, leading to a determined attempt to split the Czechoslovak state from the inside with the German minority forming a united front with the Magyars and Poles and possibly even the Slovaks. The other is that Henlein, having learned that the international situation is unfavorable for a too obvious assault on Czechoslovak unity, will tone down his propaganda temporarily.

No doubt is felt in semi-official circles that at best the battle will be postponed and sooner or later Czechoslovakia will be forced to strain every effort to avoid falling apart from the inside. A direct attack from the outside, after the fashion of Austria, is now excluded from the list of early possibilities.

Meanwhile, Premier Milan Hodza is taking steps to conciliate the minorities in contradiction to his speech last Monday when he promised them nothing beyond codification of the rights and privileges already existing. He held firm in his decision not to negotiate with Henlein. The reason given by Hodza is that Henlein is not a member of parliament. Therefore, in the premier's opinion, Henlein is not qualified to negotiate with the chief of this parliamentary democracy.

Confers with Nazi Leaders.

Recognition of Henlein as a representative of his people, Hodza repeatedly has said, would mean recognition of the Nazi "fuehrer" principle—a concession which Hodza sees as fatal to the government.

But Hodza has been conferring with at least two of the most prominent Sudeten German parliamentarians for several days. Observers take it for granted that he is making concessions to the Henlein party's demands.

As another gesture of appeasement, general amnesty for political offenders has been announced. In addition to the Sudeten German agitators who have been jailed, Hungarians and Poles and all others whose activities have displeased the Prague government are affected.

BOYCOTT OF U. S. COTTON PLANNED BY CZECH NAZIS

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, April 4—(AP)—An official press release of the Sudeten German [Nazi] party today said that unless a Jewish boycott in the United States against Sudeten German goods was stopped the Germans in Czechoslovakia the party represents would cancel their orders for United States cotton.

"We warn the department of commerce in Washington," the release said.

It asserted a Jewish boycott started in the United States soon after the unification of practically all Germans in Czechoslovakia under Konrad Henlein became a fact with the dissolution of minor German groups.

JARECKI CHARGES RIVALS PLOT TO STEAL ELECTION

Horner Hits Bossism of Courts, Schools.

Charging that the Kelly-Nash forces are trying to steal the election and coerce the courts and schools, County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki and Gov. Horner attacked their Democratic primary foes last night.

"The Kelly-Nash machine is attempting the greatest vote steal ever conceived in the history of Cook county," Judge Jarecki said in a prepared statement. "I have been county judge sixteen years and I have never seen such a frantic and organized effort to put over a gigantic vote fraud and vote thievery as is now being perpetrated by Kelly and Nash.

Old and New Tricks Used.

"Every old Tammany trick, as well as the more modern sleight of hand, is being used.

"In all my sixteen years as county judge neither Kelly nor Nash ever made one single complaint to me about vote frauds nor did they ever assist in prosecuting a single case. On the contrary, they always did everything possible to hamper me and by their actions they encouraged wholesale vote stealing."

Gov. Horner said in a radio address:

"Tyranny has begun in Chicago. It began some years ago, when bosses like Kelly and Nash set up a supermachine, an extragovernmental force which selfishly declared what the laws of Chicago should be.

Charges Teachers Are Coerced.

"It decreed how men and women should vote, and how those votes should be counted—and how the votes should not be counted if those votes were displeasing to the bosses.

"Kelly and his co-boss, Nash, have already blacklisted the judge who stood for honest count of votes. Their minions go about coercing the public school teachers, who know how tragic has been the Kelly-Nash influence on free education.

"You must free the ballot and free the schools, and you must free the courts."

Lucas Warns Colored Voters.

Congressman Scott W. Lucas, who is seeking the Democratic senatorial nomination, told colored voters at the Savoy ballroom:

"Boss rule threatens the sanctity of the ballot. The sanctity of the ballot is the line of demarcation between liberty and tyranny. Protect your liberties under the bill of rights by smashing the tyranny of bossism as exemplified by the Kelly-Nash machine."

Martin P. Durkin, director of the Illinois department of labor, attacked the labor record of Michael L. Igoe, Lucas' opponent, in a radio address. "In contrast with Igoe's promise that he will support the labor cause," Durkin said, "we have the established performance of Lucas, whose record shows him 100 per cent for labor."

POLICE TO GUARD COURTNEY AND JARECKI HOMES

Special police protection at the homes of State's Attorney Courtney and County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki was ordered last night by Police Commissioner Allman. No explanation was given, and it is not known whether the protection was asked.

State's Attorney Courtney lives at 7958 South Green street, and Judge Jarecki at 1946 Armitage avenue. Each home will be the center of an area of four square blocks to be patroled by detective bureau squads 24 hours a day. The guard will be maintained until after the primary election.

Expect 1,000 at Veterans' Rally for Lucas Tomorrow

A war veterans' rally for Congressman Scott W. Lucas, the Horner-Courtney candidate for the nomination for United States senator, will be held in the Crystal room of the Hotel Sherman tomorrow noon. At his headquarters it was said that nearly 1,000 veterans will attend. Lucas was formerly state commander of the American Legion.

LISTS 5 ELECTION BOARD EMPLOYES AS EX-CONVICTS

Prystalski Assails Staf Under Jarecki.

Charges that five men with prison records, several of whom were sponsored for their present jobs by assistant state's attorneys, are working in the office of the election commissioners were made last night by Judge John Prystalski. Judge Prystalski is the regular Democratic candidate for county judge, which office controls the election machinery.

"There are men with penitentiary records handling your registration cards in the offices of the election commissioners," Judge Prystalski told audiences in the 43d and 46th wards.

"One of them is Robert Laird, who has served time and has a record a half page long," the judge continued, reading from a list. "John Feldman is another one who has served time. Here's Paul Massucci, who was sent to Pontiac for a year.

"Michael Underberg, who is working down there, served a year in the House of Correction. Roy Nielsen, another man working in the commission's offices, went to Pontiac for one to ten years."

Front and Side Photos.

Judge Prystalski asserted that he had photos of these men, "with front and side views." He then assailed the present incumbent and candidate for the Democratic nomination on the Horner-Courtney ticket, Judge Edmund K. Jarecki.

"I don't say that Judge Jarecki put these men in there intentionally," Judge Prystalski said. "He probably doesn't know they are there. I might say he doesn't know what it's all about.

"Many of these men were recommended for their jobs by assistant state's attorneys who now are acting as suave ward committeemen for the opposition."

Judge Prystalski told his audiences of the action he and District Attorney Michael L. Igoe took yesterday afternoon in appearing before the election commissioners with a demand that a complete new poll list be issued. He and Igoe, regular organization candidates for nomination for United States senator, will continue to press this demand until it is complied with, Judge Prystalski asserted.

Avers All Lists Wrong.

"The chaotic conditions in the election commission offices are going to result in the defeat of my opponent in the primary April 12," Judge Prystalski said. "There isn't a precinct in the city where the poll lists are correct.

"Right here in the 46th ward the names of Judge LaBuy [Judge Walter LaBuy of the Circuit court] and his wife were left off the poll list. Judge LaBuy called the election commissioners and they assured him his name would be on the revised list, but it wasn't.

"In the 32d ward the name of Victor A. Kula, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Municipal judge, was left off the poll list."

Judge Prystalski asserted that Judge Jarecki removed thousands of judges and clerks of election without reason and without a trial. These men and women were replaced by others sympathetic to the Horner-Courtney ticket, Judge Prystalski said.

"They raise the cry of bossism," he continued. "I'm the candidate and I'll be bossed by no man or woman."

Calls Lucas "Town Scold."

Igoe, in his speeches, declared that his opponent, Scott W. Lucas, has switched from his favorite sectionalism issue and is now spending his time telling Chicagoans what is wrong with their city.

"Lucas is horrified over the fact that 623 extra employés were added to the maintenance force as seasonal employés in the Chicago Parks system," Igoe said. "Some one has told the gentleman from Mason county that he has been elected town scold.

"As a man who comes from an agricultural district and is a great friend of the farmers, he should know that extra help is needed in the spring for planting as well as plowing, seeding lawns, and all horticultural work of that kind."

NEW 40 PASSENGER AIRLINER UNDERGOES ITS FIRST LOAD TEST

Santa Monica, Cal., April 4.—[Special.]—The Douglas Aircraft company's new 40 passenger airliner nearing completion here today passed its first load tests. The new ship, which will be the largest commercial land plane ever built, had its tail and wing tips loaded with tons of lead. After making measurements company officials said the plane is far stronger than it is required to be.

This airplane is the first modern airliner to be fitted with a tricycle landing gear. Instead of a tail wheel, it has a landing wheel at its nose. Engineers say this has many advantages. It is safer than the normal gear because the plane can be flown into the ground without damage, and it cannot nose over.

Flight tests are scheduled for July.

REFORM GROUPS URGED TO AVOID POLITICAL TRICK

Civic organizations were warned yesterday to avoid political trickery that is intended to defeat their objectives and block reform. This advice was given in a talk before the City club at a luncheon in the Hotel Sherman by Miss Charlotte Carr, head resident of Hull house. Miss Carr, who formerly was Pennsylvania secretary of labor, declared that it is an old political trick to foment internal strife among progressive organizations and thus destroy their effectiveness.

teemen and committeewomen and the others in attendance cheered Lyons repeatedly.

"With the two Democratic opponents for the senatorial nomination spending about a million dollars apiece," he said, "I want to tell the whole world that all it cost me to receive the nomination was gasoline to get me from Libertyville to Urbana—and that was $2.63."

His booming voice, disdainful of amplifiers—which had to be turned down — blasted the administration from start to finish. He and his listeners were auditors he told them, working on the books of the administration.

Lyons produced a full page advertisement of the administration published in 1932. It promised, "For the American People—Work and Security."

"From 10 million to 14 million the number of unemployed has risen," he said. "From 14 to 21 billions have been spent to prime the pump. Where is the work? Where is the security? Nothing has been obtained but lots of nice, soft jobs for the New Dealers."

Gregory, Mich., April 4.—[Special.]—Walter Miller, 72 years old, a wealthy Gregory farmer, was held in the Livingston county jail at Howell today after he confessed shooting his wife, Fannie, to death with a shotgun. He said he feared she intended to poison him. Officials say he appears demented.

HOOVER ASSAILS DICTATOR BILL ON VISIT TO CHICAGO

President Roosevelt's dictator bill was condemned yesterday by Herbert Hoover, former President, who was in Chicago for the day. He will leave this morning for his home in Palo Alto, Cal., on the last stage of his trip home from Europe.

"The government reorganization plan would mean the total absorption of the power of the civil service commission by the President," Mr. Hoover asserted. "In its original form the plan was an attack on the independence of semi-judicial bodies and on the controler."

Mr. Hoover spent the night at the home of Arch W. Shaw in Winnetka. He was entertained at a private luncheon by the executive committee of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations.

INSPECT BALLOT LISTS; VERIFY ERROR CHARGES

Fear Thousands Will Be Ineligible to Vote.

Thousands of persons who claim to be registered voters will be ineligible to participate in next week's primary election, representatives of both Democratic factions discovered last night in an inspection of the precinct registration cards in the election commissioners' office.

The Democrats were engaged in a pre-primary battle over the registration lists, which, as prepared by twenty printing firms, were admittedly full of errors and omissions. At midnight it was estimated that perhaps half of the 38,202 persons reported by Nash-Kelly precinct captains as registered voters not listed on the printed rosters would lose their votes, while the other half would be able to qualify.

Conducted at Igoe's Request.

The midnight check was being conducted at the request of United States District Attorney Michael L. Igoe and Circuit Judge John Prystalski, principal candidates of their Democratic organization. It was permitted by Chairman A. J. McKay of the election commission, an appointee of County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki. State's Attorney Courtney had several representatives present.

The appearance of the printed lists in the precincts had brought the charge from the Igoe-Prystalski group that there were 200,000 mistakes in registrations. This followed charges by State's Attorney Courtney that hundreds of persons had been found to be fraudulently registered.

Yesterday Judge Jarecki, who is seeking renomination and is opposed by Prystalski, charged the rival organization with canvassing the precincts as part of a plot to steal the nomination.

Reads Demand for Action.

While the charges were flying Igoe and Prystalski, accompanied by Arthur Sullivan, an assistant corporation counsel, walked into McKay's office and Sullivan read a demand for action. With them were the results of the canvass by the precinct captains of the regular organization—six huge bundles containing more than 4,000 precinct registration sheets penciled in blue and red.

"There are 136,531 counted errors, irregularities, fraudulent registrations or omissions found by us on these printed lists," Sullivan said. "As candidates, Mr. Igoe and Judge Prystalski demand that new and correct lists be prepared before the primary. In their name I demand opportunity to check our canvass with the official cards on file here."

Chairman McKay and Commissioners Harry A. Lipsky and Mabel Reinecke quickly assented. It was arranged that Attorney Sullivan could bring as many checkers with him as he wished and that the work would start at 9 p. m. and continue as long as Sullivan wished.

Address Changes Unreported.

Sullivan returned at the designated hour with eighteen aids, most of them attorneys employed in the corporation counsel's office.

Chairman McKay said the best way to find out was to examine the precinct binder of cards first. When a name was not found in the precinct binder it was then sought in the master file, where names are sorted alphabetically. The master file disclosed that about half the names checked were not on the lists because they had not reported a change of address. The other half was found.

McKay said he knew those people who failed to report changes of address would blame the election board. He said the blame properly might be laid on precinct workers or others who volunteered to act as messengers and failed to deliver the cards to the proper officials.

Work Done by 20 Concerns.

Chairman McKay said the lists were prepared by twenty printing concerns and that they received 4 cents per name for the lists they printed. They were required to print 400 lists of the registered voters of each precinct.

Among the printers given contracts for this work were the following:

George G. Renneker company, M. Kallis & Co., Leo P. Dwyer company, Cahill Printing company, the Fred J. Ringley company, Champlin-Shealy company, Polonia Publishing company, M. Ph. Ginzburg, Chicago Railway Printing company, Hillison & Etten company, Inland Press, Inc.; O-K Press, Adria Printing company, Calumet Press, Quincy Press, Lincoln Printing company, Union Press, Bazner Press, Parkside Press, and Frank Dowd, Inc.

A new list is being prepared by the Kallis concern, a firm which does considerable political printing, not in response to the demand of Igoe and Prystalski, according to McKay, but as a supplement to the other lists.

While this activity was going on State's Attorney Courtney was starting an inquiry of his own and announced that he had sent a summons to Ald. James B. Bowler of the 25th ward to be present, because of Bowler's charges in the city council last week when McKay was questioned by the aldermen.

The summons was sent by special delivery letter. It requests Ald. Bowler to be prepared to prove today the statements he made regarding confusion and chaos in the voting lists. Bowler, with nearly a dozen other aldermen, questioned Chairman McKay more than an hour last Wednesday when he was summoned before the council.

Squads of Courtney's office have been conducting widespread investigations into registration frauds throughout the city. As a result of their findings many names have been questioned.

Orr, 1309 East 53d street, a real estate broker, complained that she violated a court decree by taking them out of Cook county.

CHURCH LEAGUE'S HEADS CONDEMN U.S. DICTATOR BILL

The executive committee of the Church League of America adopted a resolution yesterday asserting that President Roosevelt's reorganization bill may threaten religious liberty. The committee met at 53 West Jackson boulevard. The resolution was made public by Frank J. Loesch, league president.

"If this attempt to centralize federal power is successful," stated the resolution, "we fear the danger of weakening those safeguards upon which we must depend for the preservation of religious liberty and all other free institutions, including our educational system, as specifically involved in this bill."

No good, stated the resolution, can come from forcing on the American people any legislation which is so vigorously protested by so great a number of voters.

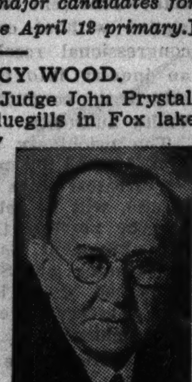
PRYSTALSKI HAS ONLY ONE HOBBY, IF ANY: THE LAW

Presents His Case Against Jarecki Like a Lawyer.

[This is another in a series of informal sketches of major candidates for state offices in the April 12 primary.]

BY PERCY WOOD.

The picture of Judge John Prystalski fishing for bluegills in Fox lake and reading a law book between bites is one his friends insist is not overdrawn, for in that position, they say, the regular Democratic candidate for county judge is really combining the two things he most enjoys.



Judge John Prystalski.

The judge appears to be a man without a hobby, unless an intense application to the law could be considered one. He started work when he was 13 years old in the car foundries in Pullman and things haven't let up for him much since then. Until he started campaigning against Judge Edmund K. Jarecki he brought cases home every night and sat up with them; now he sits up to write his speeches. The judge does not let a ghost writer handle them.

Drives His Own Car.

There was a little difficulty in making a typical candidate out of Prystalski, for to start with, he couldn't see any sense in having himself driven to meetings. He drives to court every day in his own car, so what possible excuse could there be for furnishing him with another and a chauffeur? He was finally convinced that it was the thing to do, but it is not to his liking.

Judge Prystalski is slamming at Judge Jarecki with charges of perpetrating injustices upon the taxpayers, tangling the primary registration, disfranchising a large bloc of foreign born voters, and general inefficiency. He presents his case like a lawyer and if speaking on the north or west sides he tells the voters that while they may not know him, all his neighbors do out in Roseland where he has lived for nearly 50 years.

Like Jarecki, Prystalski was born in Poland—in 1881—and speaks Polish to voters of his own descent. He obtained his degree at the Kent College of Law, after studying nights, and was admitted to the bar in 1906.

Famous Prosecuting Team.

In 1912 he entered the office of State's Attorney Hoyne and formed a famous prosecuting team with James C. [Ropes] O'Brien, a mild appearing Irishman who always wore a red necktie. The pair obtained more than a dozen hanging verdicts against murderers.

Elected to the Circuit bench in 1930, Judge Prystalski was made chief justice of the Criminal court in 1933, where his work in reducing crime was widely acclaimed, particularly by Frank J. Loesch, then president of the Chicago Crime commission. Prystalski gave up his vacation, suggested the other judges do likewise, and tore into the docket. There were 2,000 cases pending when he became chief justice; a year later there were only 200.

Judge Prystalski lives quietly with his wife and two children. He doesn't take much relaxation, except that he reads avidly all of Arthur Train's stories about Mr. Tutt, the lawyer. He has been reading them for years.

ELECTION TODAY TO BE PUSHOVER IN TWO SUBURBS

Today's election in Glencoe and Winnetka will be a pushover for the candidates, even if none votes but themselves. Each suburb has an unopposed slate for village officials.

The Glencoe candidates and the offices they seek are: George F. Brown, Elwood G. Glass, and Martin P. Below, trustees; Mrs. Clara L. Lochner, village collector; Edward Marshall, village marshal; Harry W. Stannard, street commissioner; William J. Oman, constable, and Ben F. Meyer, police magistrate.

The Winnetka slate: George W. Gordon, Austin Jenner, and John F. Manierre, trustees; and Police Chief William M. Peterson, for village marshal.

An item yesterday about the Cicero election today incorrectly gave the name of Clifford Baker, Republican candidate for justice of the peace, as Charles Baker.

HORAN BARS OUSTED BAILIFS FROM JOBS; DEFIES COURT ORDER

Bailif Albert Horan yesterday refused to obey an order of the Municipal court judges to reinstate 30 bailifs he removed during March. All claimed they were ousted because they refused to desert the Nash-Kelly faction of the Democratic party and work for Horner-Courtney-Jarecki.

Told by the judges to report for work at the usual hour yesterday morning, twenty-eight of the ousted bailifs did so and were told by Horan that his dismissal order stood.

The bailifs then went to Judge John J. Sonsteby's office where they were told again to report to their regular stations and to come back for orders at 2 p.m. During the afternoon the men were interviewed by John D. Hayes, the chief justice's secretary, who said later that about half of them work in courtrooms and will be back on their regular jobs today. The other half will be placed in courtrooms to work, if Horan still refuses to assign them, he added.

Igoe Rally Planned Today by Women's Organization

More than 1,500 women are expected at an Igoe rally in the Chicago Beach hotel at 2 p. m. today. The rally is under the auspices of the Independent Womens organization, which, with Mrs. Louis Sontag as chairman, is indorsing no candidate other than Michael L. Igoe in either party. Igoe is seeking the Democratic nomination for United States senator.

PRESIDENT WILL TELL CONGRESS OF RAIL SUBSIDY

Plans Message Following Conference.

Pelley replied that if wages are not to be cut he could see no means of averting general rail bankruptcy unless the government grants a subsidy.

Although Mr. Roosevelt apparently did not commit himself definitly on the question of a subsidy he did indicate that the government stands ready to make loans to railroads on the same terms as other industries. Further discussion developed the subsidy plan as a proposal of government guarantee of railroad income sufficient to support the present wage scale and other operating expense and yield a resonable profit to the owners.

It was suggested that the subsidy take the form of unsecured loans by the RFC to the roads. Few carriers still possess any unpledged collateral to offer for loans. The President was told that the subsidy would not exceed 465 million dollars a year.

Doubts Validity of Subsidy.

At one point Mr. Roosevelt expressed doubt of the constitutionality of a government guarantee of the earnings of any industry but he added that he would give the proposals full consideration.

Among those who advise the President on transportation questions there are several who agree with William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, who said in Chicago today that the railroads are headed toward government ownership as the only remedy of their present plight. Mr. Roosevelt said recently however, that he opposes public ownership of the roads.

Senator Burton K. Wheeler [D., Mont.], chairman of the senate committee on interstate commerce, who will have a potent influence on any railroad legislation, predicted tremendous opposition to a rail subsidy unless it were conditioned upon a scaling down of railroad indebtedness.

BROADEN RFC LOANS

By a vote of 339 to 6, the house passed a bill broadening powers of the Reconstruction Finance corporation to make loans to business, industry, railroads, cities, and states. Because of an amendment, the measure was sent back to the senate, which approved it last week.

The act will permit the RFC to make loans to business men on a long term basis. It removes the 300 million dollar limit set up in existing law as the maximum total for such loans. The corporation is equipped to lend about 1 billion 500 million dollars under the new law.

Loan Resumption Ordered.

About a month ago, President Roosevelt rescinded a curtailment order issued last October and authorized Jesse Jones, RFC chairman, to resume making loans to business and industrial loans, especially loans that would maintain or increase employment. Jones thereupon requested congress to grant the new authority.

Under existing law, the RFC is prohibited from making loans maturing later than Jan. 31, 1945. The act removes this date limitation.

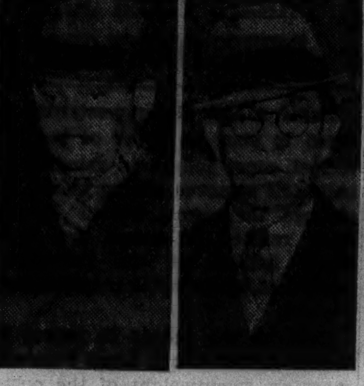
Also, under the present law, the corporation in making a business loan, is required to take such security as to insure liquidation of the loan. The new act modifies this requirement. It provides that such loans shall be in the opinion of the board of directors of the RFC of such sound value, or so secured, as reasonably to assure repayment.

Hitch Over Rail Clause.

As it was passed by the senate, the act provided that nothing in the bill should be construed to authorize the RFC to buy any securities or obligations of any railroad engaged in interstate commerce without the approval of the interstate commerce commission. This provision was omitted in the house version and may cause the bill to be sent to conference.

Although only six votes were cast against the measure, there was some concern exhibited by members about the extent of power given to the RFC. Representative Leo E. Allen [R., Ill.], emphasizing that he was for loans to business men, inquired whether there were any assurance that 90 or 95 per cent of new loans actually would go to small business.

Indicted in Spy Case



Aaron Sharfin. Ossip Garber.
[TRIBUNE Photos.]

New York, April 4.—(AP)—The federal grand jury investigating the Robinson-Rubens passport mystery for the last three months today indicted two men for aiding in the procurement of six apparently unrelated fraudulent passports in the last three years.

The men indicted are Aaron Sharfin, swart, moustached, Russian-born ex-clerk in the Egyptian consulate here, and Ossip Garber, a photographer arrested a week ago on a passport fraud conspiracy charge.

Garber reputedly took the passport pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Arnold Rubens, who are in a Moscow prison after being arrested last December while traveling with passports obtained here fraudulently in the name of "Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Robinson."

The grand jury also returned a sealed indictment of undisclosed nature.

Investigation of the "Robinson" passport led first to the office of County Clerk Albert Marinelli, where it was issued. Marinelli resigned last fall after District Attorney Thomas Dewey in his election campaign accused him of associating with criminals.

3 TO 3,000 RATIO ON DICTATOR ACT AMUSES HOUSE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—Representative Bruce Barton [R., N. Y.], known as a writer and advertising executive, marched into the well of the house today followed by a small boy carrying a stack of letters three feet high.

"I ask permission to insert in the record 3,000 letters which I have received against the reorganization bill and three letters for it," Barton said. Guffaws arose as Majority Leader Sam Rayburn of Texas angrily objected.

"Those letters ought to be inserted," Barton said, "so that every member could examine them and determine if they are propaganda. Some of my good friends on the other side of the house seem to feel that any citizen who writes a letter or sends a telegram to congress in opposition to a legislative wish of the President must be actuated by propaganda or unworthy motives."

dubious of its constitutionality. The President said a concurrent resolution could not void an executive decree and was merely an expression of sentiment by congress.

Woodrum Explains Opposition.

Woodrum, explaining his withdrawal of support, told the house that the bill was far more than a reorganization bill.

"No one contends now that there will be any economies accomplished," he said. "It is contended that there will be increased efficiency, but to my mind that is debatable."

The Virginian reviewed the fundamental changes in the setup of the general accounting office and the civil service commission that the bill accomplishes. He said there is not a great deal to be gained and there are strong reasons against the changes.

"The portion of the bill which disturbs me and which makes it impossible for me to support it," Woodrum declared, "is that part which sets up a new department of welfare with a secretary of welfare who will be a member of the President's cabinet. There is no reorganization principle involved here and certainly no economy.

Warns of Consequences.

"To my mind, this new cabinet position is a most serious and far-reaching adventure. Even though you strike out the section relating to education, you still have created a cabinet officer with his vast and far-reaching organization, and experience shows us that a government bureau of this kind will reach out and will eventually bring under its jurisdiction every activity that it can possibly find that may be subject to its control.

"Many of us have been under the illusion that the federal government would some day be able to withdraw from the relief business. In fact, the President has expressed such a hope.

"I find no escape from the conviction that with the secretary of welfare enthroned in a cabinet position armed and fortified with all the influence and prestige that such a position carries, that the federal government would be in the relief business for keeps, and instead of being able to gradually withdraw from this field, we would have perpetuated an organization that would gradually make for bigger, better, and more relief of all description."

Demands Presidential Pledge.

Another Democratic leader opposed to the bill, Representative Samuel B. Pettengill [D., Ind.], called upon the President to back up his disavowal of dictatorship ambitions by publicly approving an amendment to the bill which would give congress the power to veto any change in executive department agencies.

This could be done, it was pointed out, by providing that any decree of the President could not go into effect unless ratified by a joint resolution of congress within 60 days.

"The President has said he does not wish to be a dictator," Pettengill said. "I accept his statement 100 per cent. But actions speak louder than words. The President has said we have nothing to fear but fear itself. He recognizes that this fear exists.

"He can dissipate this fear like morning mist if he would agree publicly to amendments which would clearly retain in congress its constitutional right to function."

DIRKSEN FIGHTS PLAN TO SPEND 28 MILLIONS ON HENNEPIN CANAL

Washington, D. C., April 4.—(AP)—Representative Everett M. Dirksen [R., Ill.], said today proposed expenditure of about 28 million dollars to improve the Hennepin canal between the Mississippi and Illinois rivers would be just like putting money down a rat hole.

Dirksen told the board of army engineers there has not been a shred of evidence during the canal's 40 year history to justify the plan to deepen the canal and modernize its locks to provide a shorter water route between the upper Mississippi river and the Great Lakes.

He suggested the canal either be abandoned or converted into a recreational facility.

The army district engineer at Rock Island, Ill., approved the canal improvement proposal last July, but the division engineer at St. Louis reported adversely on it a few days later.

Evanston Fountain Square to Be Moved After 60 Years

Fountain square, where the spouting stork has been an Evanston landmark for sixty years, will be moved, Thomas Talmadge, chairman of the Evanston Plan commission, announced yesterday. The fountain now is in the center of Sherman avenue at its intersection with Davis street and Orrington avenue. It will be moved to the center of the intersection where it will cause less inconvenience to trafic, Mr. Talmadge said.

PRESIDENT SIGNS IN SILENCE BILL FOR TVA INQUIRY

Joint Quiz Committee to Be Chosen Promptly.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt late today signed without comment the joint congressional resolution authorizing an inquiry into charges of dishonesty in the conduct of the Tennessee Valley authority.

The machinery for the investigation, termed by many congressmen the greatest since the Teapot Dome exposé, will be set in action tomorrow or possibly the following day. Vice President Garner will appoint five senators and Speaker William B. Bankhead of the house will appoint five representatives to conduct the investigation.

Records to Be Studied First.

The committee of ten will first set up a staf of investigators who will pore over the involved records of the agency and interview employés. An appropriation of $50,000 is provided in for the expenses of the inquiry.

First to be summoned by the committee, according to expectations, are the three directors of the authority: Dr. Arthur E. Morgan, who was deposed as chairman by the President when he refused to give information to any one except a congressional committee concerning his charges; David E. Lilienthal, and Harcourt A. Morgan.

It is the hope of the committee that the directors can be heard this month.

Expect to Air Dissension.

The subject most of interest to congress is expected to be aired thoroughly in the questioning of the three directors. That is the internal dissension among the three.

Dr. Morgan charged flatly that an attempt to defraud the government had been made in connection with the purchase of certain lands. He will be asked to give the commmittee proof of this accusation. He will also repeat his story, and to support it with evidence, that the affairs of the authority have been conducted in a clandestine manner without his knowledge or presence.

Rate Question to Be Raised.

Whether the TVA has exhibited partiality to large corporations by supplying power at a cheaper rate than that available to municipalities also will be looked into.

The purchase of phosphate lands and marble land claims also will be investigated. It has ben charged that certain corporations made huge profits by purchasing phosphate lands for a low price and then selling them to the TVA at excessive prices.

The resolution also empowers the committee to inquire into suits filed by private power companies seeking injunctions against TVA activities.

Hippo Princess Boasts 19 Years and 4,000 Pounds

Princess Spearmint, a lass of 4,000 pounds or so, celebrated her 19th birthday yesterday. A regal little thing, with a glistening hide and an imperious snout, she is the reigning hippopotamus at the Lincoln park zoo. When she came there eighteen years ago from Memphis, Tenn., she weighed less than 300 pounds, Director Floyd S. Young said. She was the gift of the late William Wrigley Jr., at one time a Lincoln park commissioner.

DRAMA OF GRAIN
Chicago Board of Trade

By CALEB

A FEW days ago, high above La Salle Street, I leaned over and peered long and thoughtfully at a spattered handful of wheat on a table.

As I looked, I think I felt a little as Benjamin Franklin must have felt when a dribble of crotchety energy running down a kite string identified itself with the almighty thunderbolts Jove lets loose in the sky.

This little handful of grain, I thought, is linked compellingly with the big story of man down through the ages. Wheat! Grain!

For these small grains, hungry hordes from the hills in ages gone have harassed plainsmen. For these small grains, wars and battles have been fought, economic convulsions and panics have been experienced, new industries have been set in motion and famine has been undergone. For these small grains have dust bowls and floods been suffered, tariffs and imposts been imposed, legislative reforms been attempted, political expediencies been tolerated, diplomacy and intrigue been drafted.

Wheat, corn, oats, rye—"What price?" "How much?" Questions daily on a million or more tongues—in the cold vastnesses of the North, in the tense concentration of Europe, in the steaming tropics, in the towns and cities of this broad land—everywhere!

With these pictures of man's background of grain running through my mind, I stood long on the trading floor of the Board of Trade. I watched the frenzy and heard the bedlam of members in their erratic ensemble of market making. No man of these six hundred energetic, nerve-like individuals can materially influence the markets of the world. But collectively, after nature and legislation have done their all, the orders these men execute from everywhere convert all the influencing factors into definite prices.

In a single day 269,000,000 bushels of grain have been traded on this floor. Chicago's wires go out fan-wise over the country to inform the hinterlands of the world's interest in wheat from minute to minute and day to day.

This is the greatest grain market on the face of the earth. Here the price of wheat or corn trembles on a sensitive and mercuric balance. And yet a balance so stable and fundamentally founded that the golden granary of the earth has its final say over the voices of a hundred—or ten thousand—men.

It is easy to visit the Board of Trade—no red tape. You simply go in, ride to the fifth floor, and step onto a balcony overlooking this seething scene from the drama of the wide-world's food. And it is worth a visit, for no other Chicago institution has more far-reaching influence or is more interesting and colorful.

JUST ONE BEER, SAYS DRIVER, OUT OF ½ GALLON JUG

Admits Size of Single Drink After Lie Test Offer.

Arne Ero, 4225 Lincoln avenue, stood in Safety court yesterday charged with reckless driving. He told Judge J. M. Braude he had had just one beer. When Judge Braude proposed a lie detector test, offering freedom or a thirty day jail term, depending on results of the test, Ero admitted that the one beer had come from a half gallon bottle. The case was continued until today. Otis Townsend, colored, 4131 Calumet avenue, was sentenced to 100 days in jail for driving while intoxicated and reckless driving. On charges of reckless driving, the following persons got jail terms, fines, or probations, as indicated:

JOSEPH ZLATARICH, 24, of Whiting, Ind., 10 days.

HENRY DIKE, 32, of 2623 Lakewood avenue, 30 days.

PERCY MARCH, 36, of 637 West 48th place, probation.

NATHANIEL GOLDBERG, 46, of Los Angeles, Cal., $50.

JOHN GRABLOWSKI, 34, of 2507 South Springfield avenue, $20.

RALPH KENNEDY, 27, of 300 Aldine avenue, Park Ridge, $25.

ALFRED BOSSE JR., 36, of 4585 Elston avenue, $10.

ERICH ERICKSON, 29, of 5131 West 78th street, $50.

FRANK DE FELICE, 21, of 6948 Hermitage avenue, $10.

GEORGE BRADSHAW, 36, of 1649 Maplewood avenue, $10.

Their driving privileges were suspended for periods ranging from one month to one year.

28,000 WITNESS FLOWER SHOW ON THIRD DAY

The Chicago Flower show was attended by approximately 28,000 persons yesterday, making a total of more than 114,000 for the first three days. This includes between 15,000 and 17,000 who were at the preview, according to Mrs. O. W. Dynes of Hinsdale, general chairman of the show. The exposition will continue through the week, closing next Sunday night, on Navy pier at the foot of Grand avenue.

Many flower lovers from out of town attended the exposition in groups yesterday. Members of the Home Economic club of Milwaukee, with 160 in the group, oured the exhibit hall yesterday afternoon. One hundred members of the Milwaukee Railway Women's club, a welfare organization, also were at the show last night. Several members of the Grand Rapids Garden club of Grand Rapids, Mich., were among those making educational tours at the show.

Night Club Entertainer Fined for Drunk Driving

Police Magistrate Frank Pavek of Berwyn yesterday fined Harold Springer, 31, 1544 North Oak Park avenue, Westchester, $100 for driving while intoxicated. Springer, master of ceremonies in a night club, pleaded that his windshield was smeary. He was ordered not to drive a car for six months.

SHAW TO REPORT PROGRESS TODAY ON TRANSIT UNITY

Walter A. Shaw, special traction coordinator, will make his first report to Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson today on his progress in working out a plan for unification and modernization of Chicago's local transportation facilities. Shaw was named by Judge Wilkerson six weeks ago to try to reconcile opposing factions in the transit situation following the failure of the elevated and surface lines companies to agree on a plan.

It is expected that Shaw's report will be in the nature of a résumé of his activities to date with a recommendation that he continue his efforts. Judge Wilkerson, when he appointed Shaw, instructed him to try to get the traction interests to agree to a plan if possible but if that effort failed to recommend a plan of his own. Both rail systems are under Judge Wilkerson's supervision in court proceedings.

URGE CLERGYMEN TO BACK LAW FOR MARRIAGE TESTS

Springfield, Ill., April 4.—(AP)—The public health department appealed to the Illinois clergy today to take up the fight for general compliance with the Saltiel hygienic marriage law.

In a printed circular sent to ministers and other church workers, the department urged that sermons touch on disease prevention on Child Health day, May 1, and on the Saltiel law and adequate public health service on Mother's day the following Sunday.

Although asserting the law requiring prenuptial medical examinations by both parties apparently has met with general approval, the circular pointed out that marriages declined 74 per cent in Illinois the first six months after it went into effect.

Park Trafic Deaths Show Sharp Drop for 3 Months

Twenty trafic deaths were recorded in Chicago's parks during the first three months of 1938, compared with twenty-nine in the same period last year. Otto K. Jelinek, park trafic engineer, credited the improvement to reduction of the outer drive speed limit from forty to thirty-five miles per hour, and to relief of the trafic overload afforded by the new outer drive bridge.

HUNT FOR INDIANA AUTO IN HIT-RUN DEATH ON DRIVE

Motorist Speeds Away After Accident.

A man believed to have been Rufus Hart, 45 years old, 1011 North Wells street, was killed yesterday on Beach drive at the foot of Diversey parkway by an automobile which sped away after the accident. Witnesses said the death car bore Indiana license plates.

James Belmonti, 32, of 233 Washington avenue, Highwood, died in the Lake County General hospital from burns incurred early Sunday when two automobiles collided and burned on Sheridan road near the Great Lakes Naval Training station. Belmonti and two other men were dragged from the flaming wreckage by a young woman whose name the coroner is seeking to learn. The other two men are expected to recover.

Frank Prinz, 11 years old, 2568 Emerald avenue, was killed yesterday when he fell from his bicycle under the wheels of a truck near his home. George Schubert, 38, of 6104 South Artesian avenue, was the driver.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 222 persons had been killed by automobiles in Cook county since Jan. 1. Of these 179 were killed in Chicago, where 4,299 were injured in the same period.

ICKES' SON ARRESTED ON SPEEDING CHARGE BY EVANSTON POLICE

Raymond Ickes, 25 years old, son of Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes, was arrested Saturday for speeding 40 miles an hour on Sheridan road in Evanston, it was learned yesterday. Ickes, who lives at 900 South Private avenue, Winnetka, will be arraigned in the Evanston court Thursday.

CHARGES LIQUOR AND TAVERN, TOO, SOLD TO MINOR

Elmer Hartman, owner of the Pall Mall tavern, 7446 Grand avenue, Elmwood Park, went on trial yesterday before Justice of Peace Rudolph Basta in Berwyn in a case testing the validity of the section of the dram shop act prohibiting liquor sales to minors.

Last July 24, according to testimony, Hartman sold his tavern for $900 to Durward Johnson, 20 years old, and a Howard J. Ewing. While Johnson paid his $450, Ewing gave Hartman his note for his share. Ewing, it was testified, operated the tavern until last October, then disappeared without paying Hartman.

Johnson, who had failed to obtain a bill of sale showing part ownership, obtained a warant against Hartman after the latter reassumed control of the tavern. The warant charged him with selling liquor to a minor and, according to Attorney James Gillespie, representing Johnson, was based on the theory that the sale of the tavern included sale of all liquor therein and was a direct violation of the law.

GROCER CASHES STOLEN CHECK, CATCHES THIEF

On the basis of a social security card identification last Saturday, John Plotkin, owner of a grocery at 2455 Madison street, gave Louis Spizzirri $10 on a $65 check and told him to return for the balance. A telephone inquiry disclosed that the check had been stolen from the mail box of Edward Dolan, 4101 Wilcox street. Yesterday Plotkin saw Spizzirri on the street, chased and caught him. Spizzirri, who is 21 years old, recently served a term in the Fort Sheridan guardhouse as an army deserter. Police said he admitted stealing the check.

3 SUPERSHIPS OF 45,000 TONS ASKED BY NAVY

Cost Is Estimated at 100 Millions Each.

BY CHESLY MANLY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—Authorization for the building of three 45,000 ton superbattleships, estimated to cost 100 million dollars each, was urged by Admiral William D. Leahy, chief of naval operations, as senate hearings began today on the administration's 1 billion 200 million dollar naval expansion bill.

The bill as passed by the house, authorizing an increase of 20 per cent in all categories of naval vessels beyond the limits of existing law, would permit the construction of three additional 35,000 ton battleships at an estimated cost of 70 millions each.

Desires to Be Prepared.

Senator David I. Walsh [D., Mass.], chairman of the naval affairs committee, said the navy had not definitly decided upon the 45,000 ton superdreadnaughts, but that Admiral Leahy requested the authority in case such a decision should be reached.

The United States and Great Britain, however, already have invoked the escalator clause of the 1936 naval treaty, which permits signatory powers [France, Great Britain, and the United States] to exceed the 35,000 ton limit if nonsignatory powers do so. Japan is supposed to be building 43,000 ton battleships.

Admiral Leahy told the senators that it was essential for the United States, in the interests of national defense, to maintain the 5-5-3 naval ratio of the defunct Washington and London treaties.

Strength Is Compared.

The present ratio of strength on the 5-5-3 basis of the navies of the United States, Great Britain, and Japan as to vessels under age, under construction, and appropriated for, is indicated by the table Leahy presented:

	Gr. Brit.	U. S.	Japan.
Capital ships	5	3.8	2.8
Submarines	5	3.2	3.9
Aircraft carriers	5	2.7	4.5
Heavy cruisers	5	6	4
Light cruisers	5	2.3	2.3
Destroyers	5	3	4.1

Admiral Leahy was questioned at great length about the relative effectiveness of battleships compared with aircraft. He insisted that battleships were superior because of the great advancement in anti-aircraft guns.

"Since the expiration of the Washington and London treaties," he said, "the naval policies of all the powers have stressed the primary importance of battleships and to a lesser degree of aircraft carriers.

"The new policies of increased secrecy in matters of national defense have been implemented with more stringent restrictions, especially by nations nonsignatory to the London naval treaty of 1936. In the case of Japan this has amounted to a stoppage of naval information."

42 Keels Laid Down.

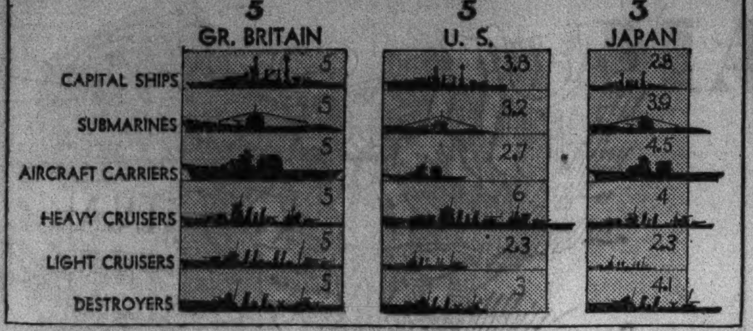
Admiral Leahy said the shipyards of all foreign powers were crowded to capacity by tremendous building programs. He said that 21 battleships and more than 21 aircraft carriers were reported authorized for construction in foreign shipyards.

Work was completed today by the senate appropriations committee on the 490 million dollar army bill for the fiscal year beginning July 1. This is the largest peace time appropriation ever given to the army and is an increase of 40 millions over the house measure.

A bill increasing the officer personnel of the regular army from 12,374 to 14,659 was passed by the house.

Ratio of Present Naval Strength

(Story in adjoining column.)



This chart shows the present ratio of strength on the 5-5-3 basis of the navies of the United States, Japan, and Great Britain, using the latter as a basis of 5. Vessels included in the compilation are those under age, under construction, and appropriated for.

JAPANESE CHARGE U. S. SEIZED BY AMBITIOUS PACIFIC NAVY POLICY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TOKIO, April 5.—[Tuesday.]—The letter which United States Secretary of State Cordell Hull sent to the senate naval affairs committee opposing a stay-at-home policy for the navy is regarded here as a positive expression of the United States' ambition to gain a strong voice in the western Pacific.

The newspaper Asahi today declared the view prevailing in Japanese naval circles is that the new American policy of defense for the rights of its citizens everywhere in the world cannot be taken except as meaning ocean crossing tactics against Japan.

Hull's declaration that a disarmament conference would be meaningless now exposes the fact that the United States desires to build up the strongest navy in the world, Asahi said. At the same time it was charged that the United States is endeavoring to shift the blame for armament expansion onto other countries.

STRIKE SETTLED IN MICHIGAN GAS, ELECTRIC PLANTS

Detroit, Mich., April 4.—[Special.]—Settlement of the C. I. O. power workers strike, which threatened 2,000,000 lower Michigan residents with the loss of gas and electricity, was announced late today by Gov. Frank Murphy following a conference called by him.

The executive said a contract between the Consumers Power company and the Utility Workers Organizing Committee, a C. I. O. affiliate, which expired April 1, would be extended four months. Terms of the old agreement were not changed.

The company had said the workers sought bargaining rights and a wage increase while union leaders asserted the company contemplated a wage cut.

The C. I. O. men took possession of company plants last Friday after a breakdown in negotiations for renewal of the expired contract. They seized plants serving Lansing, Flint, Saginaw, and Bay City areas and hinted that gas and electricity—the lifeblood of urban living—would be cut off if the company did not come to terms.

Mayor Ordered to Trial in $250,000 Bribe Case

Tallahassee, Fla., April 4.—(AP)—The Florida Supreme court today ordered Mayor Robert R. Williams of Miami to stand trial on a charge of attempting to exact a $250,000 bribe from the Florida Power and Light company.

LABOR DECISION BRINGS SUICIDE OF MANUFACTURER

Shoots Self After NLRB Lays Down Edict.

Grand Haven, Mich., April 4.—[Special.] — Despondency over an adverse decision handed down by the National Labor Relations board was advanced today by the family of Arthur L. Colten, Grand Haven manufacturer, as the motive for his suicide yesterday.

Colten, 45 years old, the father of four children, was found dying in his Spring Lake home. He still clutched the pistol from which a bullet had been fired into his head.

Beside him lay a copy of the NLRB decision which ordered his firm, the Kiddie Kover Manufacturing company, of which he was general manager, secretary, and treasurer, to deal with the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, a C. I. O. union.

Found by Young Son.

Two hours after he had been found by his son, Thomas, 15 years old, the manufacturer died at Hatton hospital without regaining consciousness.

Members of Colten's family said he had appeared troubled by the board ruling ever since he received a copy of the decision from Washington Saturday.

The NLRB ordered his company to reinstate all employés who went on strike April 6, 1937, if others had been hired in the place of the strikers. This applied specifically to Mary Kuie, who, the board ruled, was discharged March 27, 1937, because of her union activities.

Once Employed 200; Now 60.

The company at one time employed about 200 persons, but now has only 60 workers. The ruling was interpreted as holding that the company would have to rehire as many of the strikers as its business now warranted, and that no one hired since the strike could be retained until after all the strikers had been reemployed.

The company was started by Colten and A. J. Coleman in Detroit in 1919, and moved to Grand Haven in 1930.

ARMY TO SHOW RADIO SCOUT CAR AT FT. SHERDIAN

Officials in charge of the Army day celebration tomorrow commemorating the nation's entrance into the world war completed arrangements last night for the exhibition of the army's newest mechanical unit — a radio scout automobile. It will be shown on the parade grounds at Fort Sheridan according to Maj. A. L. Hamblen, general staf.

The scout car is completely armored, and even the glass windshield and its pneumatic rubber tires are virtually bulletproof. The tires are reinforced with a secret process that enables them to resist ordinary gun fire at a reasonable distance. The car, which travels sixty miles an hour on surfaced roads and about twelve miles an hour in rough country, is mounted with a 50 caliber anti-tank machine gun, and two 30 caliber anti-aircraft machine guns. A two way radio permits constant communication.

The Army day maneuvers at the fort will start at 11 a. m. An army Day dinner will be held at the Lake Shore Athletic club at 6:30 p. m. Maj. Gen. Hugh A. Drum, commander of the 6th corps area, and Brig. Gen. Philip D. Peyton, commander of Fort Sheridan, will talk.

Gen. Keehn Has Operation; Condition Reported Good

Maj. Gen. Roy D. Keehn, commanding officer of the 33d division, Illinois National Guard, was reported in satisfactory condition yesterday after an abdominal operation in St. Luke's hospital. Gen. Keehn is 60 years old. His physician, Dr. William R. Cubbins, said that the general had suffered no post-operative shock.

THE LEWIS SLUSH FUND.

The financial report of the United Mine Workers for the last six months is a picture of John Lewis' political power. It is the power of money and it is taken from the miners. Last June the union assets were $3,500,000 and from June to December the income was $1,497,000. Dues and special assessments provided it.

Lewis used $1,404,000 in six months in his political and labor activities. The miners are footing the bills for his ascendancy. He made a loan of $650,000 to his C. I. O., another of $475,000 to the steel workers' organizing committee, and one of $99,000 to the textile workers. In two years Lewis has drawn $2,300,000 from the miners' treasury to be used in making him a dictator in politics and the foremost figure in industrial conflict.

His contribution to the Democratic campaign fund for the presidential election was $460,000. There was a loan of $40,000 to the Democratic party of Pennsylvania and a contribution of $30,000 to the Labor Non-Partisan league. The patient miners dig and dig. With their money Lewis pursues his ambitions. He has the largest fund in the United States for political purposes. Because of it he could make dictatorial demands on the federal government. He takes the obeisance of state governors who have done his bidding. He is running his treasurer, Thomas Kennedy, for governor of Pennsylvania against the man selected by the Democratic state committee.

No corporation may make any contributions for political purposes, although some corporation heads were persuaded that they should buy political campaign books at $250 a copy and Attorney General Cummings held that the law had not been violated. The corrupt practices act does not apply to Lewis and his fund. He can use it as he pleases. Thus he has more money and more power than any other private individual in American politics and the law doesn't touch him. He can compel compliance and keep officials in his control. He can threaten them with defeat if they do not submit. He controls the bituminous coal commission. He seeks industrial control. He does not have to account for his expenditures.

He is, in effect, the dictator of a dictator.

ACTION AT LAST.

Last week the United States coast guard headquarters awarded contracts for two harbor ice cutters to be specially designed for ice breaking service on the Great Lakes. It is expected they will be ready to break the ice jam next year, though construction sometimes takes longer than is planned. But building on the lakes is the most efficient of any American marine construction and the urgent need for these ships, though long ignored, is beyond argument. Year after year navigation has been held up, especially in Lake Michigan, weeks after it should be open, with heavy loss to the commerce of this region.

This season, though early as to weather, is no exception. Europe has been buying American corn and, it has been reported, has been paying for prompt delivery. Yet the elevators of Chicago and other lake cities are full of corn and ships are waiting to transport it. The corn belt has plenty of corn, but can't deliver it by the direct route. The bottle neck, Mackinac straits, is closed by ice. Meanwhile export is by way of the gulf ports and benefits are going to the tributary regions. This means an economic loss and it is an unnecessary one. The outlet can be cleared with ice breakers. The government spends millions each year in aid or pretended aid to navigation and meantime permits the most intensively used waterway in the world, the Great Lakes, to remain unused longer than need be.

THE TRIBUNE has protested this neglect repeatedly and urged that ice breakers be provided for Great Lakes clearance. Several weeks each year could be saved at small expenditure, expanding the midwestern and northwestern farmers' market for corn and giving them a better price. We are glad action has finally been taken in response to THE TRIBUNE'S campaign.

BRITISH INTERESTS IN SPAIN.

It may not be, as it would seem, quite silly for Great Britain so to persist in trying to use the good offices of what is called the nonintervention conference of interested nations to get the foreign troops out of Spain and give the war back to the Spaniards. The continuation of these efforts, spread out as they have been over the months of fighting, might appear to be the perseverance of optimism against the discouragement of reality.

Franco's foreign troops and foreign supplies have given the power to his drive which, month by month, has driven the governmental forces into restricted areas and taken over more territory with every action. Franco now is governing the greater part of Spain and the old government position becomes more desperate every week.

The British object, it is now stated, is to procure the withdrawal of all foreign troops by June. By that time, according to present prospects, the war may be over and Franco's victory assured. Why, then, make this solemn and sober effort to get results after the fact? The explanation may be simple.

The British government has exhibited no sympathy for the Spanish government, which is an admixture of radical elements ranging from conservative social-democrats on the right to anarchists on the left. Franco is much more the man of the British government than is Negrin, the leader of the Spanish government. What Great Britain wants is the return of Spain to the Spaniards after the war. Its interests will be served and its policy satisfied if German and Italian soldiers are withdrawn when they have accomplished the purposes of Mussolini and Hitler.

The thing for Britain to avoid is the dominance by alien military force of the Balearic Islands, Spain itself, and the vantage points on the Mediterranean. Great Britain already has a satisfactory understanding with Franco regarding the Spanish mines and will regard Gibraltar as safe enough if it can get the other powers out of the neighborhood after the war is over.

TWO ELECTIONS.

The people of Illinois will go to the polls Tuesday, two days after the people of greater Germany have had their fling at the ballot. The Illinois preliminaries have covered more months than the German preliminaries have covered weeks, the one being in the scheduled processes of a democracy, the other in the hurried exigencies of a dictatorship following the seizure of Austria.

This distinction may be a minor one. Although the others are outstanding and obvious, they are worth a moment's attention. The Illinois campaign has gone its rugged way in the usual fashion of such contests. Because the Democratic party is divided the voters have been hearing a great deal about bosses. Gov. Horner, according to his opponents, is one boss, and Pat Nash, according to their opponents, the other.

Everything that can be said to the discredit or credit of everybody concerned in the nomination of candidates is being said. There are the familiar charges of pay roll padding, coercion of employés, trickery in registration of voters, misuse of administrative authority, and a continuous give and take all along the line. It is rough and tumble politics, not all of it on a very high level of idealized democracy, but it is democracy, and what a speaker wants to say about men in office he says.

One blast from the mildest spoken Illinois campaigner, delivered in Germany, would land the speaker in a concentration camp at least. Before he got there he might be properly attended to by a group of strong armed Nazis who would take charge of him about the time he began to deliver his third or fourth sentence. A negative vote in Austria, a vote against the acceptance of the Nazi state and against the joining of Austria to the third reich, would not now affect the Austrian status except as it proved that the education of the Austrians had not been complete. It would prove that the electorate had been incompletely purified and needed further purging.

Germans could not possibly reject the union nor could Austrians ask to be spared it. It is recognized as perilous to cast a negative vote, although some may take the chance, and suicide to conduct a campaign against it. No one dares question the acts of Herr Hitler and any sort of an opposition party would represent an inconceivable spirit of independence. No Germans would dream of opening headquarters to dispute the will of Der Fuehrer.

It is even strange that Herr Hitler retains sufficient tenderness for the discarded and discredited forms of government based on popular assent to put the nation through the motions of exercising suffrage rights. He does so merely to bring out the acclaim of national hallelujahs to his own will and decisions. People who must raise their voices in assent every time their ruler chooses to extract compliance from them are held even more slavishly than people would be if they had to subscribe but did so in silence, without being required to make a show of themselves. An election in Germany is merely a rattling of chains. It is a parade of bondsmen.

Any one who heard Edmund Taylor of THE TRIBUNE foreign service in his radio talk from London Saturday will realize that whatever misfortunes the new arrangements bring to Austria they are not entirely new. Austria before Hitler's coup d'etat was not itself a land which could tolerate opposition freely expressed. Before the Nazis gained control they were in the concentration camps and they were victims of assault. Apparently it couldn't be otherwise. The temper of Europe is not compatible with the solution of difficulties by freedom of expression and tolerance of political opposition. Nazis in Austria, given a free hand, would have carried their point by violence and consequently they were suppressed by violence. They had their oppressors, and when the tables were turned they became the oppressors themselves.

Editorial of the Day

SACRILEGE AND BEDLAM.

[Detroit Free Press.]

This is a free country. Consequently those who dote on "swing" must have the privilege of indulging their fancy in a reasonable way, even though their neighbors suffer.

And since the air belongs to all, they also must be allowed a fair opportunity to listen to their love over the radio.

But good taste and seemliness support the movement to curb those exponents of "swing" who are disposed to make inordinate demands upon the endurance of people that do not appreciate their performances.

And in particular, ordinary decency supports the outbreak of protest against desecration by swingsters of songs and melodies which through the years have become sacred to millions of people because of historic association or hallowed memory.

The stand taken by broadcasting stations that have barred from their studios what often amounts to sacrilege deserves approval and support.

And those studios, and others that may join in the good work, will earn still more commendation if, in permitting swing which in itself is legitimate, they will require all performers to show a little real proficiency before they go on the air.

Some unquestionably are clever and skilful; but others seem to depend entirely on effrontery and exhibitionism.

What we remark about players of swing unfortunately applies also to a painfully large number of other radio entertainers of various sorts.

The senseless and pointless hubbub of some "comedy" broadcasts suggests a hookup with Bedlam.

Ah, Indiana of Riley and Kin Hubbard!

An Indiana reader reports the fortified bank at the little town of Reynolds, Ind. The cashier is in a cage made of iron wire, with bulletproof glass pierced with round gun openings. A row of iron spikes tops the wire sheeting.

"The public does not come into contact with the cashier," writes Miss Steele of Kentland. "He has a little enclosed cage which he turns around to receive your money or checks, then turns back to him. After attending to your business, the little cage is again turned around to the public. Robbery would seem an impossible feat. The bank head and his son said it had been robbed twice within six weeks before it was fortified."

FAREWELL TO SU-LIN.

Happy little jongleur, fare you well!
Too brief has been your stay;
Too soon have you gone back, laden with the largesse of our love,
To the far hills which lent you to our plains,
Gay hearted comrade once again of all the lusty mountain gods.
When These shall seek of you your traveller's tales,
Speak not too harshly, little friend, of us,
And dwell not overlong on certain things,
Lest rumbling laughter rouse earthquakes 'mongst

Shaking avalanches down upon the plains.
To Siva speak not of our pygmy piles which ape

And mention not to Vishnu—he of the giant stride—

ADD MODERN COMPLIMENTS: "You're like stainless steel." It's the most treasured compliment of the woman who received it.

A MAN WHO had been waiting patiently in a subpostal station could not attract the attention of either of the girls behind the counter, according to Tommy Balata.

"The evening cloak," explained one of the girls to her companion, "was a redingote design in gorgeous lamé brocade with fox fur and wide pagoda sleeves . . ."

At this point the long suffering customer broke in with, "I wonder if you could provide me with a neat purple stamp with a dinky perforated hem, the tout ensemble deliberately treated on the reverse side with mucilage? Something at about 3 cents."

The Spinster.

I WONDER, mused Helen Best, member of the staf at Deering library, Northwestern university, apropos of the measles epidemic, "if Siamese twins have Siameasles."

"DOES IT SEEM PROPER," asks Rudolph Reuter, "that the only Jewish play running in Chicago should concern the doings of the Brothers Ashke-NAZI?"

TOWERS OF SKYSCRAPERS rising into the morning sun, dazzling clusters of spires looking across to a sparkling lake. But it is at night that Chicago's skyline is of unbelievable beauty. Chicagoans motoring on the outer drive cannot fail to be responsive to the glamorous, impressive spectacle, to feel pride in this most beautiful of all city façades. Tall buildings crowned with light against the murky black of the flat city beyond; fairy tale city of spires and turrets bonneted, crowned, and gemmed with light; staircases of lighted windows against a night sky; unlighted towers black against the sulphurous radiance from the avenue lights. The Palmolive building, slim, elegant, sophisticated, with the beam of its beacon swinging over city and prairies beyond. The little Juliet cap of blue lights crowning the Pure Oil building; the orange radiance suffusing the top of the Carbide and Carbon building; the Gothic tower of the Tribune, lacework in stone against a metropolitan sky. The tall, exquisite spire of the Methodist temple in the loop suffused in white radiance; farther south, the lighted figure of Ceres glowing atop the Board of Trade. Your Chicago and mine.

THAT LUMP IN THE THROAT.

We have all heard the expression, "I seem to have a lump in my throat." If the individual is asked, "How long have you been conscious of it?" the reply will probably be, "Ever since mother's death" or "It appeared shortly after my illness."

If the symptom is unaccompanied by hoarseness, even though pain is complained of, we may put it down as of emotional origin. Nevertheless, it occasions distress out of all proportion to the cause and sufferers may appeal to their physicians for help because they fear that it signifies beginning cancer. A careful investigation seldom if ever discloses the slightest sign of serious trouble.

Many will assert that the lump moves up and down. This, too, is a common manifestation, if earlier there has been sore throat or inflammation of the pharynx. As a rule, these patients are run down and anemic and all look to be in poor health. Strangely enough, the constriction is rarely felt during a meal. It is only when the victim attempts to swallow saliva that the sensation occurs. A simple explanation for the phenomenon is that sometimes one can feel the up and down movements of the cartilage which lies just above the trachea—which most of us have learned to ignore. But following a throat or voice box irritation, especially if the parts have become more sensitive, we may become aware of the annoyance.

Relief is not difficult. Gargles will help as will almost any type of soothing throat lozenge. But, most important of all, attention must be directed promptly to building up the general health and correction of the anemia.

Some will relate that they sense not only an obstruction to swallowing, but considerable aching. We have all had the experience of ingesting a mouthful of dry food with the throat poorly lubricated with saliva. Such an incident may precipitate the episode. With others there is no discomfort until marked exhaustion becomes obvious, when it may persist for hours. If an examination of the structure is conducted by a skilled physician, delayed secretion of the saliva may be evident but, as a rule, the only objective symptom will be an unusually dry throat. Once in a while the difficulty may be traced to overactivity of the thyroid gland.

Frequent sips of water, the chewing of gum between meals, or a spray directed from time to time to the back of the throat—all are useful.

On the whole, these emotional lumps are associated with grief, pity, anxiety, or disappointment. Great weariness can cause it, as can family quarrels, worries over children, and the like. If a well nourished patient is affected in this manner—a person in whom no agitation is apparent—we may be sure that underneath the outward semblance of placidity there is probably some nervous instability. This is the typical "globus hystericus" of the older medical writers, and has been noted for centuries among upset women.

Every one has observed how embarrassed individuals will gulp—the school boy about to be called upon to speak or the lad facing an oral test upon which much depends. They feel that they cannot swallow because "something is in the way."

It is always wise to check the throat carefully to make certain that there is no growth interfering with the action of the muscles, as occasionally a lingual [tongue] tonsil may become quite sizable. Ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, however, will respond to reassurance that there is nothing organically wrong and that as soon as the mental conflict has passed all will be well. Now and then a mild sedative will be of value, and here small doses of bromides will prove efficacious.

SYMPTOMS OF PNEUMONIA.

A. B. writes:

1. What are the symptoms of lobar pneumonia?
2. How is it treated?

REPLY.

1. The disease usually begins with a chill. This is followed by fever with rapid breathing. If cough is not present at the outset it usually comes on later. As the disease progresses great weakness develops. The sputum may be blood tinged.

2. Good nursing, serum of the proper type, and oxygen. Every effort is made to conserve the patient's strength and to support the vital forces of the body.

ABOUT NIGHT BLINDNESS.

N. S. writes: Will you write something on night blindness?

REPLY.

Night blindness is not a disease, but is a symptom which may occur [1] in connection with a defect of the eye that may be hereditary; [2] because of too little vitamin A in the diet, some disease of the liver, or overexposure to light; [3] with a functional nervous ailment.

The essential feature is an inability to see in dim light. Correction of the diet may be all that is needed.

BANKRUPTCY.

Chicago, April 2.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—1. What would you consider a reasonable charge for going through bankruptcy?

2. Is there a bankruptcy called "pauper's bankruptcy"?

3. Who is eligible to avail themselves of this type of bankruptcy?

4. Who should one get in touch with to proceed in pauper's bankruptcy?

D. R.

1. The attorney's fee would vary within large limits, depending on the standing of the attorney, the complexity of the schedules, and other facts that are not before us.

2. Court costs can be postponed on filing an affidavit that is sometimes called a pauper affidavit.

3. A person who has no means to pay the costs.

4. The clerk of the United States District court, in the United States courthouse.

SPEAKING OF ECONOMIC ROYALISTS.

Chicago, April 1.—It has been intimated by New Dealers that the stock market debacle and concurrent business depression were engineered by "economic royalists" and "feudal lords" in order that the dominant political party would be put on the spot. Point one. These same New Dealers have seized upon the Whitney failure as prima facie evidence of general dishonesty in the Wall street crowd and have chortled with glee at the sinister disclosure. Point two for the Dealers. Both points important if true.

But the Dealers are a little dull, are they not? If a partner in the house of Morgan, chief fortress of the royalists and feudal lords, was willing to put up several million dollars to save his brother's fortune in the falling stock market, it looks as if he, at least, did not know what devilish deeds his fellow royalists were planning. It is fair to assume that Morgan himself did not know anything about it if an influential partner of his did not.

So what? Maybe none of the royalists and lords were in on it.

Who, then? How about the labor union lords and royalists and their cronies? When they planned their sitdown strikes, knowing they were tossing monkey wrenches in the economic machine, did they keep a weather eye on the stock market? Did some of the short selling originate with them and their confidants? And did the resultant financial gains secretly slip into their safe deposit boxes? One wonders. Perhaps a congressional investigation is called for.

SLOGANS.

Chicago, March 31.—Let us work less and less that we may have more and more. Let us unite to loaf that we may by so doing create jobs for all. Let us spend and waste our money foolishly that the nation may once again become prosperous. Let us whine and complain of our hardships, for surely this is the way to contentment and peace. Let us ask others to help us, for it is only by depending upon them that we can hope to become strong. If we do all these things we are sure to bring about a more abundant life for all. Falling we stand, unitedly divided.

CHESTER H. THOMAS.

WE CANNOT TAKE THE RESPONSIBILITY.

Ludington, Mich., March 22.—I am writing you for some information. I am a partner in a shoe store and have a chance to buy my partner out. I have a chance to buy him out at about 65 cents on the dollar. The stock is in good shape. I would have to borrow the money.

Now what I would like to know is if business conditions are going to improve so that I could look for an increase in business, or if they are going to drop. Would I be taking a risk or would it be wise for me to go ahead?

PARTNER.

SHOULD WE GIVE THEM BACK?

Chicago, March 31.—I would like to remind your correspondent, A. F. D. and others who are clamoring against Mexico for confiscating American capital, it wasn't so very long ago that the United States swindled helpless Mexico out of the priceless territory now occupied by the states of California, Arizona, Nevada, Utah and New Mexico. Mexico's offense is small fry compared to what we got away with.

F. PIERCE POWELL.

SHARP PRACTICE DENIED.

Springfield, Ill., March 31.—My attention has been directed to a letter signed by Guy B. Reno and appearing in the Voice of the People on March 29.

While Mr. Reno is a member of the Illinois bar, he appears to be unfamiliar with the provisions of the state law or with regular administrative procedures established under the law. His letter states that the Illinois department of finance, following a court decision rendered in December, "continued to accept sales tax payments from contractors, knowing that the Supreme court had declared them to be illegal."

Since the department of finance had petitioned the court for a rehearing of the case decided in December, it did not revise its rule relating to contractors until the court finally passed on its petition for a rehearing of the case in February. There would have been no justification for the department to have revised its rule before the court had definitly affirmed its opinion, for if in February the court had changed its stand—as has often happened in previous cases—the department would then have had to go back to its earlier rule, with great inconvenience to contractors, supply houses, and all other affected persons. Mr. Reno himself recognizes that the decision did not become final until February.

The suggestion that the department of finance should have placed money received from contractors during January "into a special fund until the decision of the Supreme court became final after the refusal to grant a rehearing, and then returned it" is contrary to the requirements of Illinois law, which provide that all tax collections received by any state agency be forward by the following day to the state treasurer. Where payments are made "under protest," the treasurer himself holds them in a separate fund, subject to recovery by taxpayers through proper legal proceedings.

SHE SUSPECTS A PLOT.

Chicago, April 2.—Who is responsible for the continuous change of reading, style and color of the milk bottle caps? I understand they are even considering changing the style of the milk bottle. No doubt eventually all the changes will tend to raise the price of milk, or is it another case of trying to throw all the cap and bottle business to one concern or just another instance of gradually trying to freeze out the small dealer?

The quality and cleanliness of milk and bottles are more important than style.

FOR THE CLASS IN LOGIC.

Chicago, April 1.—According to the national industrial conference board and the Cleveland Trust company, recognized impartial analysts, our national income in 1929 was 82 billion dollars. In 1933 it was 40 billions, and in 1937 it was 67.5 billions.

According to the same sources our unemployed in 1929 numbered 920,000; 16,000,000 in June, 1933; 6,246,000 in September, 1937, and 11,500,000 on Feb. 28, 1938.

Our gainfully employed in 1929 numbered 47,368,000; in 1933 numbered 35,731,000; in September, 1937, numbered 46,697,000, and on Feb. 28, 1938, numbered 41,697,000.

Our money [bank credit and currency] in 1929 was 72 billions; in 1933 it was 51 billions; in 1936 was 67 billions, and in 1937 was 70 billions of dollars.

It would seem that to increase employment our money and credit must be increased or at least kept constant.

Chicago, March 31.—After reading the article "Peaceful Chess" in the Voice of the People this morning, I would like to inform readers that the game of chess can be played by more than two persons by what is called consultation chess.

Three or four, or even more, on each side consult on the best move to make, and this is a very interesting, enjoyable way to spend an evening of leisure time pleasantly.

There is nothing else that could substitute for chess to solve the leisure time problem of today. Chess is a godsend and a blessing to mentally restless humanity. I sincerely hope that our educational and recreational associations will realize this fact and teach and encourage chess.

FATE OF FRENCH CABINET PUT UP TO PARLIAMENT

Blum Asks Dictatorial Finance Powers.

BY EDMOND TAYLOR.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Premier Blum.

PARIS, April 4.—Premier Leon Blum was believed to have signed the death warant for the Popular Front government today by asking parliament for dictatorial powers to carry out his projected financial scheme.

Parliamentary experts believe Blum's bill will pass the chamber of deputies by a small majority and be rejected by the senate, thus provoking another cabinet crisis in France before the end of the week. The chamber's finance committee approved the measure tonight by a vote of 25 to 18 with eight members not voting.

Daladier's Hat in the Ring.

Edouard Daladier, minister of defense, already has thrown his hat in the ring to succeed Blum by the somewhat peculiar process of publicly criticizing the finance measures while announcing he would vote for it out of loyalty to the Socialist premier.

It is expected that he will be the first choice of President Albert Lebrun to head a new cabinet and that he will probably succeed. It is too early to say whether this unborn Daladier cabinet will be an attempt to realize a national union régime [all party coalition], whether it will simply continue the Popular Front formula under Radical Socialist instead of Socialist leadership, or whether it will be an all-radical Socialist government

In the latter case it might be either another makeshift arrangement simply paving the way for a strong government, or it might demand and conceivably obtain dictatorial powers.

Parliamentary System Breaks.

Anything may come out of such a chaotic situation, and the next few days will be full of perils. The only thing which is perfectly clear is that the parliamentary system as it is understood in France has broken down and nearly every one is thinking in terms of some kind of a dictatorship.

The financial plan which Blum laid before the country obviously was not intended to run the gantlet of parliamentary debate, but simply to serve as a sort of electoral manifesto for the Socialist party and exonerate Blum from the charge of hanging on to power at any price.

The bill proposes to include all government expenses, extraordinary or not, in the regular budget. Measures also are proposed for lightening the burden of taxation on industry.

Other Features of Bill.

Other features of the bill include: Progressive tax on capital holdings, starting at four per cent on all fortunes over 100,000 francs [about $3,130]; income tax increases and application of taxation to formerly tax exempt securities; limited foreign exchange control and revaluation of the gold reserves of the Bank of France; a two year moratorium on public debt payment, and partial abandonment of the 40 hour week in return for old age pensions.

Some of these measures are not popular with the left, others with the right, and many with the whole country, but at least their drastic character serves to make Frenchmen of all classes realize what a serious mess the country has gotten into.

LAKE SHIPPING SEASON OPENED BY GRAVEL BOAT

Lake navigation will open officially on April 15, but unofficially it opened yesterday with the arrival of the Sumatra, loaded with 6,000 tons of gravel for the Construction Aggregates company, 26th street and Damen avenue. The Sumatra, of the Tomlinson fleet, Cleveland, O., nosed up the river at 11 a. m., just twelve hours after sailing from Grand Haven, Mich. She carried a crew of forty-two under Capt. G. W. Gunyan.

River trafic is increasing, at least in tonnage, according to J. R. Sensibar, president of the Construction Aggregates company. His concern last year had more than half a million tons of gravel brought in by ship. A load of the size carried by the Sumatra, he said, would have filled about ten boats a few years ago.

Negro Business Exposition Closes; 110,000 Attend

An Exposition of Negro Business, the first of its kind held in Chicago, closed last night with a record attendance of 110,000 persons. The show, held in the 8th Regiment armory, was opened Sunday by Joe Louis, heavyweight boxing champion. There were seventy-five exhibits, representing all kinds of industries and trades operated by Negroes. O. C. Buchner was general chairman.

INDICT 5 IN N. Y. MILLION DOLLAR TAXICAB RACKET

2 of Gang Seized; Chief Hunted in 8 States.

BY WILLIAM FULTON.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 4.—[Special.]—The indictment of five men as the ringleaders in a million dollar a year taxicab racket was announced late today by District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey. Tonight police along the eastern seaboard were searching for John Firone, former convict and union leader, named as the racket chief in a teletype message sent out through eight states.

Two of the five were under arrest, but Firone and two others are fugitives. The indictment was handed up secretly Thursday. The racketeers, charged with extortion, are accused of preying on business as well as taxicab drivers.

Shakedowns Alleged.

The million dollar a year toll, according to the indictment, was taken by embezzling union dues, collecting so-called commissions from sellers of gasoline and casualty insurance companies, shaking down taxicab fleet owners, and running a profitable loan shark business to mulct funds from needy cab drivers.

Violence and terrorism which has marked the taxicab business in New York City since the strike in 1934 was laid at the doorstep of the accused men by Prosecutor Dewey. Dewey revealed that the racket was started originally by henchmen of Charles [Lucky] Luciano, vice king now serving a thirty-five to fifty year prison term for compulsory prostitution.

Firone, who used the aliases Matty Brown, Bruno, and Broni, has been arrested numerous times and served two prison terms for burglary.

Bonds Set at $25,000.

The two under arrest are Samuel Smith, former general organizer for an independent taxicab union, and Joseph Troue, alleged strongarm man for the union. Bond of $25,000 was set for each. Names of the other two indicted were withheld.

According to Dewey, the racketeering ring started in 1933. At first the taxicab operators were forced to pay 30 cents a week for every cab they put on the street in order to insure immunity from beatings, stench bombs, burnings, and upholstery slashing. Last summer the payment for each cab was raised to 50 cents.

Using coercive methods, Firone and his associates also are alleged to have forced several thousand cab drivers into their union. Then the racketeers entered the lending business, advancing loans to drivers at a rate of $1 a week for each $5 borrowed, which amounted to 1,040 per cent interest a year.

JUDGE EXPLAINS CAMP PLAN FOR YOUNG CRIMINALS

Members of past grand juries who have formed themselves into the Association of Grand Jurors of Cook county last night heard Chief Justice Cornelius J. Harrington of the Criminal court expound his plan for an intermediate rehabilitation camp for young criminals.

Judge Harrington pointed out that the Pontiac reformatory, designed for young criminals, has become as much a prison as any of the other state prisons, full of aged lifers and hardened criminals whose influence is detrimental to the youth who has any instinctive desire to reform.

Judge Harrington's plan is to place juvenile criminals from 14 to 20 years old into a new type of reformatory, where their daily 24 hours would be divided as follows: Four hours for educational work, four for vocational training, two for military training, two for meals, four for recreation, and eight for sleep.

YOUNG BURGLAR HELD; COMPANION ACCUSED BY GIRL

Because he admitted breaking into Herman Lamb's home at 2326 North Spaulding avenue and taking $102, Theodore Kowlowski, 18 years old, of 3501 Palmer street, was held to the grand jury on a burglary charge yesterday. Judge Eugene Holland set bond at $4,000.

Edmund Scymkowski, 18 years old, of 2305 North Maplewood avenue, arrested with Kowlowski, was charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor after he was identified by a girl of 12 as the youth who annoyed her last May. Young Kowlowski said Scymkowski did not take part in the burglary. This was confirmed by Louis Dominski, 16 years old, 2128 Moffat street, who has confessed complicity in the burglary.

CRACKSMAN GETS 3 TO 15 YEARS FOR BLOWING 2 SAFES

CRIMINAL COURT.

George Cabai, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 20 years in the penitentiary by Judge Joseph Sabath.

John Kill, robbery, sentenced to life imprisonment under the habitual criminal act; James Thompson, robbery, sentenced to 1 year to life in the penitentiary; Thomas Maxwell, larceny, sentenced to 1 year in the Bridewell by Judge John C. Lewe.

Charles Anzona, 37 years old, pleaded guilty yesterday to blowing open the safes of two food stores and was sentenced by Chief Justice Cornelius J. Harrington of the Criminal court to serve from three to fifteen years in Joliet penitentiary.

Arrested with two other men in connection with a jewel robbery, Anzona confessed the safe crackings after state's attorney's police identified a rubber overshoe found near one of the safes as his.

Anzona said he and four others in the gang had cracked eight safes in the Chicago area since last September, obtaining a total of $4,100. Frank Meyers, an ex-convict, also pleaded guilty and will be sentenced April 18. Louis Frank is being held for investigation. Two others are fugitives.

MAN AND WOMAN ARE FOUND SLAIN IN A DEATH PACT

A death pact solved the love problem of George B. Nelson, 46 years old, 7038 Aberdeen street, and Mrs. Louise Hartkopf, 41, of 6330 South May street. They were found shot to death last night in a room in the Kort hotel, 1550 East 64th street.

Mrs. Louise Hartkopf.

While it was possible Mrs. Hartkopf killed herself, police believe that Nelson first shot her and then himself. They registered at the hotel Sunday. Two shots were heard that night by Mrs. Mary Kort, owner of the hotel, but she thought they were cap pistol reports outside.

Hours before the bodies were discovered Mrs. Hartkopf's husband, Henry Hartkopf, a carpenter, received a bulky letter from Nelson. In it Nelson said he loved Mrs. Hartkopf, but knew they could not marry because she was already married. For that reason, he wrote, they intended to kill themselves. Nelson inclosed a dozen love notes written to him by Mrs. Hartkopf.

YOUTH IDENTIFIED AS RAPIST.

Mrs. Sadie Rexford, 64 years old, who was raped in an alley near her home at 714 East 64th street, March 27, yesterday identified Edwin Rickards, 20 years old, colored, as her assailant.

BIG GRAIN ELEVATOR'S DUST EXPLOSION KILLS 4; INJURES 20 OTHERS

New Orleans, La., April 4.—(AP)—Deaths caused by a dust explosion that roared through the huge nine story public grain elevator here late today mounted to four tonight. Twenty were injured. The dead are Joseph Helwick, 62 years old, grain inspector for the New Orleans Board of Trade; George Herrle, 60; Andrew Reich, 45, conveyor belt operator, and Arthur E. De Fraites, 48, grain inspector for the federal government. All four died of burns.

The blast ripped the clothes from some of the men, tore sheet metal to shreds, blew out windows, rocked nearby homes, and sent more than a hundred workmen screaming to the high windows for air.

The explosion, said Y. W. Cahall, assistant superintendent, was caused by spontaneous combustion of grain dust. John McKay, general manager of the dock board, said that damage to the building was largely confined to the metal parts and that operations would be resumed within four days. The 1,500,000 bushels of wheat in the elevator were not seriously damaged. Unofficial estimates of the loss was placed at from $40,000 to $50,000.

CHECK FORGER SENTENCED.

Rockford, Ill., April 4.—[Special.]—Jack May, 21 years old, accused of cashing twenty-six checks worth $900 which were stolen from mail boxes here, was sentenced today by Circuit Judge Arthur E. Fisher to 1 to 14 years in prison on a forgery charge. He was brought here last week from Chicago, where he completed a ninety day term in the house of correction on a similar charge.

HELP STOMACH DIGEST FOOD

Without Laxatives—and You'll Eat Everything from Soup to Nuts

The stomach should digest two pounds of food daily. When you eat heavy, greasy, coarse or rich foods or when you are nervous, hurried or chew poorly—your stomach pours out too much fluid. Your food doesn't digest and you have gas, heartburn, nausea, pain or sour stomach. You feel sour, sick and upset all over.

Doctors say never take a laxative for stomach pain. It is dangerous and foolish. It takes those little black tablets called Bell-ans for Indigestion to make the excess stomach fluids harmless, relieve distress in 5 minutes and put you back on your feet. Relief is so quick it is amazing and one 25c package proves it. Ask for Bell-ans for Indigestion.

HOW TO SLEEP SOUND

A common cause of disturbed sleep is bladder irritation. Make this 4 day test. Your 25c back if not pleased. Use juniper oil, buchu leaves, etc., made into green tablets. Help nature flush excess acids and other wastes from the kidneys. Excess acids can cause the irritation that wakes you up. Just say Bukets to any druggist. Locally at Walgreen Drug Stores.

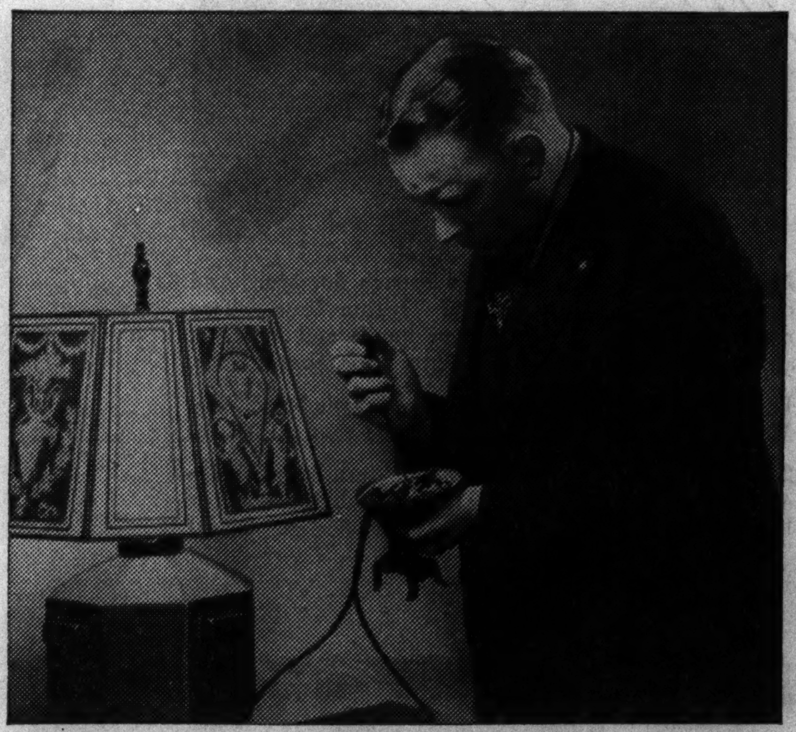
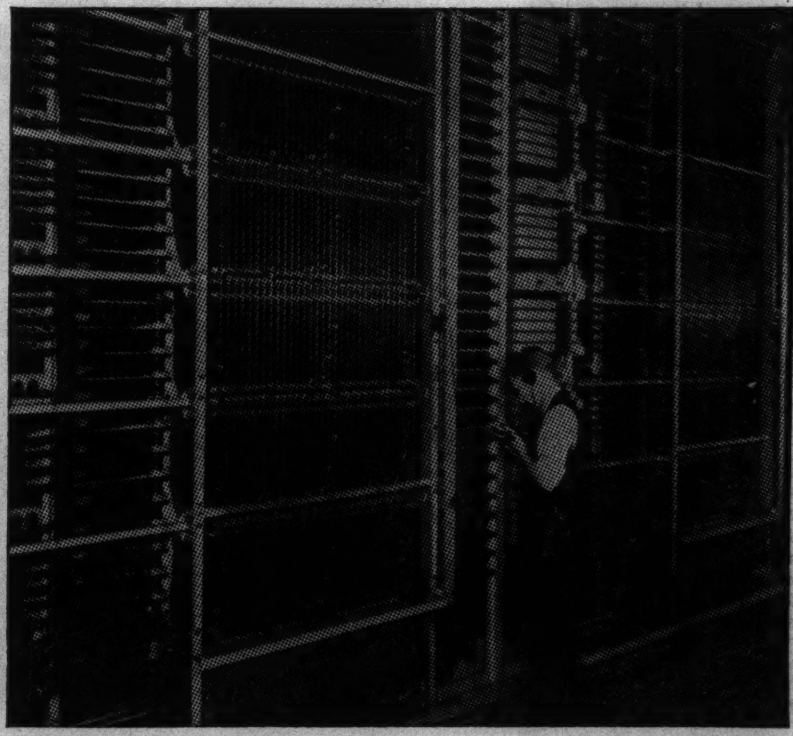
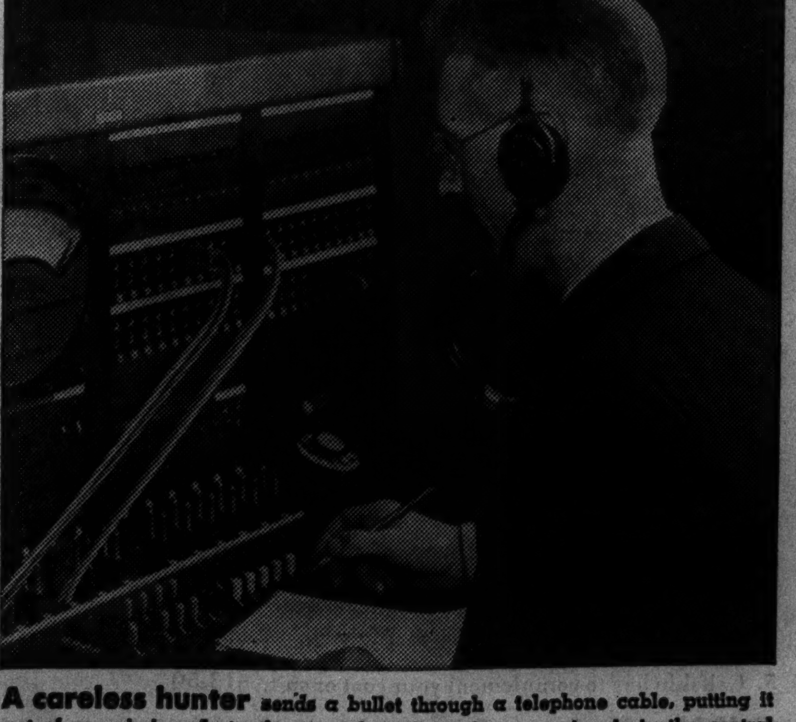
KEEPING YOUR TELEPHONE ALWAYS READY



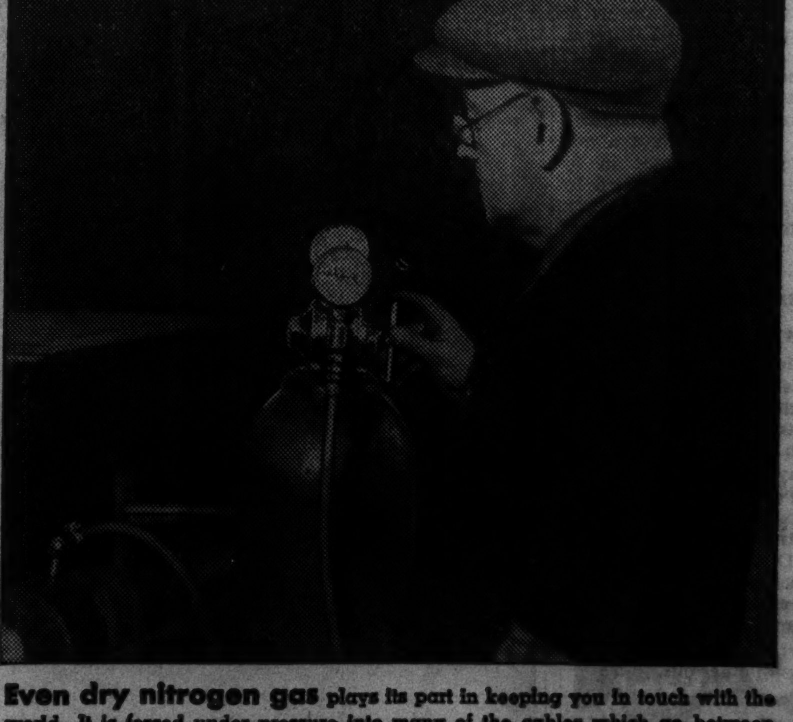
"Why is it," asks a subscriber, "that my telephone seems to be out of order so seldom nowadays, while a few years ago trouble was fairly frequent?" One reason is the "ounce of prevention" used by telephone people to avoid the "pound of cure" later on. Whenever an Illinois Bell Telephone repairman visits your premises, he not only takes care of the immediate situation, but he also makes a thorough inspection of all equipment, to be sure that nothing is likely to give trouble in the future. This helps to keep your line functioning perfectly.



In your telephone central office there is a frame like this; and in that frame is a wire that means YOU. This is the wire over which your messages go to the outside world . . . perhaps a call to your grocer, perhaps a cheery greeting to some friend in a distant city, perhaps a call in some emergency. Maintenance men are on duty in each large central office day and night to see that the apparatus functions perfectly, so your messages will go through without delay. It is our aim that you may be able to call almost any one, anywhere, at any time.



A careless hunter sends a bullet through a telephone cable, putting it out of commission. Instantly a number of simultaneous signals in the central office, caused by short circuits in many of the wires in the cable, show that something is wrong. Then a testman at a board such as this sets about to find out where. There are hundreds of miles of telephone cable connecting with certain central offices, yet so ingenious are these test desks that the testman can determine within a few feet the exact location of the particular wire damaged.



Even dry nitrogen gas plays its part in keeping you in touch with the world. It is forced under pressure into many of the cables which go between cities. While it stays in place, the gas protects the wires by keeping destructive moisture away. If something punctures the cable, the gas escapes and sets off a signal which brings a repairman in a hurry. Thus, the damage is often repaired before any interruption to your telephone service actually occurs. Another example of how we strive to keep telephone service "always ready."

Nancy Knode, Miss Ballard Given Parties

BY JUDITH CASS.

THE [illegible] of surprise ranks high this spring in entertaining for brides-to-be. Several surprise parties have been planned for two popular Winnetka couples who are to be married this month, Miss Nancy Knode and Arlindo S. Cate, and Miss Susan Ballard and Stewart Boal.

Miss Frances Jeffery and Ralph F. Chatillon Jr. are keeping secret the after dinner entertainment plans for a party they are giving for Miss Ballard and Mr. Boal on Wednesday night of next week. The Horton Conrads and the Oliver M. Knodes Jr. also plan to surprise their guests at parties they will give for their sister, Miss Knode, and Mr. Cate just before their wedding on the 30th.

There is no secret about the kind of a party to be given for Miss Ballard and Mr. Boal on Easter Saturday, for it is a gambling one, according to bold announcements sent to their friends. It will be held at 8:13 o'clock on the opening night of the Club Miller, of which the William S. Millers, the William W. Millers, and Joseph S. Miller are the proprietors, according to the posters. "The management" further announces that "all profits for the evening will be used to purchase a hand embroidered rubber tree, an all-wool hobby horse, or some other suitable gift for the happy couple," who are to be married April 20.

Mrs. William S. Miller and Joseph Miller are returning from Florida next week in time for the party, which is being given in their Winnetka home. Young Mr. Miller, his father and brother, William Whipple Miller, will be pressed into service as croupiers and bankers.

The Robert H. Gardners are giving a small dinner at home Friday night for Mr. Boal and Miss Ballard. Mr. Chatillon is entertaining at cocktails, and Miss Jeffery is giving the dinner on the night of their party next week. On Easter Sunday the George B. Masseys, Loren J. Massey, who is to be an usher for his cousin, and Miss Phoebe Massey, who celebrated her 21st birthday last Sunday, will entertain at cocktails for Mr. Boal and his fiancée.

Mr. and Mrs. Ayres Boal, parents of Mr. Boal, will give a dinner-dance at home the following night for the bridal party and out of town guests. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest S. Ballard will give the bridal dinner on the 19th.

Plan Parties for Miss Knode.

Parties for Miss Knode, daughter of the Oliver M. Knodes, and Mr. Cate will start Saturday with a dinner Donald Eddy is giving for them and for the recently married junior Edwin P. Prices. Miss Betty Wilder, who is engaged to Mr. Eddy, will give a luncheon and bridge party for Miss Knode on Thursday, April 21. The Eliot Warners will give a dinner at home in Winnetka on the 23d. The following afternoon, a Sunday, Miss Peggy Sargent and Nelson Thomasson III. will give a beer, bowling, and buffet supper party at the Lake Shore Athletic club.

The Conrads' surprise party will be given on Tuesday night, April 26. The following night Mrs. Charles Robert Arnold, the former Muriel Picher, who is coming from Syracuse, N. Y., to be a bridesmaid, and her mother, Mrs. Oliver S. Picher, and brother, Stanton Picher, will entertain at home in Hubbard Woods.

The junior Mr. and Mrs. Knode's party will be given on Thursday night, April 28, and Mr. and Mrs. Knode Sr. will give the bridal dinner at home on the 29th. Mrs. Lansing Warner, who is in Pinehurst, N. C., is returning for the wedding. Young Mr. Cate, son of the Arlindo S. Cates of Greensboro, N. C., has been making his home with the Warners in Hubbard Woods. Also coming for the wedding is Connor Feimister, who is at the University of North Carolina, and Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Wilcox of Detroit.

Mr. Cate and his bride will go to Bermuda on their wedding trip and will make their home in Evanston. Mr. Boal and Miss Ballard also plan to go to Bermuda on their honeymoon. They will make their home in the Marshall Field Garden apartments.

Miss Ballard Takes Course in Homemaking.

Miss Ballard has been taking a course in homemaking at the School of Domestic Arts and Science, but she is finishing it this week. Many young women who are planning to be married in June have enrolled in the second annual spring school for brides, a course that opens Thursday at the school and lasts through May 24.

Others than brides-to-be have registered for the course, which teaches short cut cooking to glorified meals, correct meal service, and correct wine and cocktail service. Miss Kay Bulger, a post-debutante, is one who is taking the abbreviated course, and Mrs. Frank Foster Bright, a bride of last summer, is another.

Mrs. Bright, who spent her child-

[TRIBUNE Studio Photo.]

The finishing touch to the Easter outfit should be a perfume that suits its wearer and the type of costume. Gardenia is first in women's affections this spring.

The finishing touch to the new spring outfit should be a dash of the perfect perfume. It's even more important to have that dash of fragrance if you HAVEN'T a new spring outfit. A bit of the right exciting perfume will make you feel all dressed up even if you aren't.

This year the gardenia vogue is stronger than ever. All floral scents are "good," as the fashion scouts say. But gardenia seems to be right out in front in the spring race for popularity.

The only trouble with a vogue such as this is that gardenia fragrances spring up like mushrooms, and some of them are awful toadstools. The experts will tell you, and with truth, that there aren't a great many really good gardenias. You could probably count the ones that pass the experts' approval on the fingers of one hand.

We should certainly count the gardenia perfume that is the product of an English firm. It's got just about everything we look for in that fragrance. It has the elegant overtone of languor, with the note of fern just beneath that and beneath both that touch of the pungent which the real flower has. Gardenia perfume is several kinds of perfume in one. It's heady, but not too much so. It's sort of a sleepy scent, too, but not overpoweringly so. And it's dressy, but not too elegant to wear with daytime clothes.

The gardenia we like so well is a true gardenia. It's not a phony that smells good for a moment and then changes into something acrid and unpleasant. Right now you can get it beautifully done up for Easter, with a wise looking bunny holding the little bottle.

Arts Club Has Three Exhibits of Real Interest

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

Three intriguing exhibitions have opened at the Arts club to continue to April 19. In the large gallery are contemporary Italian paintings and the effect of the pictures as a whole is not so startlingly foreign as one might expect.

We have, of course, seen examples of several of these artists' work before. Casorati has been a prize winner at the Carnegie and De Chirico has been a constant visitor to our galleries for years.

The most beautiful canvas in the exhibit is the glorious "Still Life—Tuscan Fruits" by De Chirico. There is a rich, velvety feel to the fruits that is irresistible and the entire composition is bathed in a warm glow. The modelling is superb, the brushwork matchless and the coloring magnificent. This, at least, may be counted a masterpiece. De Chirico's smaller picture, "Horse with Red Cover," is characteristic and pleasing.

The two large landscapes, "Olive Grove by Lake Iseo" by Tosi and "Landscape" by De Pisis, are effective. The first is a little in the Cezanne tradition and the second is impressionistic and loose in its handling, but they make an admirable pair. The "Harlequin" by Capogrossi is a delightful canvas.

"The Young Girl," by Casorati, is an appealing picture, sensitive and slight. Cagli paints with a far firmer stroke and a far more vigorous brush. His "Card Players" is most effective. Afro is imaginative and "The Cage" is affecting in its connotations. With a free wind blowing leaves far down the world, and a captive bird sitting pensively behind its bars, one feels that symbolism of some sort is at work here.

In the following gallery are the clever caricaturelike portraits of various stage and movie people [extras, for the most part] by Botkin. They are very amusing and very well done. His paintings of colored persons are sympathetic interpretations.

Raoul Dufy rules supreme in the round gallery and his quick, nervous, high strung pictures run a rapid race around the walls. His work is sketchy and superficial. The various water colors are like designs for prospective paintings. They are color notes struck off by a frenzied traveler.

Dufy never has time to finish; rarely has time to jot down all his ideas. He is like a violin player who pulls at high E until the listener thinks he will go crazy. Similarly these water colors, charming as some of them are, are dangerously near the edge of pure frenzy.

The "Cornfield in Touraine" is the single absolutely finished picture in the group and it is very charming, clear and clean in color and picturesque in design.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Newton of Evanston announce the engagement of their daughter, Sally, to George Edwin Wilson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Edwin Wilson of Clinton, Ia. Miss Newton was graduated from Northwestern university. Mr. Wilson attended Dartmouth and was graduated from Northwestern.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Locke of Evanston announce the engagement of their daughter, Imogene, to Edmund G. Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan P. Ellis of Glenview. The wedding will take place on April 19.

Margery Maxwell and Zoellner String Quartet Give Concert

The Musicians Club of Women, Louise Hattstaedt Winter, president, gave the last concert of its season yesterday afternoon when Margery Maxwell, soprano, and the Zoellner String quartet performed in Curtiss hall, Fine Arts building, before a large audience.

Miss Maxwell sang Strauss lieder with great emotional intensity and with sufficient variety of style to enable her to compass such contrasting works as "Morgen" and "Schlechtes Wetter." The quartet offered a Haydn quartet, into the andante of which they introduced a rubato which added notably to the humanness of the music.

By Mae Tinée.

Good Morning!

Well, here's Alfred Savoir's French farce again!

It served some years ago as a stage vehicle for Ina Claire, and later was screened with Gloria Swanson and Huntley Gordon in the leading rôles. Both adaptations were successful, I believe.

The 1938 version should prove "box office." For the leading players are popular and well cast—Gary Cooper is that wherever they put him!—and direction by Ernst Lubitsch was mighty cunning.

Backgrounds are the French Riviera. The story is about a poor French mademoiselle who weds a wealthy American, discovering just before the ceremony that she is to be the eighth Mrs. Brandon, Michael having left behind him a trail of widows both grass and sod. . . . The living ex-wives are better off than when he left them, for he has been most generous in the way of settlements.

The fair Nicole looks out for herself! She demands a prenuptial settlement exactly twice the amount vouchsafed the other ladies. This detail having been attended to in due form, she becomes Michael's wife—in name only—a situation her mate hadn't bargained on.

Ensuing action hinges on the bride's retreats, denials, and intrigues to make her husband jealous, and on the bridegroom's panting pursuit. . . . Eventually, of course, all is well.

Action and dialog have verve and sparkle. Miss Colbert and Mr. Cooper play with taste and enjoyment, and a well picked supporting cast does the same. Staging, photography and settings are class.

"Bluebeard's Eighth Wife" is decidedly adult entertainment, skating often but not offensively on the of the risqué.

See you tomorrow.

Maria V. Zimbalist, Daughter of Famed Musicians, to Wed

New York, April 4.—[Special.]—Miss Maria Virginia Zimbalist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Efrem Zimbalist, has chosen April 19 for her marriage to Ogden Goelet, son of Robert Goelet and of Mrs. Henry Clews of Cannes, France.

The wedding will take place at the Zimbalist home, and, owing to the illness of Mrs. Zimbalist, only a few relatives will be present.

Miss Zimbalist was introduced to society in 1936 and is a member of the Junior league. Her father is the celebrated violinist and her mother, the former Alma Gluck, has been internationally known for many years as an operatic and concert soprano.

Looking at Hollywood

By Ed Sullivan

Time Marches On.

Hollywood, Cal., April 4.—In the old days, if Leopold Stokowski went to Italy, reporters found him at La Scala; now they find him at La Garbo's.

Once, the world marveled at Sarah Bernhardt's diction; today the world marvels at Dorothy Lamour's sarong.

I remember 'way back when the country demanded to know whether an actor could play Hamlet; today the country demands to know whether the actor's horse can win the third at Santa Anita.

In the old days, a star was judged by his performance; today a star is judged by the pounds of coffee, the tins of cigarets and the boxes of dessert he sells on a radio program.

Once upon a time theatrical stars toured the country in companies; today they travel the world in cans.

I remember when the musical headliners were Paderewski and Rachmaninoff; today it's Benny Goodman and the Schnickelfritz band.

In the old days, William S. Hart, fastest man on the draw in the whole of God's celluloid northwest, whipped out his six shooters and killed Indians dead; today Gene Autry and other western heroes kill Indians by whipping out their mandolins and warbling two choruses of "Wagon Wheels."

Once, the theater hailed Booth, Warfield, and Barrymore; today it hails Bergen, McCarthy, and the Seven Dwarfs.

Long ago, the idea was to lift yourself by your own bootstraps; today the idea is to get a producer to lift your option.

I remember when a genius was a guy who starved in an attic; today he's a fat lug who gets fatter in a motion picture studio commissary.

In the old days, a protegé was the married director's girl friend; today, no change.

Long ago, the country listened intently as Lincoln delivered his Gettysburg address; today we listen intently as Roosevelt assures us he won't be a dictator.

I remember when Anna Held dunked herself in a milk bath; today the stars use the stuff only to make brandy eggnogs.

Once upon a time, leading ladies patterned themselves after languid, tragic Eleanor Duse; today Barbara Stanwyck raises and sells race horses, Carole Lombard flattens leading men with a punch, and Dietrich gallops "the big apple" at the Troc.

In the old days, a czar was the man who wore a crown, lived at St. Petersburg and drank vodka; today a czar is a former postmaster general who wears a high collar and commutes to Hollywood on $150,000 per year.

Long ago, when Pola Negri emoted, a violinist played a fiddle; today audiences play bingo.

I remember when Harry Lauder charmed the world with Scottish songs; today Maxine Sullivan unlocks Loch Lomond on swing tempo. Now it's "A braw, bricht, moonlight Harlem nicht." Yeah, man!

In the old days, producers insisted in her contract that Maude Adams never appear on the streets; today they're content if a star stays out of the gutter.

Long ago, an actor was known by the size of his diamond stickpin; today he's known by the size of his racing stable. Just think, once upon a time the sport of kings was dominated by the Bradleys, the Whitneys, and the Vanderbilts. Next Kentucky Derby day may be a tossup between Ratoff, Briskin, Orsatti, and Nat Goldstone.

In the old days, most notorious menaces were the Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance double plays; now it's double bills, double talk, double chins, double trouble, and double indemnity.

Once upon a time, if U. S. Steel fell below 100, there was a congressional investigation; today if Steel goes above 40, there's a congressional investigation.

Yes, sir, time marches on. In the old days, a Hollywood party always was an orgy. Now it's only a place where you play "quotations" to guess the names of books your hostess has never read.

Institute of Decorators Will Honor Mrs. Thorne

The Illinois chapter of the American Institute of Decorators will give a dinner tonight for Mrs. James Ward Thorne at which she will be presented with a certificate of honorary membership in the institute. This is being given to her in recognition of her contribution to the profession by her exquisite miniature rooms now on exhibit at the Art institute.

BEG YOUR PARDON

Maybe you noticed—I hope you didn't—that I said Jackie Cooper played in "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer." Jackie Coogan was meant. Sorry!

Touch of Spring Brings Sheers Into Limelight

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Encouraged, no doubt, by real spring days, silk suits, a surprising number of sheers are hanging about the town. The fashion ferrets, one and all, in the process of discovering, take time out to gasp and mumble the old "pretty early," but, as usual, wise shoppers take these first sheers out of circulation immediately. When the sultry days come, the shoppers bloom in crisp, cool smartness a good forty-eight hours ahead of the crowd.

If you balk at spending your money for early sheers try the sleek new high fashion jersey numbers. They are dresses of superlative charm, made with an ability to go anywhere, to stay trim, and in very good fashion. Small checks, neat stripes, and printed patterns that look like candlewick patterns are the new finds.

These cling in the required slinky manner, have front shirring and a form revealing streamline ready to go under coats now and out in the open later on as the perfect street outfit. Dark, interesting blues, some effective slate and steel grays are the best buys, with all shades of copper, beige, and browns running along with the first two colors for popularity.

The gadget of the week: A tiny thermometer embedded in colored lether, the whole item looking like a slim watch fob. This you button into a lapel or into a pocket flap or attach to a belt. This temperature teller is only about an inch long and works faithfully. The colors are green beige, red, navy, brown and blue, and the price around a dollar. It's a decorative bauble, and a handy spring doodad with which to keep track of the weather and as a check for your spring fever bouts.

SYNOPSIS.

Karen Gilbert meets Gordon Stone returning to Barranca after eight years in prison. Gordon was framed by Karen's ruthless uncle and guardian, Lyn Gilbert, owner of Bar B B ranch, and his foreman, Curt Ford. Because Karen has a friend take her to the hideout of Gordon and Jack Turnbull and warn them in time to save them from a posse of Gilbert's riders her uncle imprisons her at his ranch. Gordon and Jack start a campaign against Gilbert. The affidavit of Linc Conway, who was kept by threats from coming to Gordon's aid, is published in the Courier. It accuses Gilbert and Ford. Gilbert hires his rider, Cheyenne, to rub Linc out. Gordon rescues Karen from the ranch. Driving back he discovers a band of Gilbert's men rustling cattle for Curt Ford. He captures one of them. The cattle belong to Gordon's uncle, John Fleming, owner of the J F ranch. Gordon leaves Karen and his prisoner with his uncle and sets out with J F riders after the thieves, picking up Turnbull and Conway. One of the rustlers is captured, but Purdy and the leader, Webb, escape.

INSTALMENT XXVI.

THE FUGITIVES CORNERED.

They supported the prisoner to the cabin and looked after his hurt. Meanwhile two of the J F men busied themselves about getting breakfast. Day was breaking over the hills. Soon the park would be flooded with light.

After those in the cabin had eaten sandwiches and drunk some hot coffee a detachment relieved Turnbull and his men.

"Where do we go from here?" Jack asked, between bites.

"We collect Webb and Purdy, then hit for the J F ranch."

Jack grinned. "Hmp! The hairy ape will sure be some bear to collect. He's one bad combination, a fighting fool without sense."

"That's right," Linc Conway agreed. "He'll go through, I reckon."

"Likely he's up in the rocks against the north wall," Jack guessed. "We'll have a nice time digging him out."

Gordon said nothing. He was staring out of the window, eyes narrowed to shining slits. The stretch of park in front of him he did not see. What he visioned, in imagination, was that field of bowlders below the cliffs at the far end of the valley. Two men were crouched there, back of cover, ready to make a fighting finish of it. No chance of getting them out without casualties. Not by a frontal attack. But it might be done from above by expert marksmen. Jack would do for one.

He turned to Tim Sanders. "Who is the best shot with a rifle among you J F men?"

Sanders was a heavy set man with a brick red face. "I hate to brag," he grinned.

"Good enough. I want you and Jack to ride out of the park and swing round along the rim until you get back of Webb and Purdy. Take your time. Don't expose yourselves, but crawl forward till you can see where they are holed up. Then begin shooting. You're not to him them, but you are to drop bullets so close that they will have to quit the rocks and take to the brush up against the opposite wall. Understand? I don't want them killed or even hurt. But we have to get them out of there because Curt Ford will send some one to find out what is wrong when they don't come home."

Turnbull looked at his friend with a searching eye.

"Say we drive them into the brush. What then?"

"We'll be waiting there for them. I'll have the boys scattered around in the brush. My idea is to get near enough to talk with Webb and Purdy if I can."

Turnbull objected to his assignment. "Why send me up to the rim? Anybody can plug away at those guys and drive them out of the rocks. The war is down here in the valley."

"I'm hoping there won't be a war." Stone led Turnbull aside. "It's this way. I don't know my uncle's riders. We've got to have somebody up there who won't get buck fever and shoot up these rustlers. That's why I'm asking you to go."

Jack grumbled but went. His parting word was a warning.

"Don't get funny with Webb. That fellow is poison. If he takes a crack at you it won't be outa loving kindness. Betcha a hat peace talk won't go as far with him as you could throw a 3 year old bull by the tail."

Stone watched the two men ride out of the park and vanish back of the rim. He left Conway and two of the J F riders to guard the exit from Pyramid park. The others he took with him.

Stone drew up at a clump of aspens. "We'll tie our horses here and move through the brush on foot. I'm going to send you in over to the left there, Bart, and the country close to the wall will be yours, Sim. Keep under cover every minute. Under no circumstances expose yourselves. I want you to go forward about fifty yards and lie doggo there. When I was a boy I hunted in this park. A brushy arroyo runs out from the rocks where these fellows are probably hidden. They will likely try to slip out by way of the arroyo. If they do I'll be waiting at the gate for them. I'm going to propose a surrender, provided they give me a chance. Purdy may accept. I don't know about Webb. When Purdy comes through the brush with his hands up, if he does, you take him back to the cabin. Throw a rope over him before you start. Stay there and guard the prisoners till I come."

"If you come," Bart amended with a wry grin. "I figure Webb will fight. Maybe Purdy will, too."

"I said when I come," Stone insisted quietly.

The party moved into the chaparral and deployed.

Gordon worked his way up the arroyo carefully, examining every rock and every bit of shrubbery as he went. The men he was looking for might be hidden there already instead of in the rock field. The unwariness of a moment could cost him his life.

Above the eastern rock rim of the park the sun appeared and flung long rays of light across the foliage. In the brush some cattle were grazing.

From the rock rim in front of Gordon came the crack of a rifle. Jack and his companion getting into action. They had discovered the fugitives and were driving them from the bowlder field.

He took a position behind a large outcropping of quartz with fifty yards of open sandy wash in front of him. If the rustlers tried to escape by way of the arroyo he would have them at a great disadvantage.

How long he waited he did not know. There were more shots from above, and answering fire out of the rock field. For a long time there was silence. Gordon began to fear that the hunted men were not coming his way.

A bush snapped. There was the sound of a pebble rolling beneath a weight. A hairy face peered round a clump of cactus. After it came a hulking body.

"Okay, Purdy," Webb called back in a low voice.

Another figure came round the bend. The two moved forward cautiously. They were on foot. It was likely that they had cached their mounts because it gave them a better chance to escape being seen.

Stone waited until they were about thirty yards from him before he spoke.

"I'll ask you to stop there," he said. "You're covered from every side. Drop your weapons in the sand."

Purdy's jaw dropped. Panic rode his voice as he answered.

"Don't shoot. I'll surrender."

"Fling down your gun and drift this way" Stone ordered.

The cowpuncher did as directed. While he was moving forward Webb clambered up the side of the arroyo, stirring up a cloud of dust from his slipping feet. Stone flung a shot in his direction as the man vanished in the brush.

"Keep coming," he told Purdy curtly.

Swiftly he ran his hand over the man's body to make sure he had no concealed weapons, then called to Bart.

"I have a prisoner for you," he shouted. To Purdy he said: "Get a move on you, fellow. I'm in a hurry."

They met the J F rider on the way to meet them. Stone turned over to him the captured man and wheeled at once to set out in pursuit of Webb.

Lent Day by Day

NOONDAY SERVICES TODAY.

[At 12 o'clock unless otherwise indicated.]

Chicago Temple, 77 West Washington street. The Rev. Howard A. Vernon, Englewood Baptist church.

Grand Opera house. Dr. Oscar Lowrie of Philadelphia, Pa.

Harris theater, 12:10. Bishop Robert Nelson Spencer of Kansas City, Mo.

CATHOLIC MASSES.

[At 12:10 o'clock.]

Holy Name cathedral, 730 North State street.

St. Patrick's church, Adams and Des Plaines streets.

St. Peter's church, 816 South Clark street.

St. Mary's church, 911 South Wabash avenue.

Assumption church, 325 West Illinois street.

EPISCOPAL EUCHARIST.

Cathedral Shelter, Washington boulevard and Peoria street.

Dr. John Timothy Stone, president of the Presbyterian [formerly McCormick] Theological seminary, yesterday opened the lenten noonday services of the Chicago Church federation at the Chicago temple. The first four weeks of services at the temple were under auspices of the Methodist Episcopal church and directed by Dr. John Thompson.

Dr. Stone said in his sermon that the force of Christianity is not in philosophy or argument but in a life. Character, he added, cannot be promoted in an abstract way nor by definition, but only through contact with personality.

"As men come into contact with The Man of Nazareth," said Dr. Stone, "their lives become different. 'In Him was life and the life was the light of men.' The commanding personality of Christ has been increasing through the centuries and never has had greater influence than today. The very opposition of irreligious and skeptical forces is an evidence of Christ's power and strength."

First Club District Elects Mrs. Nippert Its President

Mrs. George Hanly Nippert was elected president of the 1st district, Illinois Federation of Womens Clubs, at its annual meeting and luncheon yesterday at the Hotel Sherman. Mrs. Nippert is Illinois commander of the woman's field army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer.

Child's Habits Can't Change in Short Time

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS

[Copyright: 1938: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

"Dear Mrs. Bevans: I read your articles every day and hope you can give me advice as you do others.

"I am a young widow with a girl, aged 8. I am living with my parents. Until now I always slept with my daughter, but as she is getting older I thought she would sleep by herself, so I bought her a youth bed, but she refused to sleep in it. She only wants to sleep with me.

"She tells me she is afraid and hears noises during the night. I scold her until that upsets her stomach and she vomits. So, then she comes into my bed for the rest of the night and sleeps very well.

"She is a nervous, spoiled child. When I take her to my friends I tell them she sleeps with me and they laugh and make fun of her. Yet she doesn't care and says: 'I like to sleep with my mother.'

"ONE OF YOUR READERS."

Other letters which would naturally be grouped with this one present problems a little different on the surface but fundamentally the same. Their contents are like this.

"My son has been living with my parents for eight years. Now I can have him with me, but scold and punish as I will I cannot change his behavior."

The point I want to make is this: In these and cases like them the children are the way they are because of the errors on the part of their grownups or of a situation over a long period of time.

Therefore, it is not fair or kind that the children should be expected to reform at once and bear the brunt of these past errors. Certainly it is cruel to ridicule them.

What a mother should say to herself is: "This is my fault. I owe it to my child to help him to better ways of acting.

"I cannot expect him to change at once.

"If he is old enough I will explain things to him.

"But above all I must have limitless patience and be kind as well as persistent in bringing about a change."

The Housewife

New window curtains can bring a breath of spring into any bedroom. Why not get away from the eternal ivory, ecru, and white for summer and try colors? You can get lovely, pastel tones in sheer voiles, synthetic silk voiles, Swiss, and marquisette.

We saw a bolt of French mercerized marquisette that looked almost good enough to eat. It was in delicate raspberry pink—a blush pink—and it was sprinkled with white dots. There was also a woven repeat figure in a deeper pink, to give it character. And it was most inexpensive.

If you have a draped dressing table you could get enough of this curtain material to make full flounces for it, and hang them over either white or pink sateen. They'd be pretty finished with white cotton ball edging.

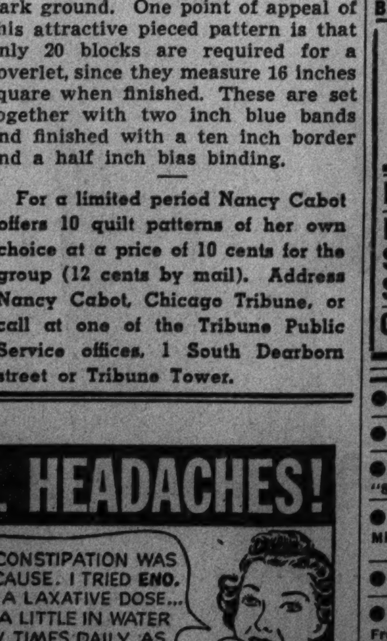
'Summer Clouds' Simplifies Design of Older Quilt



Summer Clouds.

Patterns of this design are 5 cents, stamps or coin. Address Nancy Cabot, Chicago Tribune, or call at one of the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street or Tribune Tower.

BY NANCY CABOT.

"Summer Clouds" is a simplified version of an old four patch pattern known both as "Four Frogs" and as "Flying Clouds." The "Summer Clouds" block is an entirely pieced design, while the earlier pattern was a pieced block with four light colored triangles appliquéd against a dark ground. One point of appeal of this attractive pieced pattern is that only 20 blocks are required for a coverlet, since they measure 16 inches square when finished. These are set together with two inch blue bands and finished with a ten inch border and a half inch bias binding.

For a limited period Nancy Cabot offers 10 quilt patterns of her own choice at a price of 10 cents for the group (12 cents by mail). Address Nancy Cabot, Chicago Tribune, or call at one of the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street or Tribune Tower.

NOW—NO MORE DULL HEADACHES!

THAT DULL HEADACHY FEELING WAS DRIVING ME FRANTIC! "PAIN-KILLERS" DID NOT RELIEVE ME—THEN I LEARNED...

THAT CONSTIPATION WAS THE CAUSE. I TRIED ENO. FIRST A LAXATIVE DOSE... THEN A LITTLE IN WATER A FEW TIMES DAILY, AS AN ALKALIZER. AND NOW—NO MORE DULL HEADACHES!

QUICK RELIEF FROM TROUBLES LIKE THESE

To you sufferers from the acid indigestion, the dull headaches, colds, listlessness, or other troubles due to constipation, Eno brings astonishing benefits.

First, a laxative dose, gently to help eliminate intestinal wastes. Then, as an alkalizer, a little Eno in a glass of water every morning as you need it. So refreshing. So effective.

You'll quickly agree with the millions of people who say there's nothing like Eno. Known and used in 84 countries.

You'll like ENO ALKALIZING LAXATIVE

hood in India and Singapore, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Kingham. Her husband is a son of Orville T. Bright Jr. and a grandson of the senior Mrs. Bright, who was one of the first board members of the school. Young Mr. and Mrs. Bright live on the near north side.

A series of special lectures on marriage guidance will be given on Wednesday evenings from 7:30 until 9 o'clock, open to students who are invited to bring their fiancés or their husbands.

Moulton Nuptials to Be June 27.

Miss Dorelle Moulton's Chicago friends will be able to meet her fiancé, Vincent D. Andrus, before their June wedding, for the young New Yorker, who is in Bermuda now, is coming to Kenilworth to visit Miss Moulton and her parents, the William A. Moultons, at Easter time.

There undoubtedly will be some parties for them while he is here, although most of Miss Moulton's friends will entertain for her during the weeks preceding the wedding on June 27.

The ceremony is to take place at 9 o'clock in the evening at the Winnetka Congregational church, with a reception following at the Skokie Country club. Miss Moulton will have nine adult attendants and two junior bridesmaids, her cousins, Phyllis and Elaine Dausher, of Reading, Pa.

Miss Valeria Harris, with whom Miss Moulton traveled abroad last summer, is to be the maid of honor. Miss Ruth Tilden, Miss Florence Hermes, Miss Lily Fleming and Miss Prudence Johnson are the Chicago girls who will be bridesmaids. Others are Miss Helen Andrus, sister of Mr. Andrus; Miss Mary Louise Cherrington of Cincinnati, Miss Ann Kenyon of Providence, R. I., and Miss Lois-Don Clancy of Louisville.

Two Stuart Sisters in Bridal Party.

Two of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Barbara Edwards to R. Douglas Stuart Jr., which is to take place on May 21 in Syracuse, will be the bridegroom's two subdebutante sisters, Anne and Margaret Stuart. They returned to their classes at Dobbs Ferry and Miss Hall's last week, but as the day of the wedding draws near it would not be surprising if they concentrated less on their studies and more on their bridesmaids' dresses, since it will be the first time they have participated in a bridal party.

Young Mr. Stuart will go east to be an usher in Plainfield, N. J., at the wedding on May 9 of Miss Elsie Burke Foster, daughter of Herbert Hastings Foster of Plainfield, to Stuart Warren Don of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and Louisville, Ky., son of Mrs. L. Rodman Mack of Londonville, N. Y.

Mary Jeanne Tansill to Be Bride April 23.

The wedding of Miss Mary Jeanne Tansill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weems Tansill, to Harry Sommer Vested, the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Vested of Chicago, will take place Saturday evening, April 23, at 8:30 o'clock in Christ church, Winnetka, with the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard officiating.

A reception for the bridal party and the members of the two families will be held following the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester B. Knight Jr. in Winnetka.

Miss Doris Tansill, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor and Miss Nancy Jane Littell of Kenilworth will be bridesmaid. James William Lafean of Wynnewood, Pa., formerly of Chicago, cousin of the bride, will be best man and the ushers will be Wilbur L. Lafean Jr. of Wynnewood and Herbert R. Keith of Chicago.

Mrs. Le Roy Kramer will entertain for Miss Tansill at a luncheon at the Woman's Athletic club next Saturday and Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Hapke Jr. will entertain for her on April 16.

The bridal dinner will be given the evening before the wedding by Mr. and Mrs. John A. Wheeler at their home in Evanston. Mr. Vested and his bride will be at home after May 15 at 79 Cedar street.

Paulman-Dille Nuptials Saturday.

The wedding of Miss Jayne Paulman, daughter of Mrs. Henry Paulman, to John Flint Dille Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Flint Dille of Evanston, will take place Saturday evening at the home of the bride's mother in Kenwood avenue, with a reception following. Miss Paulman's sister, Mrs. Louis J. Stirling, of Highland Park, and Miss Heath Horton will attend the bride. Gordon Clarke of Oklahoma will be best man. Mr. Dille and his bride will go to Bermuda on their wedding trip.

There have been a number of small parties for Mrs. Paget K. Cady and her mother, Mrs. Arthur Bissell, who are leaving tonight to spend a month in Santa Barbara, Cal. Mrs. Hollis Kirk is entertaining at cocktails this afternoon for Mrs. Cady.

There was a family dinner last night at the William E. Clows' home in Lake Forest to celebrate three birthdays in the family, those of the senior Mrs. Clow and her sons Kent and William E. Clow Jr. Mrs. Clow and Kent were born on April 4 and Mr. Clow Jr. on April 5.

The Vocational Society for Shut-Ins will hold a spring sale today from 10 o'clock until 5 o'clock at the home of the Bernard E. Sunnys, 4913 South Kimbark avenue. The display will be held in the art gallery which occupies the entire third floor.

Willard W. Jaques and his daughter, Mrs. Anson Clough of Montclair, N. J., will give a luncheon today at the flower show on the Navy pier for the directors and executive committee of the Garden club of Illinois, of which the late Mrs. Jaques was president.

It has been the custom for each president to give such a luncheon in her last year of office and Mr. Jaques is carrying on the tradition. No president has been appointed to fill Mrs. Jaques' place, although Mrs. George Plamondon is acting president.

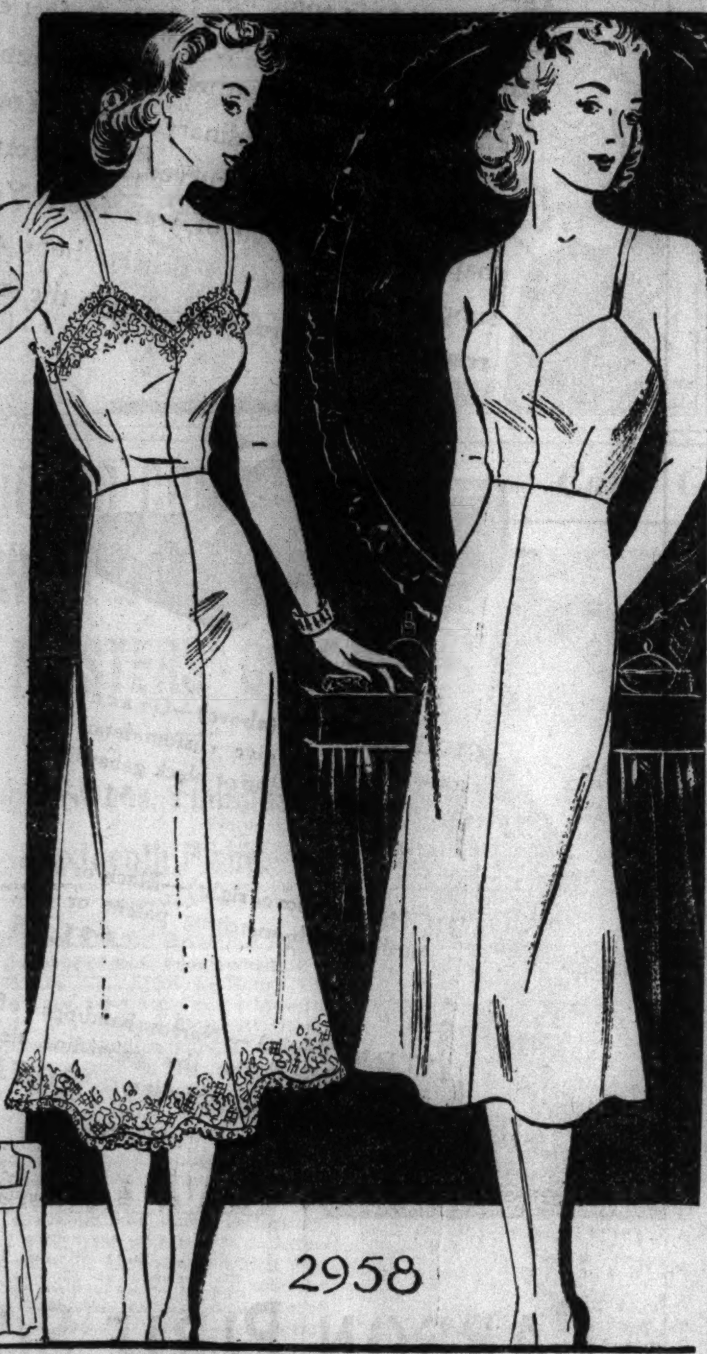
Costume Slip Well Styled



WOMAN'S AND MISS' PRINCESS SLIP.

Here is a costume slip that may be either dressy or trimly tailored. It is styled to fit the figure perfectly, and is an ideal foundation for all your frocks, since it molds the silhouette and absolutely avoids any excess material to form unsightly bulges under your clothes. It has a molded bra top and a V neckline, with narrow shoulder straps. The darts fit the garment snugly to the waistline, and the skirt is paneled for smoothness over the hips. There is ample width at the hemline.

All the lovely lingerie fabrics are suitable, but you may prefer taffeta in the tailored model, since that fabric is so popular for slips and petticoats these days, and is an attractive foil for suits when bright colors are used. For crêpe and satin a lace trimming is nice.

May we suggest that you haunt the remnant counters and pick up plenty of lovely crêpes at low prices. This pattern and inexpensive fabric will provide a large collection of slips for your wardrobe.

Style No. 2958 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, and 20 years, and 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, and 44 inches bust measurement. Size 36 requires 2¼ yards of 39 inch material.

Fudge Offers Candy Makers Kitchen Fun

BY MARY MEADE.

[Copyright: 1938: By The Chicago Tribune.]

There are few among us who don't like to tie on an apron and get out the candy making equipment once in a while. No candy is more popular than chocolate fudge, and few fudge recipes are better than the ones I am going to give here.

The first recipe is for a quick fudge which may be made by a child or an inexperienced cook with excellent results, barring accident or carelessness. The second recipe had best be left alone by children or rank amateurs, as a two batch divinity is more difficult to handle than are many other kinds of candy. However, the finished product is worthy of its name in the hands of a careful candymaker. The third recipe makes a smooth, creamy Sunday afternoon fudge which any candy lover is likely to stow away piece by piece until he is surfeited.

Easy Fudge.

2 squares unsweetened chocolate
¾ cup milk
1 tablespoon light corn sirup
2 cups sugar
⅛ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon vanilla

Add chocolate to milk and heat over low unit. Cook until mixture is smooth and blended, stirring constantly. Add corn sirup, sugar and salt, and stir until sugar is dissolved and mixture boils. Continue boiling without stirring until a small amount of the mixture forms a soft ball in cold water, 234 degrees by the candy thermometer. Remove from heat and add butter and vanilla. Cool to lukewarm. Beat until the mixture begins to thicken and lose its gloss. Turn at once into a greased pan, 8 by 4 inches. When cold, cut in squares.

Chocolate Divinity Fudge.

2 cups sugar
⅔ cup water
½ cup light corn sirup
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted and cooled
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup broken nut meats
⅛ teaspoon salt

Boil ½ cup sugar and ⅓ cup water until a small amount of the sirup forms a slightly firm ball in cold water, 240 degrees by the candy thermometer. While this mixture is boiling, bring remaining sugar and water and the corn sirup to a boil, and boil until a hard ball may be formed in a cold water test, 252 degrees. Remove first sirup from heat and cool slightly. Pour slowly over egg whites, beating constantly until mixture loses its gloss [about 1½ minutes]. Then add second sirup slowly, beating as before. When nearly cool, fold in chocolate. Add vanilla, nuts and salt, beating until candy holds its shape. Turn into greased pan, 8 by 8 inches. Cool and cut in pieces.

Chocolate Cream Fudge.

2 squares unsweetened chocolate
½ cup water
½ cup evaporated milk
1 cup granulated sugar
½ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
⅛ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup broken nut meats

Add chocolate to water and milk and heat gently. Cook until mixture is smooth and blended, stirring constantly. Add sugars and salt, and stir until dissolved and the mixture boils. Continue to boil without stirring until a small amount of the sirup forms a very soft ball in cold water, 232 degrees by the candy thermometer.. Remove from heat and add butter and vanilla. Cool to lukewarm. Beat until mixture begins to thicken and lose its gloss. Add nuts. Turn at once into greased pan, 8 by 4 inches. When cool and firm cut in squares.

Black walnuts, cashews or peanuts are excellent in this recipe, although any other kind of nuts may be used. Peppermint flavoring, orange or cinnamon may be used with good results instead of the vanilla.

VISUALIZING THE HIDDEN CARDS.

[Copyright: 1938: By Ely Culbertson.]

The player who concentrates on the cards in his own hand and those exposed in the dummy, whether he is in the position of declarer or defender, is not performing his work properly. It is impossible to play good bridge without at least a sketchy, or tentative, mind picture of the unexposed hands. Players who have heretofore made little or no effort to visualize the two hands that are hidden from them will be surprised at the ease with which this can be done in countless instances. Let us sit in declarer's seat in the following deal.

Neither side vulnerable.

With no interference bidding North-South reached a contract of four spades. Cover the East and West hands and let us follow the play, with no more information that can reach declarer legitimately.

West opens the heart ace and shifts to a low club. As declarer, we see that if we can draw spades without loss, and lose no diamond trick, and if we then get a 3-2 club break, we need lose only two tricks in all. So we start to draw trumps. We lead low to the spade ace and return the eight to the king. West shows out, thereby placing East with the remaining J-9. We can, of course, pick up the jack on a finesse but, first, hadn't we better make sure of our four diamond tricks? If diamonds fail to break, and all of our trumps are gone before we know it, we will be in bad shape indeed. Hence, we stop leading trumps to lead a low diamond to the ace and the six back to the king. East ruffs. But this does not disturb us because, with the bad break of diamonds, we had one loser anyway. East returns his last spade and, after winning, let us take stock.

We have established that East originally held four spades and one diamond. If he held four clubs he could hold only four hearts, and this would place West with seven hearts. Surely with a seven card heart suit West would have overcalled one diamond. If East had either two or three clubs the club suit must break. We decide that East could not have had a singleton club, because he then would have had to hold seven hearts, and he, also, would have overcalled with such length. Thus we arrive at the virtual certainty that the club suit will break 3-2. This is valuable working knowledge. All we need do now is cash the club king and lead a third round, not caring which defender takes the lead. If East must win he can return only a heart, which will permit us to ruff in one hand while discarding a diamond in the other. If West wins the third club he can return a diamond or a heart, but both are quite satisfactory to us. A diamond lead will come up to our Q-10; a heart lead will give us the aforesaid ruff and discard. Surely this sort of suit placing is simplicity itself.

Here Are Posture Lessons Given Ambassador's Daughter

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

[Copyright: 1938: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

Before leaving for England to join her father, Joseph P. Kennedy, United States ambassador to England, Kathleen Kennedy, a very pretty and shy little girl, took instructions at a well known dance studio in New York to learn how to walk and curtsey. Here are some of the things which the charming young miss learned and which may aid you to carry yourself with greater poise and ease.

Before starting to walk assume the proper posture by facing the wall and putting your toes, abdomen, and the tip of your nose against it. Your arms, raised to shoulder height, the elbows bent, also must be flat against the wall. As you start to walk, your ear, shoulder, hip, and instep all should be in a straight line. Lead with your thigh, your heel coming down first [slightly, not hard], then roll your weight onto the ball of your foot. Your feet must follow each other in a straight line. Imagine that you are carrying something on your head.

To sit down properly, one foot should go back a little nearer to the chair than the other. Throw your weight onto that foot and sit straight down with your hands relaxed. As you get up, push off from your back foot and your weight will go to your forward foot. In this way you will have yourself under control and never will give that ugly effect of pushing yourself off the chair.

If you are inclined to be at all round shouldered don't throw your shoulders back. That gives an ugly, square look. Lift your chest and diaphragm and then your shoulders will straighten.

There are many good exercises to correct posture and slumped shoulders. Here are two of them which were taught little Miss Kennedy. Hold your arms straight out in front of you, shoulder high, then raise them over the head as high as possible, keeping the head erect. Lower them to shoulder level and repeat.

Hold your hands straight in front at shoulder height, then rotate them up over your head and back in as large a circle as possible.

Miss Kennedy was instructed to imagine that she had on an iron girdle and that she had to relax inside of it in order to walk. If you will use your imagination and try walking under those conditions you will find that it will make you relax your hip and abdominal muscles, giving you a soft, flowing line through the thighs.

WEDDINGS

The wedding of Miss Katherine Louise French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley K. French of Winnetka, to Herbert F. Nolan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Smith H. Axtell of Wilmette, will take place on April 22 at 8:30 o'clock at the Skokie Country club, with the Rev. Samuel Harkness officiating.

Miss Margaret French will be her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Mrs. Raymond Brookby, Mrs. Edward Walter, and Miss Ethel Nolan, sister of the bridegroom. Walter May, formerly of Evanston and now living in Tucson, Ariz., will be best man and the ushers will be Ellery F. Gerber, Raymond Brookby, and Ralph Keltel.

Miss Jane Dahl, whose wedding to Russell Powell Jr. of New York will take place on April 30, has gone to Danville, Va., to be a bridesmaid at the wedding next Tuesday of Miss Sadie Hall, a Wellesley classmate, to Richard Howe of Boston. Mrs. Howe, in turn, will be a bridesmaid for Miss Dahl, who will be married in the Winnetka Congregational church. Miss Dahl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George V. Dahl.

CLEWS MEAGER TO SLAYERS OF WOMEN IN AUTO

Texas Offers $1,000 for Capture of Killers.

El Paso, Tex., April 4.—(AP)—A band of desert robbers was hunted intensively tonight for the slaying of two California women motorists traveling alone from Berkeley, Cal., to Parris Island, S. C.

Federal agents, police of two states and sherif's officers were united in a wide flung search for the killers of Mrs. Weston G. Frome, 46, and her 23 year old daughter, Nancy, found tortured and beaten to death amid the mesquite and cacti of West Texas. The governor of Texas offered $1,000 reward.

The investigators theorized that at least one woman, perhaps two, assisted one or two male robbers in the crime, but they had only the slenderest of clews. Robbery was the predominant theory.

An army deserter was detained and questioned at Alamogordo, N. M., but there were no apparent developments of importance.

Reconstruct Crime in Theory.

The investigators believed the Fromes, traveling in a new model automobile, had a tire blowout last Wednesday. Jim Milam, a truck driver, had passed the Frome car earlier and he reported seeing a mysterious coupe bearing a man and a woman just behind the California car. Others reported a sedan carrying two men and two women was in the neighborhood.

It was Milam's memory of the coupe following the Fromes which led the posses to discover the two semi-nude bodies, lying side by side in the desert six miles east of Van Horn, near the spot where Milam had seen them last. Their car had been found near Balmorhea.

District Attorney Roy Jackson expressed belief that a man took the wheel of the Frome car, either having been invited in or having forced his way in.

"Reconstructing what took place," Jackson said, "it would appear the women struggled desperately with the driver, who later took them out of the car and shot them to death."

Some of Jewelry Not Taken.

Neither the sherif nor the district attorney could explain, however, why some of the women's jewelry was taken and some left on the bodies. Mrs. Frome's husband, assistant general sales manager for the Atlas Powder company, said they had "no more than $150 in cash," but they had $2,000 in travelers' checks.

Dr. W. W. Waite, who conducted the autopsy, said tests indicated the daughter was not raped, as first believed.

"Both women had been made the victims of what must have been horrible torture," Dr. Waite said.

Officers hoped the loot might help them follow the slayers' trail, for their clews were exceedingly meager. They consisted of strands of hair in Nancy's clutched fingers, a book of matches, and a man's handkerchief in her other hand, and dirt from her finger nails.

The hair was sent to Austin, Tex., for microscopic examination, and preparations were made to have similar tests conducted on the material scraped from her fingernails.

Governor Offers Reward.

A reward of $1,000 for information leading to a solution of the slayings was offered by Gov. James V. Allred. He asserted that the state should take more than the usual interest in this case because the victims were from another state and since it is the second similar incident in this section.

He referred to the disappearance in May, 1935, of two Illinois couples, Mr. and Mrs. George Lorius of East St. Louis and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heberer of Duquoin. While touring the southwest, they vanished between Albuquerque, N. M., and Austin, Tex. Although a string of their cashed travelers checks left a trail and their car was found abandoned in Dallas, the case still is unsolved.

Mrs. Frome and her daughter left Berkeley March 25 to drive to Parris Island, to visit Nancy's sister, Mrs. Benjamin McMakin. Last week Mrs. Frome wrote to her husband from El Paso, Tex., the women having decided at the last moment to make the trip by way of this section.

HUNT SUSPECTS HERE.

Two police squads raced to 3031 South State street last night in response to a request from police of El Paso, Tex., to search for "two large men" wanted as suspects in the Frome murders. The clew proved to be false. According to police, the men had driven north from Texas after a woman companion had dropped off in Dallas.

Berlin Hunts Smugglers with Infra-Red Rays

BERLIN, April 4.—Infra-red rays will be used along the borders of Pan-Germany to prevent smugglers and others from crossing frontiers at night without detection. The Germans have worked out a system whereby a searchlight is automatically switched on when a person attempts to cross an area guarded by infra-red ray. It is said this system has been employed with great success in combatting smuggling along Germany's western borders.

MRS. M'LAUGHLIN CHARGES ABUSE OF FARM STOCK

Mrs. Irene Castle McLaughlin appeared yesterday in the justice court of Henry F. Wallenwein at Waukegan to press charges against August Hinterberg, 70 years old, a farmer on state route 22, near Lake Forest, who, she said, had been guilty of cruelty to his live stock.

Photographs of the horses and cows were introduced by Mrs. McLaughlin, who said the animals are improperly fed, that there is no running water on the Hinterberg farm, and that the plight of the stock had aroused the sympathy of motorists from Chicago who had complained to her.

After looking at the pictures and hearing testimony that Hinterberg is not physically able to care for his twenty-two cows and two horses, Wallenwein continued the case until April 11, ordering that the farmer dispose of most of the cattle if he can get a fair price. Mrs. McLaughlin volunteered to help find a buyer.

OPEN BID FOR HOCKY CROWN ON TORONTO ICE

Chicago Sextet Is Year's Sensation.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TORONTO, April 4.—Those amazing Chicago Blackhawks, who upset all hocky calculations by reaching the Stanley cup finals, arrived here this morning for the start of the best three-out-of-five game series with the Maple Leafs. The first game will be played in the Maple Leafs arena at 8:30 tomorrow night. The second Toronto game will be played Thursday. The arena has been sold out for both engagements since last Wednesday. The first Chicago game is scheduled next Sunday in the Stadium.

Bill Stewart.

The Hawks, who came from behind to defeat both the Montreal Canadiens and the New York Americans, were in high spirits when they arrived. Despite the fact that they are going against the highest powered scoring machine in hocky, the entire club radiated confidence, from Manager Bill Stewart down to the boy who carries the sticks.

Stewart Praises His Men.

"I'm not forgetting those three straight the Leafs won from Boston. It was a great achievement and only the most ardent admirer of the Leafs could have given them a chance to win from the powerful Boston club," Stewart said upon his arrival. "Yet they beat the Bruins easily in three straight games. But look at us. We were forced to play our two matches away from home to start, losing our opening encounter in each series and winning the deciding games on enemy ice.

"We shut out both teams in two of the games. What can any one say but that the Hawks are the greatest money playing team the sport has known in a long time?"

Those Leafs Can Shoot.

The Hawks will enter tomorrow's game against a team that made 151 goals in the season just past, an average of over three per game. However, in the last two encounters between the teams the best the Maple Leafs could get against the Hawks was a 1 to 1 tie. The other game went to the Chicago team, 2 to 1.

The leading scorer of the Leafs is Right Wing Gordon Drillon, playing his first full season in the majors. The final standing showed Drillon with twenty-six goals and twenty-six assists for a point total of fifty-two. Trailing Drillon all the way was his line mate, Center Sylvanus Apps, last season's winner of the rookie trophy, who finished second in the league's standing six points ahead of the Blackhawks' high scorer, Paul Thompson. Apps accounted for twenty-one goals and thirty-nine assists.

Horner Can Score, Too.

The Leafs also have the leading pointmaker among the defense players, Red Horner ending the 1937-'38 campaign with twenty-four points, which was made up of four goals and twenty assists. Second among the defense men was the Blackhawks' Earl Seibert, who, although trailing Horner by three points in the season's play, outscored Horner by four goals. In the present six playoff games to date Seibert has made four goals, which is high for the players in the six teams which have participated in the playoffs.

In the Toronto-Boston series of three games the Maple Leafs made six goals. In the six Blackhawks games the Chicago team averaged three goals per game. A noticeable feature of the Hawks' scoring is shown in the goals and assists columns. Eleven players, Seibert, Levinsky, Thompson, Romnes, March, Gottselig, Trudell, Jenkins, Dahlstrom, Voss, and Shill had a part in the scoring of the team's goals.

Trudell, March to Be Ready.

Louis Trudell still is suffering from a charley horse and Mush March has a badly bruised hip. Both played in the semi-final series with the Americans and they'll be ready for the Leafs.

The Blackhawks reached their peak offensively and defensively last night in scoring their second straight triumph over the New York Americans in Madison Square Garden in the deciding game of the semi-final competition.

PICARD COMES IN WITH 285; WINS MASTERS' GOLF

Bobby Jones Finishes in Sixteenth Place.

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Augusta, Ga., April 4.—Henry Gilford Picard, who was born a brace of brassie shots from Plymouth Rock, today won the fifth annual Masters' golf tournament on the Augusta National course with a seventy-two hole total of 285, 3 shots under par and 2 in front of the field.

The 30 year old Yankee, who still retains his native twang despite eight years in Charleston, S. C., before going to his present post at Hershey, Pa., fulfilled an ambition this afternoon when he shot the 70 which won him the title. In 1935 Picard was one of the fortunate young men considered just good enough to be invited to this exclusive entertainment. He responded by shooting a course record of 67, and then a 68, but slipped to 151 swings on the final thirty-six holes.

Guldahl and Cooper Second.

Henry had no scores in the 60s this time. He started out with a 71 Saturday, and was still 3 shots away. He added a 72 yesterday morning and was 4 shots back. In the afternoon he whipped up another par while the rest of the field was in confusion and found himself a stroke on top at the end of fifty-four holes. Today he returned to the tenor of his Masters' debut three years ago, going out in 32, 4 under par. Then he made a couple of mistakes at the tenth and eleventh, but he clung to par therein and finished with a 38 for his winning 70.

Two shots behind the new champion were two Chicagoans—Ralph Guldahl, national and western open champion, and Harry Cooper, leading money winner of last year, both with 287s. Little Paul Runyan of White Plains, N. Y., dashed off a finishing 70 for 288, and Byron Nelson, the defending champion, took 290.

The happiest outcome of the tournament was the performance of one Robert Tyre Jones Jr. of Atlanta, without whom there would be no Masters' tourney. It is the only event in which the whilom master of golf appears as a competitor. Bobby finished in a tie for sixteenth place, three positions back of his best effort in the Masters', but he did it with 297, which equaled his score in the inaugural tourney. The Atlanta lawyer today shot a 75 on top of his 74 and 72 of yesterday, and pleased the gallery following him and Guldahl with a boldness reminiscent of yore.

Sarazen Slips to 79.

The four professionals who trailed Picard by a stroke at the end of fifty-four holes all did well with the exception of Gene Sarazen, the Connecticut squire who threw the historic deuce of the 1935 tournament,

CUBS TO SIGN RUSSELL AS AID FOR MOUND STAF

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Bisbee, Ariz., April 4.—Jack Russell, who for years was kicked from one American league club to another, will be a Cub as soon as he can be reached with a contract. The acquisition of Russell, a free agent since his recent release by the Detroit Tigers, was announced tonight by Manager Charley Grimm.

Russell is in Florida and has agreed to terms so the actual signing will be delayed until he reports to his new team later in the week in San Antonio. The main reason for signing Russell is that he may be able to fill in as relief pitcher.

APPLING GOES TO DIXIE HOME; OUT UNTIL JUNE

Luke Appling, the injured White Sox shortstop, left Chicago on the Dixie Limited of the C. & E. I. railroad yesterday for his home in Atlanta, Ga., after submitting to an X-ray examination in Mercy hospital.

Physicians said the right ankle, fractured in an exhibition game against the Cubs in Los Angeles, had been given expert attention on the Pacific coast and that there is every reason to believe Appling's recovery wil be rapid. They do not expect, however, that he will be able to rejoin the club until early in June.

In the Wake of the News

BY ARCH WARD.

ANDY PUPLIS of Notre Dame will be in the back field of the New York Giants next fall if he fails to land a coaching job in the meantime. . . . Andy has received an offer from the pros but has been too busy playing shortstop for the Irish this spring to give it much thought. . . . He averaged 10 yards a try last fall. . . . All left handers aren't eccentric. . . . Herb Epperly and John Hendricks of the Bradley Tech baseball squad are a pair of arguments to the contrary. . . . Epperly, one of the best history students in school, is president of Phi Sigma Pi, national educational fraternity. . . . Hendricks ranks high on the roster of Zeta Pi, national organization for business administration. . . .

The Blackhawks have made Wilf Cude, Canadiens' goalie, hocky's variation of what is known in baseball as a cousin during two playoffs. . . . The Hawks defeated the Detroit Red Wings, with Wilf minding the nets, in the 1934 Stanley cup finals and eliminated Cude and his Canadien mates from the playoffs this season. . . . Bob Lewis, the Cubs' rotund secretary, was a motorcycle enthusiast—for a while—in his younger days. . . . Following a brief but painful encounter with a lamp post Bob turned to less strenuous pursuits. . . . Basil James, the jocky who was banned early in the Santa Anita meeting for rough riding, will be reinstated next week. . . .

Harry Grabiner, vice president of the White Sox, leans to the belief that Zeke Bonura will find a lot of the drives he intends to be home runs falling into the clutches of the outfielders. . . . Griffith stadium is the only American league park in which fewer than 100 homers were hit last summer. . . . Luke Sewell contends that if Joe Di Maggio were a left hand hitter he would hit seventy-five home runs this year with that short right field wall in Yankee stadium as a target. . . . Ralph Neafus, a member of the University of Michigan wrestling team in 1934, has been taken prisoner by the rebel forces in Spain. . . . Iowa's 1938 baseball team will be the most widely traveled in the Hawkeyes' history. . . . It plays fourteen straight road games before opening on its home lot with Michigan State on April 29.

CAMARATA WINS FROM LELLO IN SLUGGING MATCH

Close Battle Thrills Marigold Crowd.

Nick Camarata, New Orleans lightweight, defeated Pete Lello, former Golden Gloves champion, in a hard ten round bout in Marigold Gardens last night. A capacity crowd of 1,593 approved, although the decision was not unanimous.

Referee Norman McGarity and Judge John Bray scored for Camarata, but Judge Ed Hintz voted for a draw. It was Camarata's second victory over his opponent from Gary in a month.

Both lads landed staggering blows throughout. Camarata almost was floored by rights to the jaw in the second round, and Pete scored a near knockdown with a right to the head in the ninth.

Lello, who was a 1 to 2 favorite, weighed 132½, one pound less than his opponent.

Gross receipts were $1,952.

Joyce Beats Agnes.

Willie Joyce, 1937 Chicago Golden Gloves featherweight champion, won his first fight as a lightweight when he beat Frankie Agnes in the five round semi-final. Agnes was down for a two count in the first round.

Each of the three preliminary matches went the limit of four rounds. Pat Robertson beat Johnny Fairchild, Tommy Pallatin whipped George Nelson, and Steve Karas conquered Les Finucane. Nelson was substituted for Harry Booker. Finucan, son of Billy, old time featherweight star, was floored in the final round. Les was making his first start in five years.

ROSS STOPS SCHAFT

Minneapolis, Minn., April 4.—(AP)—Barney Ross of Chicago, welterweight champion, won on a technical knockout tonight from Henry Schaft of Minneapolis in 1:12 of the fourth round. Barney floored his opponent twice, once for a count of nine before a final right ended the match.

Schaft, who weighed 149½ to the champion's 142 pounds, carried the fight to Ross in the third round, but saw his wide right swings pass over the Chicagoan's head. Schaft went to his knees for a count of eight. Ross connected with a sharp right shortly after and Schaft was groggy.

Schaft bored in once in the fourth round, only to be sent against the ropes with a right. Another short right sent him down for a count of nine.

The Minneapolis youth rose, flailed wildly, and met another right. He fell in a corner, tried to rise at the count of eight, and the fight was stopped by the referee.

Red Bruce, 180 pounds, of Pittsburgh, won the eight round semi-windup from Andy Miller, 179½, Sioux City, Ia.

LEWIS WINS DECISION

Philadelphia, Pa., April 4.—(AP)—Light Heavyweight Champion John Henry Lewis of Pitsburgh outpointed Bob Tow, 202, of Alexandria, Va., to win a 10 round decision in a nontitle bout before a crowd of 7,500 here tonight. Lewis weighed 183 pounds.

Spalding Pays Jones $35,000 for 'Promotion' Job

Washington, D. C., April 4.—(AP)—Bobby Jones made $35,000 last year as "general manager of golf promotion" for A. G. Spalding & Brothers, the company informed the securities commission today. The sum was nearly twice the $19,000 salary of the company's president, Julian W. Curtiss.

Bill Lee Asks for Work; He'll Get It Today!

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Bisbee, Ariz., April 4.—Bill Lee, who has been out of service for a few days because of a kink in his neck, will handle part of the Cubs' pitching here tomorrow in the twelfth of the spring arguments with the White Sox. Manager Grimm originally intended to use Charley Root and Newel Kimball, but Lee requested that he be substituted for the rookie. Lee says he's feeling great and wants work. The Sox pitchers will be Merritt [Sugar] Cain and John Dungan Rigney.

Al Schacht, the Sox trainer, was in the invalid class today. He stepped in a hole at the railroad yards last night in Tucson, tearing his thigh muscles. He is under the care of Doc Andrew Lotshaw, the Cubs' muscle manipulator.

This isn't official yet, but don't be surprised if Clay Bryant is named to pitch the season's opener for the Cubs in Cincinnati April 19. A move such as this might be considered a bit unorthodox, but Manager Grimm is weighing the merits of the idea mainly because it might give the big right hander some needed confidence.

The Sox and Cubs will have a chance to get close to China tomorrow. They've been invited to inspect a copper mine 2,700 feet under ground. The timid members of the troupe will not show up.

One of the Chicago scribes was interrupted at his work this morning. Two state policemen escorted him from his room to the jailhouse on a vagrancy charge. The scribe suspected it was a frameup, so enjoyed the attention showered on him. The judge, who glowered menacingly when the prisoner laughingly volunteered the information that he had been in better jails, released the culprit on the latter's promise to appear tomorrow for sentence.

Bill Jurges has been having trouble off and on with his throwing arm for the last two weeks, but still insists it is nothing that will not vanish if given the rest cure. Bill, however, is one of those fellows who never wants to rest long enough to give nature a break.

Bill Cox, the Sox rookie right-hander from the St. Paul team, wasn't able to put on a uniform today. He was suffering from a slight attack of indigestion.

Bob Garbark, the Cubs' third string catcher for 1938, kept away from the concrete grandstand today. Last year he charged into the same wall while practicing before the game and suffered a broken thumb, a mishap which brought on his return to a minor league club.

ROOKIE ZUEHLS HALTS RALLY IN PITCHING DEBUT

Hose Need One More to Square Series.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Bisbee, Ariz., April 4.—The White Sox and the Cubs this afternoon played what was advertised as a demonstration of major league baseball. It is sufficient to forget about the major league demonstration and set down that the White Sox won, 11 to 9.

Clint Brown.

The Sox made all their runs off Al Epperly in the first four innings. The Cubs made all of theirs except one, a homer by Ken O'Dea, after Clint Brown had held them to thre hits in the first five innings. The Cubs got busy when Brown added an inning to his usual assignment and gave up three runs. They then went on against Jess Dobernic and Walter Zuehls to the point where they had the tying runs on third and second when Gabby Hartnett grounded out to the end the game.

No Errors, Anyway.

Despite the sloppy features of the spectacle there were no errors by either team.

The whole business was just another afternoon for most of the participants except, perhaps, young Mr. Zuehls, late of the University of Wisconsin.

Except for the waitresses who have served him his meals this spring, scarcely no one knew Walter was around until today. He hadn't pitched an inning in the regular exhibition schedule and even had gone through his calisthenics at Pasadena in obscurity. But today he stepped in when the Cubs were about the riotous task of erasing what once had been an 11 to 1 White Sox lead. The boys up in Madison should give him nine rahs and a tiger and intone a few bars of "On Wisconsin." The kid was all right.

Fifth Victory for Sox.

Today's game was the eleventh in the spring series between the Sox and the Cubs. The ratio once stood at four victories for the Cubs and none for the Sox, but just now the tabulation is six games for the Cubs and five for the Sox.

The teams have two more games, one here tomorrow and one in El Paso, before they open their three game windup in Chicago April 15.

The Sox tanned Master Epperly's hide somewhat in the first inning after he had retired Hayes, the lead-off man. Kreevich and Walker rapped singles, Radcliff walked, and Kuhel and Owen also singled. These things put three runs across the plate and a fourth was added while Schlueter was forcing Owen. The inning ended with Berger's foul to O'Dea.

The Sox made it 5 to 0 in the second inning. Kreevich walked with Art Daberko of Canton, O., created a change in the standing in the American Bowling Congress tournament in the Coliseum yesterday, rolling into fifth place in the singles with a 703 total. Daberko, veteran of ten A. B. C. tournaments, clustered strikes for counts of 222, 258, and 233, his highest total in national competition.

Ray Schultz and Steve Czerwinski, Buffalo veterans, fell only fifteen pins short of toppling their fellow townsmen, Dick Kriese and Sam Vanini, out of first place — and a possible championship — in the doubles division.

Hang Up 1,308 Total.

The Buffalo veterans hit games of 459—431—418 in hanging up a 1,308 total to take the runner-up spot. Schultz, who totaled 657 as the Behringer Diamonds were scoring 2,945 Sunday, continued the strike attack with counts of 236—210—226 for a 672 total. Czerwinski, who hit only 548 in the team competition, gave Schultz a 636 score on 223—221—192.

Czerwinski left a four pin cluster in the eighth frame and missed the spare and was tapped when a stubborn No. 10 pin refused to fall on a solid pocket hit in the tenth frame of the last game. The break cost the easterners the lead.

Joe Ahler of Frankenmuth, Mich., slipped into tenth position in the all-events with 1,911 pins. Ahler scored 622 with his team, the Fischer's Hotel five, added 683 in the doubles, and 606 in the singles.

Harold Lloyd Sends Brother.

Two of the headliners on tonight's card will not perform as scheduled. The Air Corps team of Honolulu arrived by boat in San Francisco, but was ordered back for duty in Hawaii. Harold Lloyd, film comedian, has sent his brother, Gaylord, to represent him in the Westwood Village lineup, one of the nine California teams scheduled.

Has Masters' Touch

Henry Picard, Hershey, Pa., pro, yesterday won the annual Masters' golf tournament in Augusta, Ga., with a 72 hole score of 285, three shots under par and two ahead of the field.

Picard Shoots 285 to Win in Masters' Golf

and who yesterday putted himself to a 70 and a 68. Gene needed a 79 today, while Cooper and Guldahl were doing 71s and Ed Dudley of the home club was getting a 75 for a 291.

Cooper's main difficulty consisted of a continuation of the bad putting streak which struck him in the second round yesterday morning. Guldahl was similarly afflicted, particularly by the four par three holes, out of which he could extract only one par.

Picard's faith in a new grip was well rewarded in the Masters' tournament. A bruised bone in his left thumb during the St. Augustine event forced him to switch from an overlapping to an interlocking clutch which left the ailing thumb free of tension and pressure. He sampled this through the recent north and south at Pinehurst, and liked it so well that he has adopted it permanently.

How Picard Started.

The new champion began golf at the Plymouth, Mass., Country club, where he was a caddy. He didn't have much chance to work at the game seriously until he was given a set of clubs, and he and several of his associates mapped out a nine hole course on a nearby cow pasture. After he had gone to Charleston as a professional he attained considerable note by beating Walter Hagen in a playoff for the Carolina open title—the only time the old gent ever lost an extra inning argument.

Picard's victory today earned him $1,500 and raised him to third place in the money winning standing for the current season. Cooper's $700 slice of second place left him in front with $4,448. Johnny Revolta is second with $4,390. Picard has $4,113.

Picard's out nine of 32 swept out to every gallery on the course. It consisted of four birdies and five pars. He holed a 20 footer at the first, a three footer at the seventh, and chipped dead at both the second and eighth. Three putts cost him a shot at the tenth, and he yielded another by driving the forestry off the 11th, but followed par therein for a 38.

Set Tourney Dates.

The tournament committee tonight announced that the 1939 tournament will be held on March 30, 31 and April 1 and 2.

The North and South at Pinehurst and the Masters' tournament here revealed that Chicago's professional colony will be enhanced by two of the rising young men of the game. Jack Grout, who has been Picard's assistant at Hershey, will come to Northmoor as aide to Ky Laffoon, and E. J. [Dutch] Harrison will soon join Ren Smith in a similar capacity at Oak Park.

COACHES DISCUSS POSSIBLE CHANGE IN BASKET RULES

Plan to Recommend Only Minor Alteration.

BY WILFRID SMITH.

Preliminary discussion of basketball rules yesterday afternoon by the members of the National Association of Basketball Coaches in session in the Morrison hotel indicated that when the recommendations to the rules committee are drafted this morning there will be no proposal as drastic as last year's elimination of the center jump. Coaches discussed several possible rule changes informally yesterday afternoon and from this discussion, H. W. Read, of Western State Teachers college, drew up his committee's report for today's session.

Yesterday's discussions centered largely on changes which would make the collegiate code conform to rules under which the National A. A. U. teams played this year. Several coaches thought that officials should handle the ball after field goals have been scored before the team scored upon is permitted to start a counter attack. This serves primarily to permit the defense to drop back ahead of the attack.

Discuss Three Second Rule.

Others brought up the three second rule which prohibits a player of the attacking team with or without the ball from being in the free throw circle for that length of time. Critics of the rule would have the three second rule apply only when the player has the ball. They point out that some teams now use the zone system of defense and pay little attention to the free throw zone. Change in the rule would aid the offense in breaking through a zone defense.

An effort may be made to secure a uniform ball in all sections of the country. A molded ball, rather than one which has stitched seams, has found a degree of support to achieve this purpose.

The coaches also discussed at length block plays and methods of clarifying infractions of the so called "picking off" of guards by offensive players not in possession of the ball. This maneuver is regarded as one of the more frequent causes of fouls.

Plan Big Ten Schedule.

At a meeting of their own last night, Big Ten conference coaches decided on a new schedule plan under which each school will play all other schools each season.

The plan called for each school to meet three other schools, not necessarily natural rivals, in home and home engagements. It would face three of the remaining six schools at home and the other three away. The next year the same three schools again would be met in home and home affairs, but for the six others, the sites would be reversed. Schools played at home the one year would be played away the next year.

It was expected that schedules would be released by Maj. John L. Griffith, Big Ten commissioner, today.

AMERICAN TURF GROUP RE-ELECTS MATT J. WINN

Matt J. Winn was elected president of the American Turf association for the tenth time in as many years at the association's annual meeting here yesterday.

The Lincoln Fields track in Chicago and Latonia and Churchill Downs in Kentucky are the turf properties owned by the association.

Other officers elected were: Vice president, Stuyvesant Peabody of Chicago; secretary-treasurer, Maurice Galvin of Covington, Ky.; directors, Edward P. Fleming, Chicago; Henning Chambers, Louisville; Lawrence Jones and Lawrence Jones Jr., Louisville; A. B. Hancock, Paris, Ky.; Edward J. Hughes, Illinois secretary of state; Samuel Stone, Louisville; Walter H. Girdler, Louisville; C. W. Bidwill, Chicago; Bruce Campbell, East St. Louis; Donald McDonald, Louisville; C. Bruce Head, Louisville, and Winn, Peabody, and Galvin.

FRANK STRAFACI LEADS IN NORTH, SOUTH AMATEUR

Pinehurst, N. C., April 4.—(AP)—Frank Strafaci of New York led a field of 175 players today in the qualifying round of the 38th annual north and south amateur golf tournament with a round of 32—38—70, two under par.

A strong wind made playing conditions difficult, but it required a score of 80 to qualify.

CLASSIC PURSE TO BE RAISED TO $80,000 BY 1940

The Arlington Classic stakes within the next couple years will become approximately an $80,000 special for 3 year olds, it was revealed yesterday by John Hertz, chairman of the executive board of the Arlington Park Jocky club.

The conditions for the 1939 renewal of the Classic as written by Racing Secretary Charles McLennan makes the Classic an early closing event.

Entry Fee $25.

The entry fee will be $25, the same as this year. To remain eligible, cash payments of $100 must be paid on Nov. 15. Supplementary entries may be made on or before April 15 at a cost of $1,500. A starting fee of $500 will also be added to the $30,000 prize given by the Jocky club.

In 1940, to keep a horse eligible for the race, additional payments of $25 for each horse nominated must be paid on Sept. 15, 1939, and one of $100 for each nominee on April 15, 1940. At a cost of $1,500 a horse can be made eligible for the race on April 15. The starting fee again will be $500.

Entries Close June 1.

Entries for the 1938 Classic close June 1. For the 1939 renewal they will close on July 15 of this year at which time the entries for the 1940 race will close.

Arlington Park Jocky club officials believe the 1939 race will be worth at least $65,000 and the 1940 race $80,000.

The Classic this year will carry a prize of $30,000 in added money, but there will be no later payment fees or supplementary entry money added to the prize until next year.

Wally Moses Finally Accepts Mack's Terms

Atlanta, Ga., April 4.—(AP)—The long holdout siege of Wallace Moses, star outfielder of the Philadelphia Athletics, ended today with Connie Mack's announcement that Moses had agreed to terms and would arrive Wednesday from Houston, Tex. Mack did not announce the salary Moses would receive, but it was reported to be $11,000.

ONLY 1 OUT OF 12 MEN can get this SHAVING BARGAIN

The local supply is limited to that quantity. No more can be had. This is the closest thing to a "give-away" price ever offered on these nationally-known products. The object is to actually demonstrate and sample the world's best shave to the men of this city. Get YOURS before they are all gone.

(See Offer Below)

A SPECIAL PLAN TO ADVERTISE THE IDEAL SHAVING COMBINATION!

GENUINE SCHICK INJECTOR RAZOR
Exactly the same famous razor now nationally advertised and sold in the De Luxe Kit (with 20 Blades) for . . . $2.00

8 GENUINE SCHICK BLADES, bathed in oil, in automatic metal Injector with trigger control for changing blades without touching them. No other razor has this patented method for quick, safe blade changing.

LIFEBUOY SHAVING CREAM, GIANT TUBE. Holds 52% more moisture than ordinary lather. Soaks whiskers soft; Soothes skin. Same as now selling for 25¢

ALL THREE FOR 59¢ a strictly limited time, in this vicinity, at the almost "Give-Away" Price of . . .

WHY MORE THAN A MILLION MEN ARE NOW USING THE INJECTOR RAZOR

OLD-STYLE SHAVE . . . The combing "teeth" of this razor guard are not designed to stretch the skin taut enough ahead of the blade edge—and have a tendency to "ridge" the skin surface. Blade can nick the top of ridges, cause bleeding and smarting. And, because whisker bends over as blade strikes it, the razor seems to "pull."

SCHICK INJECTOR SHAVE . . . Designed to flatten and stretch the skin, the Schick guide bar is solid, has no "teeth." Skin is stretched taut, giving a smooth shaving surface. Whiskers are held stiffly upright so blade can cut them cleanly at the skin line. Result: no nicks, no pull . . . even "against the grain."

SOLID GUIDE BAR FLATTENS SKIN

Double-Thick Blades . . . Schick Blades are able to take a sharper edge and hold it. Each blade individually honed, stropped, inspected. More shaves per blade.

Sealed in a bath of oil in a metal cartridge. The blade edges are actually suspended in space; no paper covering which would rub and dull them.

Automatic Blade Change! Give the "trigger" a pull and push—out shoots old blade, in goes a fresh one! Nothing to unwrap, unscrew, twist or reassemble.

A rinse, and it's clean! Save minutes every day. No need to wipe and dry the Schick Injector Razor after every shave . . . a flush under the faucet, and it's ready to put away.

LIFEBUOY SHAVING CREAM
For Toughest Beards—For Tenderest Skins

Lifebuoy's extra moist, soothing lather takes all the "yumph" out of wiry whiskers—because it soaks them soft. Grand for tender skins, too, because it's 20% milder than other leading shaving soaps. There are 120 to 150 smooth, clean, FRESH shaves in the big red tube.

The Best Shaving Cream You Can Buy
Plus the World's Finest Razor
With 8 Blades in Automatic Injector
At the "Give-Away" Price of 59¢

NOTICE TO ALL DEALERS: Any dealer in the Chicago trading area regularly selling shaving preparations or razors may secure this deal by applying to his jobber, to Lever Brothers Company, Cambridge, Massachusetts, or to the Magazine Repeating Razor Company, Bridgeport, Connecticut.

ONLY TOLEDO, BUT BROWNS REACH 15 VICTORIES IN ROW

Come from Behind to Whip Hens, 4-3.

San Antonio, Tex., April 4.—(AP)—The St. Louis Browns fought an uphill battle to whip the Toledo Mud Hens of the American association 4 to 3 today in the fifth game of their exhibition series. The victory extended the Browns' winning streak to fifteen straight.

The Mud Hens took an early 3 to 0 lead off Southpaw Rookie Howard Mills, but the Browns had worked into a tie by the eighth. Harlond Clift then singled in the ninth to drive in George McQuinn with the winning run. Red Kress hit a home run for the Browns.

BEES, 5; DODGERS, 1.

Bradenton, Fla., April 4.—(AP)—Lou Fette, the Boston Bees' 31 year old pitcher who won twenty games as a rookie last season, held the Brooklyn Dodgers to four hits in nine innings today to win, 5 to 1. Two of the hits and a walk produced the Dodger run in the fourth.

Fette, who struck out five and walked four, got excellent batting support from his mates. They made their first four runs off George Jeffcoat, two coming home on Vince Di Maggio's triple in the fourth, and picked up the other off Buck Marrow.

Brooklyn [N. L.]....000 100 000—1 4 0
Boston [N. L.].......002 200 10*—5 9 1

Batteries—Jeffcoat, Marrow and Chervinko; Fette and Mueller.

TIGERS, 5; BUFFALO, 3.

Lakeland, Fla., April 4.—(AP)—With Lynwood [Schoolboy] Rowe pitching the first five innings, the Detroit Tigers defeated Buffalo of the International league, 5 to 3, in an exhibition game today.

Rowe, who was out of action most of last season with an injured pitching arm, was touched for seven hits, walked two, and yielded one run.

Outfielder Chester Laabs of Detroit hit a single, double, and home run to drive in four runs.

ATHLETICS, 10; ATLANTA, 9.

Gainesville, Ga., April 4.—(AP)—The Athletics pushed over a run in the eleventh inning today to beat Atlanta of the Southern association, 10 to 9. It was the A's third straight over the Crackers.

Atlanta tied the score with three runs in the eighth, but the Athletics won out on a base on balls to Mule Haas, Easterling's Texas leaguer, and Hasson's long fly to left.

HOUSTON, 7; YANKS, 6.

Houston, Tex., April 4.—(AP)—The Houston Buffaloes of the Texas league scored four runs off Ivy Paul Andrews in the ninth inning to defeat the world champion New York Yankees, 7 to 6, today.

Andrews, who relieved Spud Chandler in the eighth, gave up five hits and a walk in the final inning. The Yanks made only five hits off Crow and Colosky. The Yanks spotted the Buffs three runs in the first inning, then took the lead in the fifth when they scored three runs on three hits and three walks.

New York [AL]......002 030 010—6 5 1
Houston [TL].......300 000 004—7 10 4

Batteries—Chandler, Andrews, and Glenn; Crow, Colosky, and Turner.

INDIANS, 11; GIANTS, 7.

Austin, Tex., April 4.—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians batted out nineteen hits for an 11 to 7 victory over the New York Giants today. The loss cut New York's margin in the teams' exhibition series to 4 to 3.

Lyn Lary, who made four hits, started the Indians to victory by belting Cliff Melton's first pitch over the left center fence for a home run. The Indians scored four runs in the next inning to take the lead for good.

The Giants hit Denny Galehouse hard after Johnny Allen had held them to six hits and three runs in five innings, but they couldn't overcome the Indians' early lead.

Cleveland [AL].....140 000 312—11 19 3
New York [NL]....100 020 103— 7 14 0

Batteries—Allen, Galehouse, and Pytlak, Helf; Melton, Lohrman, and Danning.

PIRATES WIN AGAIN.

Barstow, Cal., April 4.—(AP)—Manager Pie Traynor played four innings in right field today and hit a double as the Pittsburgh Pirates were winning their eleventh straight game, a 7 to 2 triumph over the Barstow semipro team.

Two errors, doubles by Todd and Lloyd Waner and Paul Waner's triple gave the pirates three runs and the game in the second inning.

Barstow ....000 002 000—2 7 4
Pittsburgh ....031 010 20*—7 12 1

Batteries—Allen, Grogan, Cusick and Snyder; Blanton, Tobin, Sewell and Todd, Berres.

REDS BREAK CAMP.

Tampa, Fla., April 4.—(AP)—Manager Bill McKechnie put the Cincinnati Reds through short sprints today as a farewell exercise before breaking camp for the trip northward. The Reds' first stop will be Savannah, Ga., where they will play the Boston Red Sox tomorrow. Lee Grissom and Gene Schott will pitch.

two down and scored on Walker's double to left.

O'Dea's homer over the right field fence put the Cubs in the scoring column at the start of third but Epperly, Hack, and Lazzeri were easy for Brown.

More Grief for Al.

The Sox continued to bruise Epperly in the third. Kuhel's and Owen's second singles, followed by Schlueter's double, Brown's single, and a belated fielder's choice play gave the Sox three runs. This made the Sox edge at the end of three innings 8 to 1. Epperly still was trying hard in the fourth but the Sox still had no sympathy in their hearts. After the first two batsmen were retired Owen and Schlueter smashed out singles and Berger and Brown followed with doubles. The harvest from this inning was three runs.

Epperly quit at the end of four innings but Brown asked to stay around for six, a longer term than any other Sox or Cub pitcher has labored this spring.

And here's what happened to Brownie in his one inning of lingering: Mesner opened the sixth with a single and Lazzeri drove him home with a homer. Collins flied out but Triplett doubled and scored on Stainback's single. Steinbacher made two fine catches to retire Asbell and Mattick.

Cubs Get Three More.

The Cubs moved up on the Sox with three more runs in the seventh, though they made only two hits, singles by Garbark and Triplett. Dobernic walked three batsmen in a row, then pitched a single, which caused him to be replaced by Zuehls. Walter made Stainback fly to Steinbacher and struck out Asbell.

Collins opened the ninth with a single and Triplett walked. Stainback followed with a single, scoring Collins. Asbell and Mattick flied out, but Garbark walked, filling the bases. Triplett scored and the other runners advanced on a wild pitch. Hartnett was sent up to deliver the pinch single which would have driven in the tying runs, but didn't bother to remove his rubber shirt. He tapped to Landrum for the final out.

Red Wings and Canadiens Leave for European Tour

Kainrath Loses, O'Malley Wins in A. A. U. Tourney

Boston, Mass., April 4.—[Special.]—Frank Kainrath, Chicago's Golden Gloves bantamweight champion for two years, was eliminated in a second round bout as the National A. A. U. boxing tournament opened in Boston Garden tonight. The three round decision was awarded to William Speary of Philadelphia, who was national flyweight champion last year.

Speary boxed as a 112 pounder until two weeks ago. As a member of the New York News team he defeated Kenny Lottman of Chicago in the intercity Golden Gloves show in Madison Square Garden.

O'Malley Wins Twice.

Earlier in the day Kainrath eliminated Chester Ellis of Kansas City, Mo.

Jimmy O'Malley, also of the Chicago Golden Gloves team, qualified for the quarter-finals, which will be held tomorrow night, by defeating Llewellyn Strohlin of Honolulu and James T. Griffin of Lawrence, Mass. Jimmy won both times with ease. Strohlin was knocked down once, and Griffin hit the canvas three times.

Kainrath and Speary fought viciously throughout. Each boy was shaken in the first round, Speary by a jarring left hook and Kainrath by a right cross.

Crowd Boos Decision.

Kainrath was the aggressor in both the second and third rounds, never retreating. Shortly before the end of the second he staggered Speary with a left hook. In the third he again hurt the Philadelphia boy, this time with a right. The crowd hooted at the decision.

Moose Kennedy, Gary, Ind., outpointed John Hanson, Worcester, Mass., in another second round bout.

Crowd of 14,300 Sees Wisconsin Boxing Team Win

Madison, Wis., April 4.—[Special.]—The University of Wisconsin boxing team closed its season unbeaten and untied by defeating Washington State, 5½ to 2½, in the fieldhouse tonight.

A crowd of 14,300, an all-time record for a Badger event indoors, witnessed the fights.

Truman Torgerson, Wisconsin light heavyweight, clinched the match for the Badgers by stopping Tom Tarbox in 1 minute and 2 seconds of the second round. Summaries:

115 POUNDS—Art Walsh, Wisconsin, beat Doug Blessinger, Washington State.

125 POUNDS—Andy Tidrick, Washington State, beat Jim Walsh, Wisconsin.

135 POUNDS—Omar Crocker, Wisconsin, beat Paul Waller, Washington State.

145 POUNDS—Joe Czys, Wisconsin, beat Bob Bates, Washington State.

HEAVYWEIGHT—Elmer Dushek, Wisconsin, drew with George Hubert, Washington State.

P. G. A. DISTRICT GROUP SUSPENDS WALPER 30 DAYS

Baltimore, Md., April 4.—(AP)—Leo Walper, Middle Atlantic Professional Golf association champion, was suspended for thirty days and directed to write a letter of apology to George Jacobus, president of the National P. G. A., at a meeting of the Middle Atlantic pros today.

The action was taken after the officers were read a letter from Jacobus which charged a violation of the code of ethics. The nature of the incident, which occurred in Sarasota, Fla., was not disclosed. The vote of suspension, dating from March 16, was unanimous.

Walper testified in his own defense, and a Washington newspaper man was called into the executive session. Lifting of the ban on April 15 will permit Walper to defend his title and play in the Middle Atlantic open April 22-24.

FOUR COLLEGE STARS TO FACE SPARTA SUNDAY

Four of the leading eastern colleges will be represented in the Brooklyn St. Mary's Celtic lineup, when it meets the Spartas next Sunday in Sparta Stadium for the United States soccer championship.

Syracuse, Penn State, and Worcester Tech are represented by the three McEwan brothers, John, Dave, and Willie, and New York university by Caesar De Rostaing.

John performed with Syracuse, Willie starred for the collegiate champions, Penn State, and Dave did his kicking for Worcester Tech. He still is a student at Tech.

ARON AND DURSO SIGN FOR TEN ROUND BATTLE

Milt Aron and Johnny Durso, Louisville, Ky., junior welterweight, last night signed to meet in a ten round bout in Marigold Gardens next Monday. Lou Laurie, Cleveland flyweight, who represented this country in the 1936 Olympics in Berlin, boxing professionally as a bantamweight, will appear in a supporting match. . . . Remo Fernandez has signed to meet Fritzie Zivic in a ten round headliner in Detroit's Arena Gardens, April 12. . . . Hayden [Young] Stuhley, Kewanee, Ill., middleweight, returned yesterday from Sydney, where he lost a disputed decision to Fred Henneberry, Australian champion. Negotiations have been started for a bout between Jimmy Adamick, Midland, Mich., heavyweight, and Max Marek in International Amphitheater. . . .

The Chicago park board will conduct a meeting this afternoon, presumably to determine whether Soldiers' field is available for the Joe Louis-Max Schmeling title engagement June 22. . . . Andy Scrivani, former Golden Gloves titleholder, has returned from a campaign in California for treatment of his right hand, injured in training for his scheduled contest with Tony Chavez in Hollywood last week. . . . May 6 is available for a boxing show in Chicago Stadium. . . .

Ed Don George, former heavyweight wrestling champion, worked a half hour yesterday in Trafton's gymnasium, twenty minutes with Steve Savage, and ten minutes with George Gastovich, in preparation for his bout with Steve [Crusher] Casey in the Stadium Friday. Gastovich is paired with Bob Gregory in a supporting encounter. Gregory will arrive today from Detroit. Stanislaus Zbyszko, the old champion, also will reach the loop today accompanied by his two protégés, Wladyslaw Talun and Pietro Gobbo, both of whom are also on the card. Zbyszko will engage in a practice bout this afternoon with the giant Talun. Talun faces Jerry Monahan and Gobbo opposes Julius Strongbow. . . . Fred Grubmier is to meet Firpo Wilcox on the Jim McMillen-Rudy Strongbery wrestling program in Rainbow Fronton tomorrow.

Dodgers Sign Pitcher Set Free by Landis

Clearwater, Fla., April 4.—(AP)—M. Dykes Potter, right handed pitcher recently declared a free agent by Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis, today signed a Brooklyn Dodgers contract. The Dodgers were reported to have paid him a $10,000 bonus for signing. Potter, who was on the roster of the Sacramento club until the Landis decision, won eighteen games and lost only six with Cedar Rapids [Ia.], champions of the Western league, last season.

Woods and Waters By Bob Becker

Black bass fishermen who can't wait until June for a whirl at the game fish may take a run down to historic old Reelfoot lake in Tennessee and Kentucky and catch both bass and crappies. [The nonresident license is $2.50.] The season is open down there during the month of April. Weather permitting, it isn't much trouble to catch some nice large mouths on either a fly or bait casting rod.

Reelfoot is over night from Chicago by train. It is a lake about 15 miles long, approximately 5 wide at its broadest point, and has more vegetation in it than any body of water we ever have seen. There are large mouth bass, crappies, dandy bluegills, catfish, and white bass in the lake in addition to rough fish.

On a recent trip to Spilway at the southern end of Reelfoot lake we ran into some interesting fishing methods and lures.

Among the popular bait casting lures were the small darting underwater plugs, pointed plugs, and wobbling semi-surface lures. Although nearly everybody bait casts down there with short steel rods and plugs, fly fishermen may take lots of bass if the weather is not too windy.

Those Tennessee guides, a companionable bunch of good fishermen and casters, had us interested when they trotted out a "go-devil," that they use to catch bass for the market. The "go-devil" is a large metal spinner with a treble hook, tied to about 8 inches of heavy line, and then fastened to the tip of a cane pole.

The boys sit in the prow of a boat, use a paddle with the left hand and handle the pole and go-devil with the right, reaching out around the cypress trees, snags, and old stumps to wiggle the spinner. When the black bass are hitting this funny rig does the trick.

The Reelfoot limit for the sport fisherman is twelve bass per day. Each much be 11 inches in length.

But there is more than the fishing to interest the angler on Reelfoot. The many different kinds of water birds, the big bays or sloughs filled with cypress trees, the acres of "mule foot bonnets," as the Tennessee boys call the yellow pond lily, and the wilderness atmosphere of the shoreline and islands make Reelfoot, the lake created by an earthquake, unusual as a midwest bass fishing spot.

POLO TEAMS TO DECIDE WESTERN TITLE TONIGHT

Ramblers to Face Detroit in Senior Final.

Two titles will be settled in the western indoor polo tournament tonight when the Chicago Ramblers meet Detroit in the senior division, and Fort Sheridan battles the Chicago Shamrocks in the Sherman cup class in the 124th Field Artillery armory.

The winner of the Detroit-Ramblers game will represent the west against the east in the national indoor tournament which starts Saturday night in the Washington Park armory.

More Games Thursday.

The winners of the Fort Sheridan-Shamrocks game will represent the Chicago circuit against Cleveland here in the western Sherman cup final for teams of five goals or less. That contest will be one of two on Thursday night's program.

The Ramblers, consisting of Jim Hannah, Herb Lorber and Steve Hammond are set to give Detroit trouble in this evening's game for the western senior title.

Detroit Is Strengthened.

Detroit has been bolstered by the acquisition of Alfred House, defense man, who will back up Volney Bayley and Bill Boyer.

In Lorber, Hammond, Bayley and House, the rival teams will present players who share with Lieut. Bill Fergus and Dan Peacock the maximum rating for western players, four goals.

Lineups:

FORT SHERIDAN.		SHAMROCKS.
Hutchinson	No. 1	McAnulty
Morris	No. 2	Ireland
Jernigan	Back	Everett
RAMBLERS.		DETROIT.
Hannah	No. 1	Boyer
Hammond	No. 2	Bayley
Lorber [C]	Back	House

*Trade Mark of The American Can Company

It's funny what different ideas folks have about brewing beer. Many salesmen say I'm just a stubborn Dutchman because I won't use "modern" methods of brewing. Because I insist on making Meister Bräu the same, slow way we made it 47 years ago.

But when I talk to folks who drink Meister Bräu, many ask, "How can you make such a good beer at such a reasonable price?"

There are two reasons why. First, because we know how. We've been making Meister Bräu since 1891. And that's a lot of experience.

And, second, by making so much Meister Bräu we enjoy the efficiency and economy of large scale operation. Meister Bräu is now Chicago's largest selling bottled beer.

These economies enable us to pay as much as ⅓ more to get the finest Malt and Hops. Some people may like a beer made with sugars or syrups added. But we insist on an all-grain brew.

Please try this old-time beer made the slow, careful way that brings perfection. It's charged with Natural Draft Beer Carbonation created in the beer itself. Thus it retains the real draft beer flavor.

Ask for Meister Bräu in cans or bottles. That name assures you the true beer flavor.

NBC WILL START NEW SERIES OF HISTORY DRAMAS

First Show to Deal with Pirate Lafitte.

BY LARRY WOLTERS.

An "It" show leaves NBC today and goes to CBS, but another takes over the period it is vacating tonight. Thus at 7:30 p. m. listeners will be hearing, via WLS, "It May Have Happened" instead of the usual "It Can Be Done!" It May Have Happened will feature half hour historical dramas with hypothetical endings.

First one will deal with a legend surrounding Jean Lafitte, the New Orleans pirate. Drama concerns the plot to kidnap Napoleon from St. Helena. There is a story that he actually was brought to Louisiana and lies buried in a forgotten grave somewhere on the outskirts of New Orleans, while the man left at St. Helena in his place now lies in a magnificent tomb in Paris. Burr Cook, who wrote the Harbor Lights series, is the author.

Meanwhile, It Can Be Done with Edgar Guest, Frankie Masters and company to moves to WBBM-CBS at 9 p. m. on Wednesdays. Guest on the first broadcast tomorrow will be M. M. Kinley, who invented the asbestos suit!

From New York comes word that Kay Kyser wasn't very happy about the way his pupils responded on their first show from Radio City last Wednesday.

"Why, in Chicago the audience screams," Kay told New York critics. "We didn't have a good laugh here all evening. If people couldn't answer a question they just said 'I don't know.' There's not much fun in that.

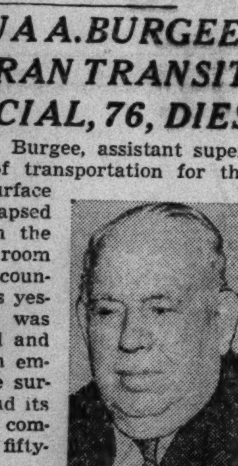
"Why, remember," turning to a Chicago associate, "the time we played Shep Fields' theme and the girl said it was 'Shep Fields and his dripping water.' Another identified a theme as the 'Bull Song from Toreador.'"

If any Chicagoans are visiting New York the next few weeks it ought to be easy to get into his broadcasts. Kay is nostalgic for loop laughs.

Postmaster E. J. Kreutgen will launch Chicago's air mail campaign in a special broadcast over WBBM at 3:15 today when he sends a "Round the World" recording winging westward today. His voice will be recorded on the platter; then it will be flown around the world via Honolulu, Hongkong, London, Berlin, Rio, Havana, with further transcriptions at each stop. The completed record—probably in five or more languages—will be put on WBBM when it gets back here, probably in a month.

JOSHUA A. BURGEE, VETERAN TRANSIT OFFICIAL, 76, DIES

Joshua A. Burgee, assistant superintendent of transportation for the Chicago Surface Lines, collapsed and died in the secretary's room of the city council chambers yesterday. He was 76 years old and had been an employé of the surface lines and its predecessor companies for fifty-two years.



J. A. Burgee.

Mr. Burgee was said to have more intimate knowledge of the company's properties than any other of its 16,500 employés.

For many years he represented the Surface Lines before the city council and earlier had represented the company's interests in Springfield before the legislature.

A year after he came to Chicago from Baltimore in 1885 he returned to his home city and married his boyhood sweetheart. Mrs. Burgee survives him. There were no children.

Funeral services have not been arranged.

CHICAGO RELIEF DEFICIT PLACED AT 14 MILLION

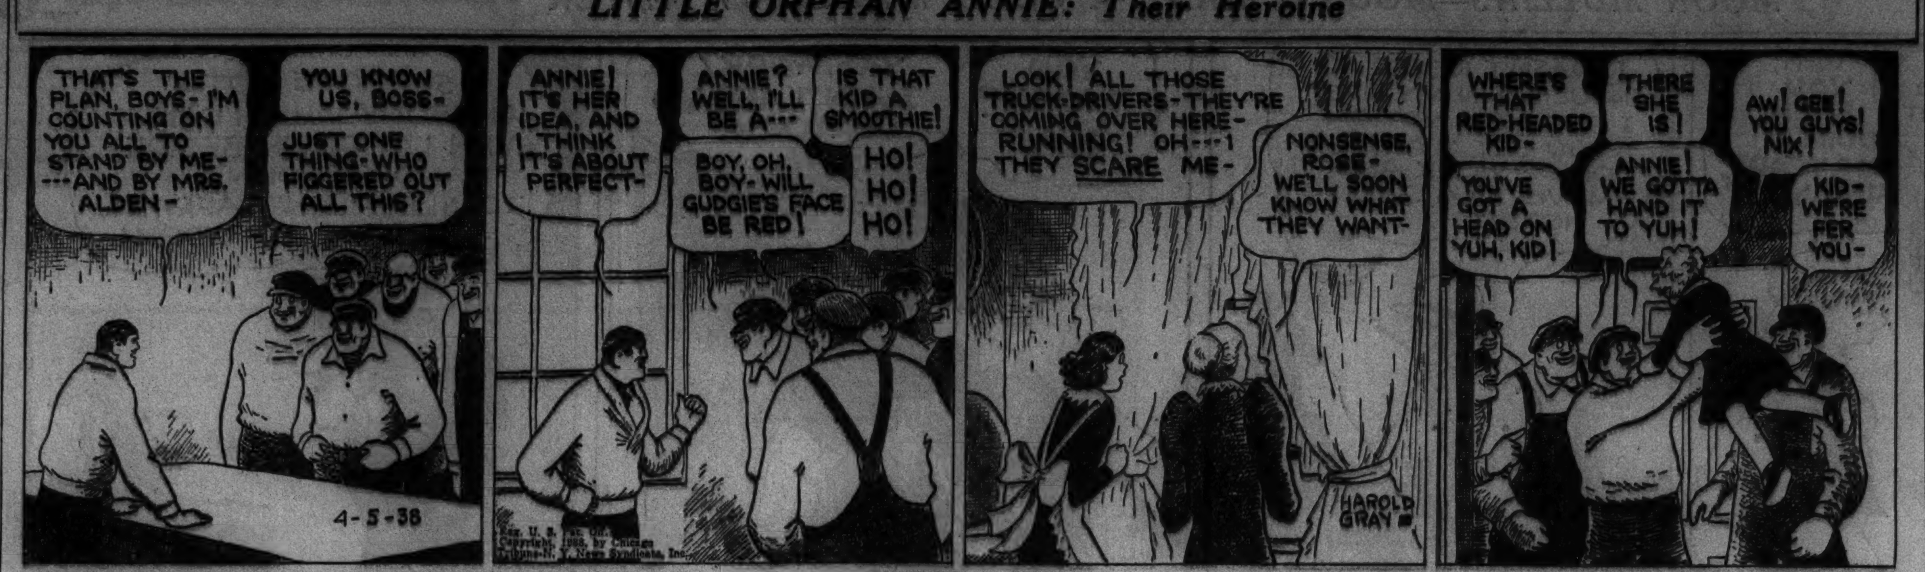
Mayor Kelly's committee on relief was told yesterday that the city's relief fund deficit for the last eight months of this year will be $14,236,612. The report was prepared by a subcommittee headed by Samuel A. Goldsmith, head of the Jewish charities. Goldsmith was requested to call a meeting for today of all interested groups to formulate a legislative relief program.

The amount needed for both relief and its administration has been set at $29,131,612, of which $14,805,000 will be received from state funds. The deficit is the difference between these two amounts. Goldsmith's report said there is no practical possibility of receiving more money from existing local funds until 1939, when a new tax levy can be made.

ROBERT C. ORR, BROKER, DIES AT 49 IN HOSPITAL

Robert C. Orr, investment broker and member of an old Chicago and Evanston family, died unexpectedly yesterday in the Presbyterian hospital. He was 49 years old, and lived at 1244 Stone street. Mr. Orr, a Princeton graduate, served in France with the British Red Cross ambulance service in 1914 and 1915, and later as an ensign with the American naval aviation corps. Since 1920 he had been in the investment business in Chicago. Mr. Orr was a member of the Saddle and Cycle, Tavern, and other clubs. He is survived by his widow, the former Ellen Augur, and two daughters, Ellen Adair and Nancy Eddy Orr. Funeral services will be held in his home at 2:30 p. m. Thursday.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: Their Heroine



THAT'S THE PLAN, BOYS—I'M COUNTING ON YOU ALL TO STAND BY ME—AND BY MRS. ALDEN—

SCIENTISTS PLAN EXAMINATION OF PANDA ANATOMY

A post mortem on the body of Su-Lin, baby giant panda at the Chicago Zoölogical park in Brookfield, which died Friday, was delayed yesterday pending a detailed process of embalming.

As the body is the first complete specimen of a giant panda scientists have ever had, the examination will be more detailed than a post mortem, said Dr. Wilfred H. Osgood, curator of zoölogy at the Field museum, where Su-Lin will go on permanent display. Through it anatomists hope to establish the giant panda's proper place in the animal kingdom.

A thorough examination of its circulatory system also is being made. The venal, arterial, and muscular systems all have been flooded with variously colored pigments. The autopsy cannot be held until these fluids become fixed.

Among the theories advanced for Su-Lin's death, which cannot be substantiated until after the post-mortem, is that it may have arisen from the sudden change in altitudes. The panda's natural habitat, in the western Szechwan province of China, is 15,000 to 20,000 feet above sea level, whereas the Brookfield zoo is some 560 feet above sea level.

Film Writer and His Wife, an Actress, Die in Suicide

Los Angeles, Cal., April 4.—(AP)—The bodies of Roger Henshaw, 42 years old, film writer and former director, his actress wife, Dale Henshaw, and their fox terrier dog were found today in a closed automobile at their North Hollywood home. A piece of garden hose had been attached to the car's exhaust pipe and carried up inside the machine.

LOSING MOTHERS IN 'STORK DERBY' APPEAL RULING

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TORONTO, April 4.—Notices of appeal to the Supreme court of Canada were filed here today by two mothers who were left out in settlement of the $500,000 "Stork Derby." Mrs. Lillian Kenny and Mrs. Pauline Mae Clarke, the mothers, declared through their counsel that they would fight the decision of Justice W. E. Middleton of the Ontario Supreme court, who ordered the residue of the estate of Charles Vance Millar divided among four other mothers.

Mrs. Clarke, like the winning mothers, had borne nine children in the 10 year period following Millar's death but Justice Middleton ruled the legitimacy of five had not been established.

Mrs. Kenny had 10 babies but four were registered as stillborn and not considered in the court's ruling. Mrs. Kenny's notice of appeal declared the justice erred "in holding certain of the plaintif's children were stillborn." She contended all "showed evidence of life at birth."

GOVERNOR TELLS CITIES TO AGREE ON HOUSING PLAN

Illinois municipalities must agree on what changes in existing statutes are necessary to solve the housing problem and show how they expect to assume their share of the cost of a public housing program before the general assembly will be called into special session on the subject, Gov. Horner said yesterday in a letter to Mayor Kelly.

The city council has asked the governor to call a special session for enabling legislation to speed work on the $10,000,000 South Park Gardens project for colored persons which is being delayed pending a 10 per cent contribution by the city as provided in the federal housing act. Mayor Kelly has suggested that the legislature might give the city authority to waive taxes up to the required amount.

LOTUS SEEDS 500 YEARS OLD GROW IN FIELD MUSEUM

Nearly 500 years ago a small lake in Manchuria, covered with red lotus flowers was drained and the lotus seeds became imbedded in the lake bottom, now a peat bed.

Preserved intact through centuries of weathering, changes of water, variations in oxygen supply, and protected from fossilization, a batch of these seeds was uncovered and sent to the Field museum.

Dr. B. E. Dahlgren, chief curator of botany, softened the hard glass-like seed coats with acid and placed them in water. Today they are sprouting. Later in the season the museum expects to exhibit full grown plants.

Edward D. Sullivan, News and Screen Writer, Dies

Hollywood, Cal., April 4.—[Special.]—Edward Dean Sullivan, newspaper man and screen writer, 49 years old, died of a heart attack in his hotel room here today. He worked on newspapers in New York, Boston, and Chicago and was the author of numerous books, including "Rattling the Cup," "Chicago Surrenders," and "Look at Chicago." At the time of his death he was engaged to write two scenarios for the Metro-Goldwyn-Meyer studio. He is survived by his wife, Margaret, who was notified of his death at the Sullivan home in New Haven, Conn.

Woman Dies After Taking Cancer Serum; 11th Death

Orlando, Fla., April 4.—(AP)—Mrs. T. L. Bates of Groveland, who became gravely ill last Friday after receiving injections of a cancer serum, died at a hospital here late tonight. Her death brought to eleven the number of persons who have died since last Tuesday from symptoms doctors said resembled tetanus.

OBITUARIES

P. Sarsfield Dunne.

P. Sarsfield Dunne, brother of the late Gov. Edward F. Dunne, died yesterday in his home, 4931 West End avenue, after an illness of about three months. He was 77 years old. Mr. Dunne was born in Peoria, and came to Chicago in 1875. He was a bailiff under Gov. Horner when the governor was probate judge, and until taken ill was employed in the city prosecutor's office. Surviving are three sons and four daughters. The funeral will be held at 9:30 a. m. Thursday from the home to St. Thomas Aquinas church.

James Carew.

LONDON, April 4.—(AP)—James Carew, veteran American actor and third husband of the late Ellen Terry, died here today. He was 62 years old. Carew was a native of Goshen, Ind., and first appeared on the stage at Chicago's Irving theater in 1897. He came to London in 1905. Returning to the United States, he and Miss Terry were married at Pittsburgh, Pa., on March 22, 1907. They appeared together in a number of productions. He lived in London following his retirement in 1936.

LEWIS SEEKING TO BE DICTATOR, GREEN CHARGES

A. F. L. Head Warns Railway Unions.

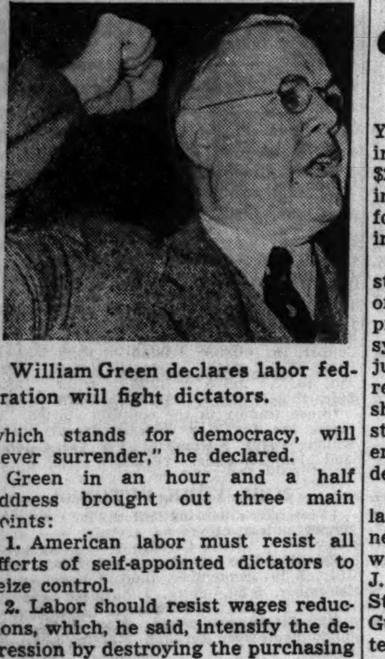
BY PHILIP HAMPSON.

Although not mentioning the C. I. O. leader by name, William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, yesterday denounced John L. Lewis as a man with an unsatisfied thirst for power who wants dictatorial control over labor as well as over the political affairs of the nation. He spoke at the Morrison hotel at the opening session of leaders of railroad unions affiliated with the A. F. of L., who are meeting here to decide what should be done about wages and the railroad problem generally.

"It's an issue between democracy and autocracy—an issue now facing all nations," Green aserted.

Tells Causes of Split.

He outlined to the railroad men the causes which led to Lewis' withdrawal from the A. F. of L. and his setting up of the Committee for Industrial Organization. "But the A. F. of L., which stands for democracy, will never surrender," he declared.



William Green declares labor federation will fight dictators.

Green in an hour and a half address brought out three main points:

1. American labor must resist all efforts of self-appointed dictators to seize control.
2. Labor should resist wages reductions, which, he said, intensify the depression by destroying the purchasing power of the masses.
3. The railroads appear inevitably to be headed toward government ownership.

Green Challenges Autocracy.

"The purpose and aim of the A. F. of L," Green shouted, "is to make men free, to extol democracy, and to preserve democracy at any cost. We are going to preserve America against autocracy and dictators, either in our political or economic life."

He asserted that the 4,000,000 members of the A. F. of L. and their families will stand firm in the protection of democracy in America.

"We shall never surrender to any autocratic force," he asserted. "Let other nations go under the control of dictators, let some labor unions go, but the American Federation never will."

Green told the railroad men that the fight between the A. F. of L. and the C. I. O. was the result of the A. F. of L. insisting on conducting its affairs in the same democratic manner as that which made this nation great.

Recalls Earlier Decisions.

"In 1935," he explained, "the issue of industrial unions was raised at the Atlanta convention—an old issue which has been defeated again and again. We voted down the industrial union by an open vote of two to one, whereupon its supporters withdrew and started to attack us. The minority sought to impose its will on the majority. Do you think we would surrender to that?

"Would a man who would tear our fine labor association asunder be called a friend of labor? I'd place him as the greatest enemy of organized labor in the country."

Green said the A. F. of L. in its annual meetings over a period of more than 50 years has settled its questions in open debate in the American manner. But now there is an individual who would rule all as a dictator.

"This minority wants to set up a rule of force. It wants to make you and me take a dose of force, but we will never do it—never—never—never."

Raises War Chest Issue.

Green demanded to know how it was that the C. I. O. could pile up its huge war chest, including the $1,200,000 collected from the C. I. O. miners in a period of six months, and $200,000 taken from its surplus—more, he said, than was collected by all the 102 unions belonging to the A. F. of L. in six months.

"Behold the C. I. O.," he said, "an organization with no constitution, no reports, no financial statement. It is dominated by one man who was never elected. Did any one ever see a financial statement of the C. I. O.? The dictator of that organization took $1 more from every miner in January, February, and March. And how did he take it? Each dollar was paid over to the C. I. O. by the miner's employer, the payment was not voluntary."

Green said the A. F. of L. has found generally that the industrial union is not fair because it does not take into account differences in skill of workers in the setting up of wage scales. He said the A. F. of L. believes that in certain lines, such as school teachers and women's wearing apparel trades, an all including union is workable, but that generally it is uneconomic.

Discussing the present wage situation, he said industry and management can do a service to the nation by maintaining existing wage levels and, if possible, raising them.

Reserve Traces Gold Flow; Warns of Rising Production

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—The phenomenal gold movement of 1937 is attributed in the annual report of the board of governors of the federal reserve system, made public today, to the nervous traveling of "floating money," sometimes called "hot money."

World gold production during 1937 was estimated at $1,250,000,000, or "considerably more than double the dollar value of the yearly output prior to revaluation of the dollar in 1934," the report said.

Indicating the possible dangers of mounting gold production, the report said new production "is a source of continuing enlargement in reserves of the countries that constitute the chief market for gold."

Credit Expansion Possible.

These countries reserves are further increased to the extent that their central banks acquire foreign exchange despite the fact that "reserves in these and many other countries already appear ample to support a large expansion of credit should the growth of world business require it."

The board's report discussed the capital movement to and from the United States last year as follows:

"By September the decline in American stock prices, which had been interrupted earlier in the summer, had become acute and a recession in business had set in. As the American business outlook became less favorable, the foreign viewpoint on the dollar shifted.

"Private balances began to be withdrawn in the middle of September and when in October the central banks also started to reduce their balances, the United States lost gold. The heavy withdrawal of balances continued throughout the final quarter of the year.

"Played Little Part."

"Security transactions, notwithstanding the drastic character of the stock market decline, played little part in the capital movement. For five weeks beginning with the middle of September there were moderate net sales of American securities by foreigners; thereafter the balance of operations was on the buying side."

The board reported its expenses for 1937 at $1,790,506, not including $2,087,363 expended in connection with the new building occupied during the year. Two assessments were levied during the year against the federal reserve banks in the total amount of $1,748,380, or about one half of one per cent of their average paid-in capital and surplus for the year.

Charge Young Won Rail Rule on Shoe String

New York, April 4.—(AP)—Robert R. Young got control of the Van Sweringen rail properties, once valued at $2,000,000,000, with a personal cash investment of only $254,000, counsel for Guaranty Trust company charged in federal court today.

Young, fighting powerful Wall street banking interests for control of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway, profitable 9,000 mile remnant of the system, is asking a preliminary injunction against Guaranty Trust to restrain it from voting 1,278,000 shares of Chesapeake corporation stock which it holds as trustee. Federal Judge Albert C. Coxe reserved decision until tomorrow.

Young charged Guaranty had violated its trusteeship for reasons connected with its financial relations with General Motors corporation, J. P. Morgan & Co. and Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc. He asked that Guaranty Trust be removed as trustee, and be ordered to give Young voting rights to 710,500 shares of Chesapeake corporation stock.

Emphasizes Small Investment.

Theodore Kiendl, counsel for the bank, emphasized Young's small cash investment by pointing out that General Motors corporation and George A. Ball, Muncie, Ind., glass jar manufacturer, had invested not quite $3,000,000 in bonds of Alleghany corporation, top Van Sweringen holding company, which controls Chesapeake corporation. Chesapeake corporation in turn controls the Chesapeake and Ohio railway.

Kiendl denied to Judge Coxe that Guaranty had violated its trusteeship or was biased. He denied Guaranty was improperly influenced by emoluments it received from General Motors, J. P. Morgan & Co., or Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc.

It was unreasonable, he said to assume that Guaranty would get control of the Chesapeake and Ohio and "wreck" it.

Denies Interest in Fight.

Kiendl said Guaranty was concerned only with its duties as trustee in holding it as collateral for three issues of bonds of Alleghany corporation. Guaranty, Kiendl said, did not care whether Young or his opponents won the present fight.

He contended it was the duty of the bank as trustee to exercise voting rights in the Chesapeake corporation at a special stockholders' meeting called in Baltimore today but postponed until Friday, and said that if permitted to do so Guaranty would vote for three new directors, who would have balance in power on the Chesapeake board, now split between Young and his opponents.

Electric Bond-Share Co. Registers Under U. S. Act

Washington, D. C., April 4.—(AP)—The Electric Bond and Share company, $3,000,000,000 utility holding system which lost in the Supreme court an effort to invalidate the 1935 holding company law, registered today in compliance with the act. The system merely notified the Securities and Exchange commission of its submission to regulation. Officials said this constituted registration.

SANTA FE TO RUN NEW FAST TRAINS BETWEEN CHICAGO AND WICHITA

The Santa Fe railroad on April 17 will place in service two high speed streamlined trains—the Kansas Cityan and the Chicagoan—between Chicago and Wichita, Kas., Samuel T. Bledsoe, president, announced yesterday. The new trains will each be drawn by a 1,800 horsepower Diesel-electric locomotive capable of a speed of 117 miles an hour.

Westbound, the Kansas Cityan will leave Chicago at 9:30 a. m. and arrive at Kansas City at 5 p. m., making the 451 mile run in 7½ hours, or at an average speed of approximately 60 miles an hour. After a 15 minute stop in Kansas City the train will run the 228 miles to Wichita in four hours, an average speed of 57 miles an hour, arriving at 9:15 p. m. Eastbound the train will leave Wichita at 9:45 a. m., leave Kansas City at 1:45 p. m., and arrive in Chicago at 9:30 p. m.

Each train, built of stainless steel, will consist of baggage car, three chair cars, a club-chair car, a dining car and a parlor observation car.

STATE PROPOSES ACTION TO AVERT JOB TAX PENALTY

Relief for employers who face double liability because of failure to pay their 1937 state unemployment compensation tax on time will be sought by the Illinois unemployment compensation division, Samuel C. Bernstein, assistant general counsel of the division, said last night at a meeting of the Illinois Manufacturers' association in the La Salle hotel.

He said a "substantial number" of the more than 3,500 employers who were granted extensions to March 31 had been unable to meet the state tax of 1.8 per cent on 1937 pay rolls by that date, and had lost the right to the credit offset of 90 per cent on the 2 per cent federal tax on pay rolls. The result is that these employers are now liable for a total tax of 3.8 per cent on 1937 pay rolls.

Bernstein said the state division plans to seek congressional action to exempt from the double tax the employers who could not pay by March 31.

Brazil Fails to Provide Bond Interest Payment

New York, April 4.—[Special.]—The Brazilian government has not remitted funds sufficient for the payment of the interest coupons due April 1, 1938, on its 5 per cent 20 year bonds of 1931, Dillon, Read & Co., paying agents for the loan, said today. Payment of the coupons will not be made at this time, it was declared.

AM. TELEPHONE RINGS BELL IN MIXED MARKET

Up 5½; List's Gains Outweigh Losses.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 4.—Despite considerable irregularity, stock market prices averaged slightly higher today, with strength in rails and utilities offsetting reactionary tendencies in the industrial issues. At the close there were 441 advances and 168 declines, while 149 held unchanged. Sales fell to 603,850 shares.

A spectacular performer was American Telephone & Telegraph, which spurted 5½ points to 122½. This behavior was traced by observers to a fair amount of short covering plus some accumulated buying in the stock by those who believed it had touched the bottom of the declining movement, at least for the time being.

Most Changes Are Small.

Although price changes were small in most instances, a long list of carrier shares advanced on support said by observers to be based on the possibility of government subsidization of the industry. This possibility was linked with reports that satisfactory progress was being made between railroad executives and President Roosevelt at a conference looking toward helping the roads out of their financial difficulties. Union Pacific ran up 3¾ points.

Some selling at the opening, reputedly based on profit taking following the rises of Friday and Saturday, made for weakness all along the line in early trading and prices retreated fractions to 1 point or so.

However, the selling was absorbed in good style and prices moved back to previous levels, only to meet resistance in the afternoon when enthusiasm chilled on publication of the forecast of a drop in steel operations.

Steel Shares Weaken.

Steel shares lost up to 2⅛ points, with United States Steel common and Bethlehem the hardest hit. Republic, Youngstown, Crucible, and National dipped fractions.

Oil shares were relatively strong, Socony-Vacuum, Standard of New Jersey, and Texas corporation all closing higher. Shell Union was weak, however, slumping 1⅜ points.

Motors followed the steels into lower territory, with Chrysler coming up, losing 1½ points. Kennecott and International Nickel were soft spots in the nonferrous metals group, both dropping more than 1 point, while American Smelting and Anaconda kept their losses to fractions.

VALUE OF ALL STOCKS ON N. Y. EXCHANGE IS LOWEST SINCE 1933

New York, April 4.—(AP)—The aggregate quoted value of all stocks listed on the New York Stock exchange on April 1 stood at the lowest level since May 1, 1933, the exchange reported today in its monthly tabulation. The 1,254 listed stocks aggregating 1,427,320,000 shares had a market value April 1 of $31,858,000,000, or $22.32 a share.

This compared with a total value a month earlier of $41,173,000,000, or $28.94 a share, and $62,618,000,000—$45.56 a share—at the recovery peak last March 1.

Treasury Sells $100,000,000 of Bills at 0.139 Per Cent

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—Approximately $100,000,000 of ninety-one day bills sold by the treasury today brought an average price of 99.965, equivalent to borrowing money at 0.139 per cent, compared with 99.978, or 0.087 per cent, for the bills of the same series sold last week, the treasury announced tonight.

STEEL OUTPUT SLIDES AFTER MARCH UPTURN

Operations in the steel industry have slipped back to 32.6 per cent of capacity this week, according to an estimate made public yesterday by the American Iron and Steel institute. This week's rate represents a decrease of 3.1 points, or 8.7 per cent, from last week's operations at 35.7 per cent of capacity.

The drop this week is the first in more than a month, the operating rate previously having risen for four successive weeks from 29.3 per cent at the end of February to reach the best level since the middle of last November.

The decline scheduled this week is the largest since the last week of 1937, at the end of the record breaking drop from 80.4 per cent in the middle of September.

Commonwealth Edison's Annual Meeting Today

Stockholders of the Commonwealth Edison company will hold their annual meeting at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in the newly completed Edison assembly hall in the Marquette building, 140 South Dearborn street. Stockholders of record at the close of business March 25 will be entitled to vote, the company said yesterday.

WALGREEN COMPANY'S COMMON DIVIDEND CUT TO 25 CENTS A SHARE

Walgreen company yesterday ordered a reduction of its May 1 common dividend to 25 cents a share. The company had paid 50 cents quarterly since Feb. 1, 1936, continuing the rate after a 50 per cent stock dividend in March, 1937, although earnings did not cover dividends on the increased number of shares.

Earnings were equal to $1.87 a common share in the fiscal year ended last Sept. 30. Last December the company said that earnings were adversely affected by costs of the expansion and improvement program, and that these costs also would affect earnings in the six months ended last March 31. It added that the program would be largely completed at the end of 1937.

The regular Walgreen quarterly preferred dividend of $1.12½ was voted.

Dividends declared yesterday, with rate, period, and payment and record dates, follow:

Archer-Dan-Midl pf, $1.75 q	May 2	Apr. 20
Consol Royalty Oil, 5c q	Apr. 25	Apr. 15
S. H. Kress, 40c q	May 2	Apr. 11
Milw El R&L pf, $1.50 q	Apr. 30	Apr. 15
Munising Pap 1st p, 25c q	May 1	Apr. 15
Walgreen, 25c	May 1	Apr. 15
Do pfd, $1.25 q	June 15	May 25
Warren Fndry & Pipe, 50c q	May 2	Apr. 15

The letter "q" in the table refers to regular quarterly dividend payments.

TAYLOR LEAVES STEEL'S HELM; REVIEWS WORK

Hands Over His Post to Stettinius.

Hoboken, N. J., April 4.—(AP)—A decade long career in steel, more than half of it as America's No. 1 industrial executive, ended today for Myron C. Taylor, retiring chairman of United States Steel corporation, at an annual meeting. At this meeting shareholders approved plans to simplify capital structure to pave the way for financing possible large scale capital needs.

E. R. Stettinius Jr. takes command.

Taylor, the lawyer turned steelmaster, handed over the reins as chief executive to the much younger but gray haired Edward R. Stettinius Jr., chairman of the finance committee who tomorrow will become chairman of the board. Taylor is 64 years old and Stettinius is 37.

Taylor Expresses Confidence.

When Taylor took his leave he sounded a confident note on the future of the corporation and of the country. To the gathering of shareholders estimated at a record figure of 500 that jammed the meeting room and overflowed into the narrow corridors of the corporate "home" of "big steel" in a dingy bank building in the shadow of the great trans-Atlantic docks here, Taylor said:

"The affairs of the corporation cannot be considered apart from the affairs of the nation, but I have no doubt whatever of the ultimate future of both the nation and the corporation."

Tracing a ten year story of his connection with the industry which saw the corporation pass through the worst and best years of its history, Taylor singled out one of his most controversial acts, the signing of a labor contract with a C. I. O. affiliate, to give it his implied approval.

"The union," he said, "has scrupu-

HIS FIRST ALLOWANCE

HE MIGHT HAVE spent that silver dollar for one of the myriad things that excited the fancy of nine-year-old lads in 1893. But no. He preferred to own an account in the newly opened Savings Department of the fledgling Northern Trust Company.

As the years have gone by, thrift has helped that youthful savings depositor win his way to a prominent position in our community. And at The Northern Trust Company savings have progressively played a more important part. Today, for example, savings deposits at this institution have reached a figure five times the substantial total of eight years ago. In every other financial and fiduciary field also this institution has steadily grown into the life of Chicago. And now, as in the nineties, the sound principles established by the founders still serve to endow customer relationships at The Northern Trust Company with a warm feeling of mutual confidence.

The complete, modern facilities of The Northern Trust Company include the Savings Department, the Banking Department for commercial and personal checking accounts, the Trust Department, and the Bond Department. Also available is the protection offered by The Northern Trust Safe Deposit Company.

Stocks, Bonds

New York Bonds.

New York, April 4.—(AP)—For the third consecutive day the bond market continued its rise, showing at today's close advances in all except the foreign dollar groups. Secondary rails, which led the previous decline, were the leaders again on the rise.

United States treasury issues closed strong after earlier weakness, with gains ranging up to 5-16, although a few issues finished lower. Heading the rail ascension were Southern Railway 6½s, up 5⅝, and 4s, up 3⅞; New York Central 5s and 4½s, up respectively 4⅛ and 3½, and International Telephone 5s of '52, up 4 points.

A few issues not recently active came forth on the rising market to take sharp drops from previous levels. Among these were Gulf, Mobile and Northern 5½s, down 26 at 55; Pittsburgh, Chicago, Cincinnati, and St. Louis 4½s, down 8¾ at 107¼; Atlanta and Danville 2d 4s, down 5 at 15, and Southern Railway 4s Mobile and Ohio, down 3 at 59.

Chicago Stocks.

Chicago stocks edged upward yesterday in a quiet trading session during which 23,000 shares changed hands, compared with 27,000 Friday. Of the 77 issues traded, 50 advanced, 14 declined, and 13 were unchanged. Most gains were fractional, with trading in a narrow range.

The Tribune average of 20 stocks advanced to 7.98, compared with 7.78 at the close Saturday.

Volume leaders moved irregularly. Chicago Corporation, the trading favorite, closed unchanged. Middle West advanced ⅛, and Bliss and Laughlin climbed 1⅛. Commonwealth Edison and General Household fell ⅛ each. Cities Service was unchanged.

Bank Stocks.

First National bank stock recovered another $2 a share yesterday, at $165 bid, $169 asked. Continental Illinois National edged up 25 cents a share to $53.50 bid, $55.50 asked. Northern Trust company stock recovered $5 a share to $485 bid, $495 asked. Chicago Title and Trust company stock recovered $3 a share, being quoted at $106 bid, $110 asked. Other Chicago bank stocks were unchanged from Saturday.

AIR LINE'S TRAFIC GAINS.

American Airlines, Inc., carried 18,913 passengers in the first 26 days of March, an increase of 9.5 per cent over the 17,272 passenger total in the corresponding period a year ago, Vice President Charles A. Rheinstrom reported. In the first 26 days of February, 16,161 passengers were carried.

COTTON

Foreigners were on the selling side of cotton futures trading in American markets yesterday, and prices at one time showed a decline of nearly .20 cent a pound, or $1 a bale. The trade bought on the way down, and when pressure let up a moderate rally followed. Closing trades on the Chicago Board of Trade were at net loses sof .05 to .11 cent and other markets declined .06 to .11 cent a pound.

Spot cotton closed .05 to .10 cent lower, with New Orleans, 8.80 cents; New York, 8.65 cents, and Galveston and Houston, 8.40 cents a pound. Prices follow:

Commodities

Commodity futures, led by rubber and hides, reversed their advances of late last week, and moved lower yesterday. Renewed pressure on rubber contracts sent them down 0.14 to 0.18 cent a pound, with the May option closing at 11.22 cents. Hides finished 0.15 to 0.18 cent a pound lower.

Further declines were made by cash commodities. The Associated Press index of 35 weighted wholesale commodities fell to 68.20, the lowest point since October, 1934. On Saturday, it stood at 68.55 [1926 equals 100].

The domestic offering price of zinc was reduced yesterday by leading sellers 0.10 cent a pound to 4.15 cents, but little business was transacted at the lower price, according to trade reports. The spot price of export copper held steady within a range of 9.53 to 9.70 cents. Domestic copper, and lead prices were unchanged.

Metal futures were unchanged to lower. Copper contracts closed steady to 0.07 cent lower, zinc and lead futures were unchanged, and tin dropped 0.30 cent a pound.

Butter futures, influenced by weakness in the cash market for under grades, dropped ⅛ to ⅝ cent a pound yesterday on the Chicago Mercantile exchange. The November contract fell ⅝ cent to a new low for the season of 27⅛ cents, and April fresh standards closed at the season's low of 26⅝ cents.

In the cash butter market grades under 92 score lacked the support of government purchases and fell ¼ to 1½ cents a pound. The Federal Surplus Commodities corporation took 70,000 pounds of 92 score "extras" in the Chicago market at 29 cents, but bought no standards [90 score] or lower grades. Traders, observing that the FSCC did not take all offerings of extras, predicted the government may soon let top grade quotations fall to lower levels.

CANADIAN MINING FIRM DOUBLES PROFITS IN 1937

Masonite Earning Less Since Autumn.

The Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada, Ltd., yesterday reported net profit of $14,669,663 for 1937, compared with $6,953,158 in 1936. Net profit was computed after deductions for depreciation, depletion, and taxes, and was equivalent to $4.49 a share compared with $2.13 a share in 1936.

The Masonite corporation, maker of building materials with headquarters in Chicago, had a drop of 28.9 per cent in earnings for first 28 weeks of the current fiscal year, compared with the preceding year's results, Ben Alexander, president, announced yesterday.

In the 28 weeks to March 12, Masonite's net profit amounted to $551,938, equal after preferred dividends to 93 cents a common share. This compared with net of $776,031, or $1.33 a share, a year ago.

Parmelee Earnings Lower.

The Parmelee Transportation corporation and subsidiaries yesterday reported for 1937 net income of $248,599, or 34 cents a share, compared with $342,170, or 47 cents a share, in the preceding year.

A moderate gain in earnings for the quarter and six months to Feb. 28 was reported yesterday by Hiram Walker Gooderham & Worts, Ltd. The company for the quarter to Feb. 28 had net profit of $1,672,342, or $2.15 a common share, compared with $1,658,578, or $2.14 a share, in the corresponding quarter of the preceding year. In the six months to Feb. 28, profit amounted to $3,923,338, or $5.10 a share, against $3,546,548, or $4,59 a share, in the like six months of the preceding year.

Consolidated net loss of $437,327 was reported yesterday by the Aviation corporation for the fiscal year ended Nov. 30, 1937. This compared with net profit in the 11 months ended Nov. 30, 1936, of $104,016, or 4 cents a common share.

Togged Up—in Wood

George Gibson, whose suit, tie, and shirt are made of wood pulp fabric, examining piece of pulp similar to that from which clothing was made.

A suit of clothes made of wood pulp was shown yesterday at the luncheon meeting of the Salesmen's Association of the Paper Industry at the Hotel Sherman by George Gibson, Chicago representative of the Mosinee Paper Mills company, Mosinee, Wis. Gibson's shirt, tie, socks, and underclothing also were made of wood pulp fabrics, imported from Germany where the fabric is known as zellwolle, and is being used as a substitute for cotton, which must be imported.

Gibson said this use of wood pulp for cloth making presents a great new field that has only been partly explored in this country by the rayon industry. The perfection of heavier fabrics suitable for men's street and business suits made of wood pulp points the way to new fields for the pulp industry, he said.

NEW ROCK ISLAND PLAN EXPECTED BEFORE JUNE 28

A plan of reorganization for the Rock Island railroad will be submitted to the interstate commerce commission by representatives of bondholders before June 28, J. E. Gorman, trustee and long president of the road, said yesterday in a letter to stockholders.

"The company's reorganization plan still is pending before the I. C. C., which has had extensive hearings on it," he said. "At the request of certain bondholders, further hearing has been postponed until June 28. It is expected that prior to that time a new plan will be filed by representatives of bondholders which will embody the results of studies now in progress by the trustees and by various committees."

ASK DISMISSAL OF SUIT TO BAR LONDON LLOYD'S

A motion for dismissal of proceedings attacking the right of Underwriters at Lloyd's, London, to do business in Illinois was filed yesterday in Circuit court of Sangamon county in Springfield by the law firms of Graham and Graham, and of Lord, Lloyd and Bissell.

Hearing on the motion to dismiss will be held before Circuit Judge Victor H. Hemphill on April 8. The case arises from issuance of a license to Lloyd's by Director of Insurance Ernest Palmer last Dec. 28. A number of American casualty and surety companies contend the license was issued in violation of the new Illinois insurance code which went into effect last July 1.

Day By Day Story of the Experimental Farms

By Bob Becker

Spring On the Farm.

April 4, 1938.

EVERYWHERE on the farm spring is unfurling her banners. It makes little difference whether you look in the woods, where many kinds of trees are responding to the magic touch of the season . . . along the hedgerows with their wild crabapple and cherry trees . . . or in the fields where there has been a slow but steady freshening of the grass. Everywhere are varying shades of green that mean spring.

Walking over the farm you have the feeling that although there may be crisp nights ahead, no caprice of the weatherman can stay the force which comes with the new season. When we examined some of the trees and their green finery we found the black willow giving more than its share of color to the landscape. The willow has brought out both its catkins and leaves. The delicate catkins are now more than an inch long.

Elders Advanced.

The soft maples have passed the flowering stage and now their leaf buds are bursting, which gives them a decided green tint. The box elders [members of the maple family] are even farther ahead than their relatives, with leaf buds well open. The wild crab trees, abundant in many corners of the farm, also demand attention in the spring sun. Yesterday we found many wild crab trees with flower buds visible. The hawthorns, which soon will be loaded with thousands of blossoms, are unfolding their leaves.

But as is always the case at this time of the year, there are laggards among the trees . . . species that never seem in a hurry to develop their flowers and their leaf buds. Yesterday we couldn't help but notice that the hickory nut trees seem lifeless in comparison with wild crabs, willows, and others. The hard maples are also far behind the parade of color that is marching through the woods.

The oaks have done but little better than the hickories, as they are just beginning to show their buds. The ash trees are no laggards, however. They are opening flower buds and the balls of dark purple stamens are scattered along the thick twigs.

This Tree Gets Break.

A young horse chestnut tree is attracting considerable attention. This sapling, standing in a sheltered place near one of the farm homes, gets plenty of sunshine and no competition from other plants, whereas the thousands of trees in the woods have a struggle to get adequate sunshine and rain. This favored horse chestnut plainly shows the result of the location, for it is far ahead of other trees of the same species.

We noticed yesterday that its buds have burst, exhibiting large bud scales and a cluster of folded leaves which project more than three inches out of the softened bud. On the other hand, two older horse chestnut trees in the woods [not far from the young specimen] have their winter buds intact. It looks as if it will take at least a week of favorable April weather before they open.

WHEAT, OATS, RYE SINK TO LOWEST LEVEL OF SEASON

Export Demand Dull; Crop Outlook Improves.

General liquidation developed in the grain futures market yesterday with all deliveries of wheat, oats, and rye selling at new low prices for the season. July wheat touched 79⅛ cents, the lowest level quoted for any delivery since July, 1935.

At no time did the markets show a pronounced disposition to rally. Closing trades on wheat futures were at net losses of 1¼ to 2 cents. Oats were 1⅛ to 1⅝ cents lower and rye was as much as 3⅛ cents a bushel lower. Corn weakened in sympathy with other grains and on heavy hedging sales, and finished at losses of 1 to 1½ cents.

Export Demand Is Lacking.

Lack of export demand and continued optimistic reports regarding the outlook for the new winter wheat crop were largely responsible for the decline in that grain. The break disclosed a lack of speculative support and numerous stop loss orders were uncovered as prices declined. Reports from Chicago crop experts who were touring the southwest indicated little or no damage to the wheat crop as the result of freezing weather.

Foreign wheat markets were affected by the recession in prices in North America. Liverpool closed 2⅜ to 2⅞ cents lower, with all deliveries in new low ground for the season, and a similar situation prevailed in the Buenos Aires, Argentina, market.

Inquiry for New Crop Wheat.

There were no indications of export business in American hard winter wheat. There were intimations of inquiries for new crop wheat at gulf ports, but no sales could be confirmed.

Based on the prices prevailing for the July delivery in Chicago yesterday it was estimated No. 2 red winter wheat could have been shipped from Chicago and delivered at continental European ports for slightly less than $1 a bushel. Brokers figured that Kansas farmers are now confronted with the prospect of about 62½ cents a bushel for new wheat.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK

Weakness ruled the markets for hogs and lambs yesterday, but cattle recovered some from the recent slump.

Light receipts eased the pressure on cattle prices. The bulk of medium to good steers was mostly steady to strong.

Lambs were hit by a 25 cent break. Cutout losses to packers in hogs resulted in an extremely unsatisfactory trade despite light receipts. Opening steady, the market weakened mostly 10 cents.

[All prices are in dollars per 100 pounds.]

GRAIN FIRM HELD LIABLE ON BANK EMBEZZLER LOSS

Former Chicago Pit House Fails to Win Review.

Washington, D. C., April 4.—[Special.]—Efforts of the Burke Grain company, a former member of the Chicago Board of Trade, to escape paying a $25,000 judgment to the St. Paul Mercury Indemnity company failed today when the Supreme court refused to review the decision of a lower court granting the judgment.

The grain company had petitioned for a review of the decision of the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals, which held that the indemnity firm was entitled to recover from the Burke company the amount of a bond it paid to cover alleged defalcations of J. C. Vandagrift, president of the Union Savings bank of Sioux Falls, S. D.

Embezzled Bank's Funds.

Vandagrift was found by the court to have embezzled $96,000 of the bank's funds, lost in grain transactions with the Burke firm, and the lower court held that the indemnity firm was entitled to recover the bond money from the grain company on the ground that Vandagrift had engaged in gambling through it.

Stephen A. Burke, president of the grain company, was suspended from the Chicago Board of Trade on March 29 for violation of several of that organization's by-laws. He had been a member since 1921. It was understood that Burke had neglected to segregate the firm's and customers' money, as provided by the Commodity Exchange act, causing losses to clients when the company suspended.

Railway Labor Act Decision.

Upholding a ruling of a three-judge federal court that it lacked jurisdiction in the matter, the Supreme court also refused to review a finding by the interstate commerce commission that the Chicago, South Shore and South Bend railroad is subject to provisions of the Railway Labor act. The lower court had ruled that the determination of the I. C. C. was not an order which the lower court, under terms of the urgent deficiencies act, had jurisdiction to enjoin, set aside, or suspend.

WHITNEY'S FIRM TO RETURN PART OF CLUB'S BONDS

New York, April 4.—(AP)—The receiver for Richard Whitney & Co., the bankrupt Wall street house, was directed today to return to the New York Yacht club securities valued at $18,300, the remainder of a lot valued at $128,300 entrusted to the broker.

Whitney, who was treasurer of the club, had pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny resulting from his pledging of about $109,000 of the securities for a loan. The order for the return of unpledged securities was signed by Irwin Kurtz, referee in bankruptcy.

Business Bits

A number of promotions and organization changes were announced yesterday by Clarence Francis, president of General Foods corporation. Among these were Henry Sandberg, assistant sales manager at headquarters, was named central sales manager, his territory including Chicago; P. W. Swan, superintendent of Calumet Baking Powder division, Chicago, was transferred to New York as assistant to Udell C. Young, vice president in charge of manufacturing and transportation; J. J. Thayer, western development engineer at Chicago was made general development engineer with headquarters at Battle Creek.

Thomas E. Wilson, chairman of the board of Wilson & Co., will speak before the meeting of Associated Food Dealers of Chicago at 8 o'clock tonight in Lincoln Turner hall. The association was organized to formulate and put in practice improved methods of retail food merchandising. W. J. Malone is president and Paul Grant will be chairman of tonight's meeting.

H. Lodge Robertson, writer and lecturer on the graphic arts and one of the founders of the Society of Typographical Arts, Chicago, has been appointed western manager of Designers for Industry, Inc., industrial designers and product stylists. Charles H. Oppenheimer, Cleveland, president, said Robertson's headquarters will be in the Merchandise Mart, where he also will be western public relations representative of the organization.

Packing Firm Closes Down Hog Killing Department

The Illinois Meat company, 3939 South Wallace street, yesterday shut down its hog killing department for an indefinite period, due to the present scarcity of hogs and the low prices for pork, officials announced. The action will throw about 100 men temporarily out of work.

SALES OF AUTOS GAIN FOR MARCH IN COOK COUNTY

Best Since September, but Below Year Ago.

New car registrations in Cook county during March increased sharply over February, but were 45 per cent fewer than in March, 1937, according to figures released yesterday by the Bureau of Motor Advice. The total for March was 7,311, highest for any month since last September, when 7,545 cars were registered. Registrations in February totaled 4,355 and in March of last year 13,350.

For the first quarter of 1938 registrations totaled 18,770, a drop of 47 per cent from the first three months of 1937, when the total was 35,100.

Chevrolet in First Place.

Chevrolet, which held second place in February, moved into first position in March, displacing Ford, which dropped to second. Chevrolet sales in March totaled 1,502, against 789 in February and 1,743 in March, 1937. Ford had sales of 1,163 units in March, compared with 820 in February and 2,436 in March of last year.

There were no other changes in position among the first nine makes of cars from February to March, this year. Plymouth held third with sales of 903 units in March, against 488 in the preceding month and 1,892 in March, 1937.

Nash-Lafayette Advances.

Nash-Lafayette advanced from twelfth place in February to tenth in March. Sales last month were 185, compared with 103 in February. Chrysler fell from tenth to eleventh, and Studebaker from eleventh to twelfth.

A comparison of March sales with February, 1938, and with March, 1937, follows:

Passenger Trafic Gains at Municipal Airport

Although the number of planes operating in and out of the municipal airport was approximately 5 per cent fewer in the first thre months of 1938 than in the corresponding period of 1937, the number of passengers showed an approximate increase of 34.4 per cent, Commissioner of Public Works Oscar E. Hewitt announced yesterday.

Important Announcement to Employers

introduces the
DISCOVERY BOND

BEGINNING TODAY, APRIL 5th, a new and improved form of Fidelity Protection—created to solve many major insurance problems of employers and to afford a broad and effective medium of protection for those now without employee dishonesty insurance—will be written by the American Surety Company and its affiliate, New York Casualty Company.

It is fittingly called the DISCOVERY BOND because it brings payment for losses discovered while it is in force. It provides protection not only against the future dishonesty of bonded employees, but also against past acts of dishonesty not yet discovered, even though the employee was not bonded at the time of default.

Moreover, when the amount of bond is increased, the increase, too, applies over the past.

Also, as long as the Discovery Bond is in force, it will continuously shield the employer, no matter when the defaulting employee may have left his service.

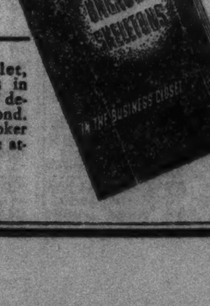
Broad in scope, the Discovery Bond even gives the right to discover, during its life, certain losses caused by employees who have left the service before the bond becomes effective.

This unique coverage can be obtained only from the undersigned companies. It entails no additional cost.

Any of our 12,000 local representatives throughout the country will gladly explain its special advantages in terms of your own requirements.

EMPLOYERS NOW WITHOUT FIDELITY PROTECTION will find in the Discovery Bond the only method available to obtain protection against past as well as future employee dishonesty.

The Bond will rid them of their nervous worry about hidden embezzlements .... Unknown Skeletons in the business closet.



The attractive booklet, "Unknown Skeletons in the Business Closet" describes the Discovery Bond. Ask your agent or broker for a copy or use the attached coupon.

OIL COMPANIES DRIVE TO REGAIN MEXICAN PLANTS

Invoke Court to Nullify Seizure Decree.

MEXICO CITY, April 4.—(AP)—The foreign petroleum industry today launched the first legal effort of a three way drive to recover its $400,000,000 properties expropriated by the government.

The seventeen American and British companies opened their fight by petitioning the District court for an injunction against enforcement of President Lazaro Cardenas' March 19 expropriation decree.

Officials of the companies said their next steps would follow tomorrow. These would include an appeal to the District court against termination of labor contracts with their 18,000 workers and a request to the department of national economy for administrative revocation of Cardenas' decree.

Charge Violation of Law.

The oil companies asked for the injunction today on grounds that the presidential action violated article 27 of Mexico's constitution. That article provides for expropriation only of lands and waters in the advancement of the nation's "Mexico for Mexicans" program. The companies contended their tools, plants, and equipment were seized.

Attorneys for the companies decided to follow the usual procedure of initiating action in the lower court instead of appealing directly to the Supreme court, as they originally planned. It was considered unlikely the lower court would grant the injunction. In that case the companies were expected to appeal to the highest tribunal.

Seek Markets for Oil.

The government, meanwhile, went ahead with a canvass of the world market to find an outlet for the nation's huge stores of petroleum. Vicente Cortes Herrera, administrator of the industry, announced last week's operations left a cash surplus of 500,000 pesos.

The oil workers' union said it was prepared to contribute 100,000 pesos to the government to apply to indemnification of the expropriated companies. The union added its members were willing to contribute a day's pay each month "as long as needed."

Union Carbide and Carbon.

Investors' Guide: Please report on Union Carbide and Carbon corporation.—T. F. V.

Answer: The Union Carbide and Carbon corporation is a leader in a growing field, the manufacture of chemicals. Its products are divided into four main divisions. They are: [1] alloys and metals; [2] calcium carbide and gases; [3] electrodes, carbons, and batteries, and [4] synthetic organic chemicals.

Some of the products of the alloys and metals group are used primarily in the iron, steel, and metal working industries, but others are finished products for consumer use. Products of the calcium carbide and gases group, used principally for welding and cutting of metals, include oxygen, calcium carbide, dissolved acetylene, and many types of automatic and hand-operated equipment for use of the gases.

Products of the electrodes, carbons, and batteries group have a wide variety of consumer and industrial uses. In this group are batteries distributed under the name "Everready." Carbon and graphite electrodes for use in electric furnaces are important items in the company's sales volume.

The synthetic organic chemicals group includes alcohols, acids, anhydrides, ethers, and many articles for which the demand has been growing. Acetic anhydride is an essential raw material in the manufacture of cellulose acetate rayon, photographic film, and plastics.

The company has followed the policy of increasing its productive facilities from earnings as demand for its products increase. In 1937 capital expenditures for construction totaled $34,124,182.

Net income for the final quarter of 1937 declined to $4,552,987 from $6,331,731 in the corresponding 1936 period. As a result of higher earnings earlier in the year, net income for all of 1937 rose to an all time high of $42,782,128, or $4.75 a capital share, from the previous all time high of $36,852,208, or $4.09 a share, in 1936. The company had 9,000,743 shares of no par capital stock outstanding at the end of 1937, compared with 8,903,138 a year earlier.

Net income in 1932 was $8,781,426, or 98 cents a share, and in 1929 net income was $35,427,024, or $3.94 a share.

The company is paying dividends at the rate of $3.20 a share annually. Current assets were $89,404,833 and current liabilities were $25,692,998. Total assets were $371,281,763.

A Circulation Guide to the Best Markets

BEFORE securities or investment services are advertised it is important to consider what medium, more than any other, will give the advertiser the broadest and most profitable circulation coverage. The New York Times has issued its 1938 "Circulation Book" which analyzes the distribution of copies of both the weekday and Sunday editions of The Times by metropolitan districts and by counties and geographical sections of the United States. A copy of this "Circulation Book" will be sent to advertisers upon request to The Times Advertising Department, 233 West 43rd Street, New York City.

FRANC RALLIES AS SPECULATIVE BUYING EXPANDS

Doubt Blum Monetary Plan Will Be Accepted.

Active speculative buying lifted the French franc 0.06⅛ of a cent to 3.13½ cents in foreign exchange dealings yesterday. The rise was variously attributed to short covering, to the belief that Premier Leon Blum of France would not carry out his proposed monetary program, and to the belief that a more conservative premier might supplant Blum.

Although the rally was impressive, most New York foreign exchange dealers professed to be reserving judgment on the outlook for the franc until there was more indication of France's reception to Blum's proposals.

Proposes Capital Levy.

The premier proposed a graduated capital levy and a program for revision of French money, including further centralization of currency operations in the Bank of France.

The dollar was moderately lower in terms of other European units in dull trading.

The flow of gold to the United States continued yesterday. The Federal Reserve Bank of New York reported that $3,700,000 in gold was engaged in England for shipment to New York, bringing total engagements in England since March 15 to $25,000,000 and in all countries to $53,700,000.

Silver Prices Unchanged.

Silver prices throughout the world were about unchanged. In London, the white metal was quoted at 42 cents an ounce, compared with 42.03 cents Saturday. The United States treasury renewed its bid of 43 cents an ounce for foreign silver, a price which has prevailed since last Tuesday. In Montreal, nominal quotations on silver futures closed unchanged to 0.40 cent an ounce lower.

DERBY, OIL HEAD, FILES TWO SUITS FOR $100,000 EACH

A. L. Derby, of Wichita, Kas., chairman of the board of the Derby Oil and Refining corporation, yesterday filed two $100,000 suits in the Cook county Superior court against six members of the company's stockholders' protective committee and A. C. Travis of New York, former counsel of the company.

The committee last month in a letter to stockholders alleged that the company had been mismanaged. Derby's suit against the six members of the committee charges them with libel in the letters. Travis is accused of making slanderous remarks at a board meeting in Chicago. Derby also charged that the committee members in letters falsely charged him and other officers with making misleading financial statements and making an illegal purchase of $750,000 worth of stock.

Committee members named are Wayland M. Minot and Malcolm L. Bell, both of Boston; and Frank S. Deland, Franklin King, Robert T. S. Lowell, and August Hemenway Jr., of New York.

AIR 3 TIMES CLEANER

AIR CONDITIONED

Extra Benefits enjoyed by tenants of TRIBUNE TOWER

TEMPERATURE ✓ HUMIDITY ✓
BACTERIAL COUNT ✓
CARBON DIOXIDE CONTENT ✓
shows ideal air conditions

TENANTS of air conditioned Tribune Tower breathe air three times cleaner than the air outside. It is changed three times as fast as health standards require. Its moisture content is perfect for physical comfort and well-being. These are among the findings of engineers.

Increased Efficiency

Translated into business terms, this means increased office efficiency, higher daily production and lowered costs—twelve months of the year. To these advantages are added the selling and prestige values of a distinctive address and associations of the highest character.

Spotless, comfortable offices, flooded with sunlight, served by the latest type high-speed elevators, are available in this efficient modern building at reasonable rentals.

Highly Accessible

If you seek an address of distinction, proximity to transportation, garages and a free, private parking area, ask for detailed information with blueprints and estimates. Address Herbert Kiddell, Manager.

TAYLOR LEAVES 'BIG STEEL' HELM; REVIEWS WORK

Stettinius to Take Over the Reins Today.

lously followed the terms of its agreement and, in so far as I know, has made no unfair effort to bring other employés into its ranks, while the corporation subsidiaries, during a very difficult period, have been entirely free of labor disturbances of any kind. The cost of a strike—to the corporation, to the public, and to the men—would have ben incalculable."

Before, and again following his account to stockholders the ten years' events which included the retiremen of $370,000,000 of direct and subsidiary funded debt to leave the corporation bond free, a $562,000,000 rehabilitation and modernization program with $80,000,000 more appropriated but not yet spent, and a complete revamping of management policies and ranking executive personnel, Taylor took occasion to pay tribute to the men with whom he worked.

Lauds Loyalty of Workers.

Of the quarter million men who draw their livings from the huge steel firm he said:

"I am sure that there is in America today no body of men and women more loyal to the country and its interests or more loyal and self-sacrificing in the doing of their daily tasks than those men and women who labor in all the ranks of the United States Steel corporation.

"They are thorough Americans and I am proud to have worked with them."

Recalls Gary's Objectives.

Mentioning his predecessor, the late Judge Elbert H. Gary, Taylor recalled that at his first meeting as chairman in 1932 Gary had told shareholders that they "stood in the shadow of celestial wings which were passing over them." Taylor said today he had sought to carry forward Gary's objectives in his program for modernizing the corporation and bringing it into harmony with the times.

The most important proposals approved by stockholders before they adjourned for the traditional free lunch of sandwiches, pie, and coffee included increase in the authorized common stock to 15,000,000 shares from 12,500,000; authority to the board to issue at its discretion bonds, debentures, and other obligations convertible into common stock, and change the common stock to no par value from $100 par, with certain accompanying writedowns of intangible items in the balance sheet.

The vote was 6,321,153 common shares and 2,808,997 preferred shares for, and 3,296 and 119, respectively, against.

LOWER FREIGHT LOADINGS SHOWN FOR LAST WEEK

First car loadings reports for last week showed declines in freight business from the week ended March 26. The figures released yesterday also showed more unfavorable comparisons with year ago reports.

Rock Island loadings last week were down 6.6 per cent from those of the corresponding week of last year, compared with a decrease of 4.9 per cent the preceding week.

On line loadings of the Milwaukee road last week were off 13.5 per cent from a year ago, compared with a 7.1 per cent decline in the preceding week. On line loadings of the Atchison likewise made a poorer comparison last week.

Car loadings reported yesterday:

	Wk. ended. Apr. 2.	Prev. wk.	Yr. ago.
Atchison T & SF	23,169	25,499	28,540
Baltimore & Ohio	35,620	36,765	51,719
Milwaukee	24,014	24,759	28,508

Manufacturer complete line of upset products, including cap screws, set screws, and Stainless Steel specialties desires representation in Chicago territory.

Remuneration on commission basis but company supports representatives with direct mail and executive field assistance. Our lines are diversified and can be sold to all wholesale hardware jobbers and practically all industrial plants.

It is highly important that we select representatives who can make a good living for themselves and some profit for the company.

In order that we may make the proper selection we wish full and complete replies to the following:

1. Are you acquainted with and have you sold the wholesale jobbers in your territory? Give names of jobbers and lines sold.
2. Have you the entre into the large industrial companies in your territory? Give names and lines sold.

No opposition to noncompetitive lines. All replies will be held in confidence. Interviews will be arranged with our Sales Manager. Address E B 25, Tribune.

1,000 Leads Waiting

We will employ ten men 25 years or over for these contacts. This is educational work and calls for willing and ambitious men. Our leads are built up and are less than 72 hours old. Our work is continuous and offers unusual opportunity to the right man. [illegible] We will select some men who have but little experience in the selling field. We can also use 4 men for out of city work after they are familiar with our business. Many of our experienced men are earning $40 to $75 comm. per week. You will be given the same opportunity in this business. Apply Tuesday, 11 to 12 and 2 to 5 p. m., 1706 E. 79th-street, 2d floor.

ONE MAN

We want an alert man over 25, not satisfied with earnings less than $30 per week to work through household appliance dept. this store.

Full percentage on store sales and leads; good references and car necessary.

WIEBOLDT'S,
ASHLAND, MONROE AND OGDEN.

IMMEDIATE OPENINGS

for 3 men over 21 who can sell a new product that meets an existing demand in every home.

This product has patented exclusive features that are instantly appreciated by every prospect.

This product is marketed by one of Chicago's largest furniture co.'s in a manner that places it quickly within the reach of every prospect and offers an unusually attractive permanent opportunity for comfortable percentage earnings for a limited number of workers. See employment Mgr., 4130 W. Madison.

MEN.

If you possess sales ability or have had some experience in contacting the public, investigate this opportunity. Local company dealing in full line of home furnishings needs 3 men immediately for special spring campaign. Experience in our line unnecessary. Car helpful but not essential. Will advance commission over $35 per week on our advance commission and bonus plan. Drawing account privileges. For personal interview, see Mr. Nelson, 854 W. 63d-street.

HELP WANTED—MEN.

Salesmen.

"GETTING IN"

Is Usually the Hardest Part of a Sale

Our tested plan eliminates useless, discouraging contacts — enables our men to employ their time with actual prospects under ideal selling conditions. The prospect MUST listen. Could anything be more of a natural selling situation?

If you are to make really large earnings your time is valuable. It should not be employed in the old inefficient way of ringing door bells and guessing about the possibility of making sales. You work on definite appointments here.

We make sales calls with you and any sales made while with you are yours plus the full commission earned. In other words we give you 100% co-operation, not just equip you and tell you to go to it, but again we repeat we actually go with you and show you how to do it.

The product you sell is for the kitchen, nothing else like it is on the market and is in demand 365 days a year.

Manufactured by an old reliable company 20 yrs. at one location and rated A1 in Dun & Bradstreet. You are fully equipped without ONE CENT of deposit. Plenty of room for executive material as we are expanding nationally.

Call at our factory, 2714 W. 36th-place, at 2 P. M. SHARP Tuesday for demonstration of product. Lunch served after demonstration. DON'T FORGET, 2 P. M. sharp. Car necessary.

2714 W. 36TH-PLACE

Spring Is Here

Open roads are calling . . . but maybe the "old bus" looks shabby and out of date?

THEN WHY

delay the purchase of a new or "good as new" car when you can finance its purchase here at money saving rates—spread the deposits out to fit—and buy for Cash where dollars count the most?

for yourself. On new or used cars the finance charge is only 6%—$6 per $100—per year on amounts of any size. No fee—no extra charges—it's as simple as that to figure the cost yourself on any deal. Fire and Theft is all the insurance we require.

Buyers-Dealers-Brokers

all like our plan because it's a CASH proposition any way you look at it. And there's the added advantage of doing business with a 20 year old State Bank right in the Loop.

WHY NOT

come in—Call up—or Write, whichever suits you best? You'll see why people say we couldn't make our service more convenient or quicker on the trigger.
